

Aerial 'Moving Van' Hauls Furniture

Portland, Ore., June 15—(U.P.) A Portland moving company yesterday loaded 10,000 pounds of furniture aboard an aerial "moving van" bound for Alaska.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Gillanders, moving to Fairbanks, own the furniture. Gillanders will be employed as an auditor for the Lathrop company.

Gordon Costello, traffic manager for the airline, said the shipment will cost 16 cents a pound, not counting packing charges. He said he believed it would be cheaper than shipment by water.

TO CORONATE QUEEN

Salem, Ore., June 15—(U.P.)—Queen-elect Nancy Miller tonight will be crowned to mark the first of three major days in the 1950 Salem Cherryland Festival.

CBS Technicians Halt Three-Day Studio Walkout

New York, June 15—(U.P.)—CBS technicians ended a three-day strike today, returning to the network's TV and radio studios while union and company officials negotiate a settlement in their contract dispute.

Federal Mediation Commissioner J. R. Mandelbaum announced the truce last night and said both sides agreed on further negotiations starting Monday.

Shows Cancelled

The 335 strikers, members of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers (AFL) went on strike Monday, forcing cancellation of a number of television shows.

Executives of the Columbia Broadcasting System manned equipment and the majority of the television programs went on as scheduled. Radio programs were not affected, CBS said.

The strike involved mainly working conditions, days off and lunch periods, with the wage issue a secondary factor.

Girl Scout News

To Show Film

The Girl Scout film, "Women of Tomorrow," will be shown at the Esquire theater Friday, June 16, at 3 p.m. The film, which had been originally scheduled to appear in Medford earlier in the spring, will be seen at a special performance. Selected cartoons will also be shown.

There will be no admission charge and scouts are requested to wear their scout pins or have their registration cards for identification. The show is open to both scout members and adult scouts.

"Women of Tomorrow" has been released in 150 cities across the country. It tells the story of the Girl Scout, beginning with the Brownie making her "promise." It shows how Girl scouting gives girls a sense of belonging, and at the same time leads them into ever widening interests—in service at home and in the community, learning self-reliance at camp, according to the announcement.

The film shows how Girl scouts go on to more camping,

Counterfeit Money Ring Rounded Up In America, Canada

Vancouver, B. C., June 15—(U.P.)—More counterfeiting arrests in four American cities were predicted today as police rounded up members of an international ring which had been manufacturing and passing bogus $100 travelers' checks.

British Columbia provincial police and U. S. Federal Bureau of Investigation agents swooped down on a suburban home last night, arresting two men and confiscating an 800-pound printing press.

Two Held

Charged with counterfeiting and held by British Columbia authorities were L. T. Welsh, 39-year-old salesman, and Tony Warfield, 40-year-old accountant. Agents said they expected arrests in Seattle, Wash.; Portland, Ore.; Minneapolis and St. Louis shortly.

It was believed about $100,000 in bogus Bank of America checks had been cashed in the four cities. Forty-four of the checks turned up in Seattle and 21 more in Edmonton, Alta., officers said.

Also seized in yesterday's raid, which came after six days of intensive investigation, was a large quantity of photographic equipment and high quality bank paper.

Oregon Law Students Named to Honor Group

Eugene, Ore., June 15—(U.P.)—Two University of Oregon law students, graduating next Sunday, have been named to the National Law School Honor society, the order of the COIF.

Morris J. Galen of Portland and Robert L. Meyers of Beaverton were named to the group. Galen will receive his doctorate in jurisprudence and Meyers his bachelor of law degree.

more knowledge of communities and the world, how seniors follow special interests as wing scouts, mariners, hospital aides and how all scouts with the help of their leaders and community backing, are better citizens of their own nation and of the world, it is stated.

Day camp will be dismissed early enough on Friday for the girls to see the performance, Mrs. Hopkins states.

British Columbia Woodworkers End Threatened Strike

Vancouver, B. C., June 15—(U.P.)—British Columbia's 32,000 coastal woodworkers called off a threatened strike in the vital west coast industry today six hours before the deadline.

Officials of the International Woodworkers of America (CIO) accepted an offer of a 12½ cent pay increase, a 40-hour week and maintenance of union membership from the 163 lumber companies involved in the dispute.

General Increase Asked

The union had demanded a general increase of 17 cents an hour, a 40-hour week and a union shop.

The agreement was reached after a continuous nine-hour mediation session with government labor conciliators. Union officials said the accepted "compromise" settlement still to be ratified by the membership, in the best interests of the province.

The woodworking industry earns 40 cents out of every dollar in British Columbia. A strike would have dealt a blow to much of Canada's export to Britain and to Canadian housing projects.

Methodists Gain 2,061 New Members

Portland, Ore., June 15—(U.P.)—Rev. Orval M. Whitman, pastor of the Oregon City Methodist church, told the 98th annual Oregon Conference of Methodist Churches here yesterday that the church gained 2,061 new members during the past year.

Rev. Whitman said the latest total for the church was 43,370 members.

The clergyman said 1536 infants and 1408 adults were baptized into the Methodist church during the year.

Rev. Oliver J. Gill, superintendent of the Forest Grove district, reported on new churches under construction at Hillsboro, Oregon City and Woodburn. Dr. Roy A. Fedge, Salem district superintendent, reported a new church being built at Sweet Home.

CANDIDATE—Mrs. Moore (Eva) Hamilton, above, yesterday announced she would be a candidate for the Medford school board at the district No. 49 election next Monday. Three candidates are seeking the post vacated by John P. Moffatt, who is not seeking reelection.

Local Firm to Build Homes in Corvallis

Corvallis, June 14—Bauer and Edmonds, Medford construction firm, has been granted a permit here to build 25 low-cost homes in the northwest section of Corvallis. Cost of the project is to be $155,000, according to the permit issued by the city engineer's office.

Another project to help lick the housing shortage here is a six-story, 48-unit apartment house to be built at the corner of 16th and Jackson streets by the Kettell Construction company. City Engineer V. L. Goodnight said the project is to cost between $400,000 and $500,000, and will be the largest apartment house in the city.

Body Found in River Claimed Boise Man

The Dalles, Ore., June 15—(U.P.)—A body found in the Columbia river here yesterday was identified as that of Charles W. Milstead of Boise, Ida., who fell from a bridge into the Snake river at Lewiston, Ida., May 31. Coastguardsmen recovered the body Wednesday after a tugboat crew reported it. Milstead was survived by his parents, three sisters and a brother.
