Central Point Bethel Installs Officers; Miss Jewett Queen

Central Point — Miss Laurel Jewett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Jewett, Central Point, was installed queen of the Central Point Bethel of Job's Daughters at installation ceremonies in the Masonic temple here Thursday evening.

Miss Jan Dean Freeman, retiring queen, was installing queen, assisted by Miss Jean Hamilton, guide; Mrs. Archie Quackenbush, marshal; Mrs. Robert McClaren, recorder; Miss Donna Nealon, chaplain; Miss Patsy Faber, musician; Miss Aylene Hopkins, and Mrs. Robert Jantzer, custodians.

Other officers installed were Caroline Freeland, senior princess; Esther Snook, junior princess; Nancy Mallon, guide; Marion Smith, marshal; Jeanne Wilcox, musician; Donna Lavin, recorder; Belva Chew and Melva Chew, custodians; Doreene Jones Theda Peyton, Mary Lou Van Gilder, Linda Obenchain, messengers; Katherine Finley, treasurer; Muriel Swing and Shirley Lyman, guards; Mary Lou Rupp, librarian and Marlene Snook, lady of lights.

Carlene van Buskirk, chaplain; Helen Robertson, messenger and Janet Grieve, recorder will be installed at a later date.

In the Bethel choir for this term will be Maria Jean Abbott, Anita Conger, Virginia Dew, Myrna Eaves, Alice Hastains, Evelyn Jones, Connie Lambert, Deanna Lowry, Nadra Moore, Myrna Lee Scott, Judy Servold, Pat Snook, Earlene South and Helen Tonn.

Following installation ceremonies, Miss Lucille Harnish, accompanied by Miss Patsy Faber, sang. The choir gave a pious addendum in honor of Miss Jewett and presented her lavender and white flowers. The Bethel's colors, purple and white, were carried out with baskets of flowers. Initials of the new queen were outlined on the walls with flowers. Miss Esther Snook and Miss Nancy Mallon assisted by Mrs. Orville Hamilton, were in charge of Bethel room decorations.

The dining room was decorated with metallic pansies in two shades of lavender on the walls. Bowls of pansies were placed on the ledges.

Mrs. Lawrence Smith arranged dining room decorations and Mrs. Howard Jewett arranged the serving table.

Pansy favors with pictures of the new queen were given each guest. These were designed by Caroline Freeland who was assisted by Marion Smith, Lucille Harnish and Donna Nealon.

Miss Freeman, the retiring queen, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Freeman, was honored by the Bethel at a banquet in Rogue Valley Country club preceding installation. Pink sweet peas in crystal bowls centered the tables. Pink wax nut cups on gold leaves and pink books lettered in gold further carried out Miss Freeman's installation colors. About 75 guests attended.

Misses Caroline Freeland, Marion Smith, Linda Obenchain, Theda Peyton and Nancy Mallon presented the honored guest pink carnations and extended wishes of friendship and happiness. Miss Jewett gave Miss Freeman the traditional Bethel gift, a sterling teaspoon, engraved with the year of service and
