

Miss Helen Moffatt Becomes Bride of Vinton McMichael

Among the many weddings held last week-end was that of Miss Helen Lorraine Moffatt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce W. Moffatt, 2178 Spring street, to Vinton Corydon McMichael Jr., son of Mrs. L. D. Hale, Placerville, Cal. The rites took place Sunday, June 11, at the First Christian church with the Rev. Holly Roy Jarvis officiating and Mr. Moffatt giving his daughter in marriage.

The bride's gown was of white organdy over taffeta and her veil was of nylon net. She carried a nosegay of pink roses, Esther Reed daisies and dutch iris. Miss Shirley Lanette Moffatt was her sister's maid-of-honor. She wore a country maid style frock of peach colored organdy over white taffeta and carried a nosegay of daisies, lavender sweet peas and pink roses.

Miss Patricia F. Cook of Portland was bridesmaid. Her dress of pale green organdy over white taffeta matched that worn by the maid-of-honor and she also carried daisies, sweet peas and roses.

Gordon Thomas Scott of Yreka, Cal., was best man for the bridegroom and ushers were Raymond Clair Penney and Orville Ekstrom, both of Yreka.

Mrs. Ernest Conrad provided the wedding music. A reception for 75 guests followed in the church parlor. Cutting the wedding cake and pouring were Mrs. Gene Tedrick, Mrs. Lewis Bish, Mrs. Ivan Wolfe, Mrs. Clarence Tedrick and Mrs. Oval McClanahan.

Bouquets of garden flowers decorated the parlor. For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Moffatt wore a gown of royal blue chiffon with a bouquet of pink moss roses and lavender sweet peas.

The newlyweds traveled along the California coast for their wedding trip and are at home at 300 Third street, apartment 4, in Yreka.

Among the wedding guests were Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Shirley and Mrs. Lillian Moffatt, grandparents of the bride, Mrs. Flora Shirley, a great aunt and Mrs. Don Greaves and daughter, cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Lawrence, uncle and aunt of the bride from Stockton, Cal., Mrs. Irene Willenbrink, Moreen Williams, Shirley Temple, Mrs. Otto Burmeister, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Barnett and daughters, Lois and Charlotte, and Miss Zita Calkins, all of Yreka; Walter F. Heller Jr., Irene Gargaware of Ashland, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Cook of Portland and William Lee Russey.

The bride attended Southern Oregon college after graduating from Medford high school and received her junior certificate from the college this month. She is a member of Sigma Epsilon Pi. The bridegroom attended school in Yreka and later was a student at Southern Oregon college where he studied science and merchandising. He is now employed by Frosty Food Locker company of Yreka.

Raymond Moore of California acted as best man. Wade Parker and Robert Lull, Medford, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, were ushers.

As the couple recited their wedding vows, a recording was made on a tape recording. Candles were lighted by the bride's nieces, Clairence, Joyce and Diane Crain. Their dresses were of apple green taffeta styled the same as the bride's gown.

Evelyn Pleyer, sister of the bridegroom, was flower girl. She wore a white marquisette dress and carried a basket of white flowers.

Present for the wedding were the parents and all brothers and sisters of both the bride and bridegroom.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Jaquith wore a black print dress with orchid corsage. Mrs. Pleyer, the bridegroom's mother, wore a navy blue dress with an orchid corsage.

About 300 persons attended the wedding and reception held in the patio of Upland college. Assisting at the reception were the bride's nieces.

White gladioli, palms, candles and candelabra furnished church and reception decorations.

The newlywed couple made a wedding trip in Southern California. They will live in Kansas City, Mo.

The bride holds a bachelor of arts degree from Upland college and a bachelor of religious education degree from Pacific Bible college. The bridegroom attended Southern Oregon college and holds a bachelor's degree in theology from Pacific Bible college.

Among the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. William D. Meeker, married June 10 at First Methodist church. The bride is the former Joanne Wray Harrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Harrison, 719 West Fourth street, and Mr. Meeker is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Meeker, Henley, Ore. The couple will live in Klamath Falls. (Brainerd photo)

Joanne Harrison, William Meeker Wedded in Chapel

The former Joanne Wray Harrison is one of the many June brides, her wedding to William D. Meeker, having been solemnized in Wesley chapel of First Methodist church June 10.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ray Harrison, 719 West Fourth street, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Meeker, Henley, Ore.

The Rev. Meredith A. Groves read the 10:30 a.m. ceremony by candlelight and Mr. Harrison gave his daughter in marriage.

Mrs. Richard Harrison sang "With This Ring I Thee Wed" and Miss Myrna Hannaford was accompanist.

For her wedding the bride wore a white wool gabardine suit with navy blue accessories and her flowers were a white orchid with pink rosebuds.

Miss Hannaford was maid-of-honor for the bride. She was attired in a beige suit with brown accessories and her flowers were yellow carnations.

Edward L. Young of Klamath Falls served as best man for the bridegroom.

A reception for about 30 relatives and close friends followed in the church parlor. Cutting the cake and pouring were Mrs. M. D. Borough, Mrs. C. L. Fraker, Mrs. A. L. Ellington and Mrs. Richard Harrison.

Arrangements of delphinium, daisies and peonies formed a floral background for the wedding party and also decorated the church parlor.

Mr. Meeker and his bride traveled north for their honeymoon and will live in Klamath Falls. The bride was a member of the 1950 graduating class of Medford high school.

Here for the ceremony were the bridegroom's parents, his sister, Nora, a brother, Dick Meeker and a cousin, David Meeker, all of Henley; H. A. Harrison of Roseburg and Mrs. A. L. Ellington of Eugene.

Jean Hart's Diary

Have you ever realized what a blessing Nylon is to a girl? Are we lucky. Take nylon slips, panties and brassieres for instance. One set will see you through a trip. All you have to do is get in early enough in the evenings to wash them out . . . in the morning they will be fluffy, sweet and crisp as the day you bought them.

And nylon nighties. Pretty and feminine . . . they whisk thru suds and dry like a handkerchief. A blessing to girls who have to spend a few days in the hospital having babies and things.

And now a new nylon girdle that is the cutest little gadget I've seen yet. I swear you could take it off and hide it in your purse if it got hot or scratchy. But it won't . . . it's so light and comfortable. They look like they wouldn't fit your baby's doll . . . but they stretch to confine the most obstinate contours . . . in the nicest possible way. Of course.

And nylon summer dresses in pretty colors and becoming styles. The designers really are adding a little sex to the coal and whatever that goes to make nylon . . . and they are sending us some honeys. Nope, when you wear nylon . . . it's not the upkeep . . . it's the original cost . . . and it's worth it.
