Park Church Service Scheduled on Sunday

The Medford Ministerial association this summer will conduct services in the old city park at 4:30 p.m. each Sunday from July 2 to September 3.

The speaker for July 2 will be the Rev. J. D. McDaniel, pastor of the Church of God, Medford. Mr. and Mrs. John Eby will have charge of the music both group singing and instrumental numbers.

Music before and after the meeting will be furnished by Eby's Book and Bible house in Medford. The local Gideon organization will serve as ushers in providing for the physical arrangements.

The purpose of the project is to use local pastors and church leaders in providing a worship service for those who do not get to the churches and enjoy meeting in the open air.

Church of Nazarene Announces Subjects

The 11 a.m. service of the Medford Church of the Nazarene will be broadcast over Station KXJC. The pastor will speak on the subject, "Heart-Felt, or Know-So Religion."

The pastor will also speak over Station KMED on the regular 9 a.m. Gospel Hour program.

Sunday school will convene at 9:45 a.m. The pastor, the Rev. P. J. Bartram, announced that he will speak on a special subject at the 7:30 p.m. service. The theme will be "This Perishing World," a study of the third chapter of the second epistle of Peter in the light of late world developments.

Visitors in the city are invited to attend the services of the Church of the Nazarene.

Refreshments will be served and everyone is welcome to attend the committee announces.

Methodist Youth Plan To Attend Camp Soon

A group of young adults from the First Methodist church will attend youth adult camp at Camp Myrtlewood near Bridge this week-end.

W. T. (Jack) Frost is dean of the camp and the Rev. Meredith Groves is discussion leader and Sunday morning preacher.

A group of young people and leaders will attend the camp for junior children at Camp Myrtlewood, July 4 to 9. Leaders from Medford will include Mrs. W. H. Roberts, Mrs. A. O. Walker and Mrs. L. B. Pierce.

Artist and Wife Home From Trip, Museum Visited

Gold Hill—Artist Fritz Wertz and Mrs. Wertz returned to Gold Hill this week after a business and vacation trip north. Saturday they were luncheon guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Dolph, curators of the Maryhill Museum of Fine Arts at Maryhill, Wash.

Mr. Wertz displayed his new collection of Jacksonville street scenes, recently painted, and the museum added one of his watercolors to its permanent collection.

U. S. Treasurer's Check Bounces Back

Omaha, Neb., June 30—(U.P.)—A check written by United States Treasurer Georgia Neese Clark bounced back at an Omaha newspaper woman who cashed it.

Mrs. Clark sent Evelyn Simpson a check for $4.98 to pay for a skirt which Miss Simpson sent her.

Miss Simpson said Mrs. Clark's own bank, the Richland, Kan., State bank, refused to honor it.

Mrs. Clark, who signs all U.S. currency, had neglected to sign the check.

Former Residents Visitors in Medford

Mrs. Mildred Hornecker and 10-year-old daughter, Judy, Portland, former Medford residents, arrived Tuesday to be here several days on business and to visit friends. Miss Hornecker had appeared Saturday in Portland in her fourth piano recital for the season. Playing classical selections her program was about an hour in length. She also played in a three-piano presentation. She studies under Miss Georgia Rich, Portland.

Present were Mesdames James Clement, C. W. Smith, Lester Thompson, S. L. Routh, Terry Thompson and Cleo Gilchrist, and the hostess. Guests were Miss Pat Clement, Phillip Van Horn and baby Terry Clement.

New Father Also Becomes Grandfather

Minneapolis, June 30—(U.P.)—Lloyd Forbes and his son, Maynard, stood side by side before the big glass window in the nursery at Deaconess hospital today.

The elder Forbes beamed approvingly at a new son and a new granddaughter.

The younger Forbes made faces at his infant brother and daughter.

They agreed it was somewhat confusing.

Mrs. Maynard Forbes gave birth to a daughter 23 hours after the mother-in-law, Mrs. Lloyd Forbes, had a son.
