

Beadnell-Barnwell Rites Held at Catholic Church

The wedding of Miss Beverly Elaine Barnwell, daughter of Mrs. William James Barnwell, 331 South Ivy street, to Robert Wayne Beadnell, son of Samuel Beadnell of Westwood, Cal., took place Saturday, June 10, at Sacred Heart Catholic church. The Rev. C. J. Linehan officiated at the 10:30 a.m. ceremony.

Two hundred guests attended the service, read in a setting of coral and white gladioli arranged with palms and ferns. Bruno Pellegrini was organist.

The bride, given in marriage by her grandfather, Joseph J. Brent from Portland, was gown in white slipper satin, made in train and with insertion of lace and her fingertip length veil of matching lace fell from a tiara of seed pearls. Her bouquet was of bouvardia and white orchids.

Mrs. G. B. Logan, sister of the bride from Red Bluff, Cal., was matron-of-honor. She wore blue taffeta and carried a cascade of pink orchids. Her headpiece was of pink flowers. Bridesmaids were Miss Bonnie Bell Barnwell and Luanne Barnwell, sisters of the bride; Miss Aileen Tammy and Mrs. Edward Young, all of Medford. They wore matching gowns of pink taffeta and lace and carried cascades of blue Esther Reed daisies and purple orchids.

Kathleen Logan, niece of the bride, was flower girl. She wore yellow organdy and lace with a halo of daisies and carried a basket of rose petals.

Best man was Earl Beadnell, brother of the bridegroom from Westwood, and ushers were Messrs Marvin Getling, Haskell Stormer Jr., John Ceaglio, Bernard Logan and Edward Young.

About 100 guests attended the reception, held in the Pioneer room of the Jackson hotel immediately following the ceremony. The room was decorated with a profusion of colorful flowers, and white gardenias graced the refreshment tables. Mesdames M. C. Gleason, Edgar Link, John DeLapp, Charles Ward and Christopher Weiskamp presided at the coffee table and the wedding cake was cut by Mrs. John Ceaglio and Mrs. Van Allen, sisters of the bridegroom. Mrs. Oscar Waterman took charge of the guest book, and Mrs. C. J. Logan served punch.

Miss Bonnie Belle Barnwell sang, accompanied by Mrs. J. J. Brent and Mrs. Brent provided music for dancing.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Brent, grandparents of the bride, and Earl Brent, her uncle, all of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Logan, Mrs. C. J. Logan, and Mrs. John DeLapp and daughter, all of Red Bluff; Mr. and Mrs. L. Van Allen and daughter, Portola, Cal.; Mr. and Mrs. John Ceaglio and Earl Beadnell of Westwood; Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Waterman and Mr. and Mrs. H. Mitchell of Grants Pass.

The bride is a graduate of Missoula, Mont., high school, and has been employed by the local telephone company. The bridegroom, a graduate of the Westwood high school and of Stanford university, is now employed as a surveyor by California Oregon Power company.

The bride's going-away costume was a white suit worn with pink accessories. Their honeymoon will take the couple to the southwest, including the Grand Canyon in Arizona. They will make their home in Medford.
