Two Engagements In Week's News; Wedding Day Set

The past week brought news of additional engagements, and wedding plans.

Added to the list of brides-to-be is Miss Margery Johnson, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Johnson, 1478 Morrow road, last week announced her engagement to Clifford Hughes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bray, Eagle Point.

The wedding has been set for July 1 and will be in Wesley chapel of First Methodist church, with reception following.

Miss Johnson is a member of the 1950 graduating class of Medford high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Williamson of Rogue River announce the engagement of their daughter, Marilyn Anne, to Roscoe Hargitt of Oakland, Cal. Mr. Hargitt is a son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Hargitt, also of Rogue River.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Pupils Presented In Piano Recital

Mrs. Frances Schuchard presented her younger students of piano in a recital recently. Attending were parents and friends. The recital was given in the home of Mrs. George Schuler, 33 Valley View drive.

Among the students, many of whom played for the first time in public, were Mary Ellen Towne, Frankie Schuchard and Susan Schuler, all five years old.

Others who appeared on the program were Douglas Atkins, Susan Baker, Jackie Creager, Carol Hussion, Mary Elizabeth Pierce, George Schuler, Lou Elsa Voegtly, Keith Harrison, Jimmie Emmens and Jane Edgerton.

Melissa and Nancy Jennings augmented the program with appropriate vocal duets, and Nancy sang a solo.

Refreshments were served at the close of the program. Advanced students of Mrs. Schuchard appeared in recital earlier in the spring.

Junior Service league will hold the monthly luncheon Tuesday, June 13, in the upstairs dining room of Rogue Valley Country club.
