

Rogues Play Reno Twice Here Tuesday To Open Home Stay; Top Peaches, 3-1

Medford Rogues will return to the local fairgrounds park Tuesday night (Fourth of July) to face the Reno Silver Fox in a doubleheader starting at 6:30. Single games with the Nevadans will be played Wednesday and Thursday evenings at the same park.

Reno has come up with a bang since it played here last month, knocking over first place teams with comparative ease and hanging its way up the standings.

Medford will be much stronger in the pitching staff than when the Rogues left here a week ago tomorrow with the addition of Vince Lazor, veteran pitcher. Tickets Put on Sale

Tickets are on sale in advance at Lampport's and Sam's Sporting Goods stores and at the office of Rogue Valley Baseball, Inc., 242 South Central avenue.

Marysville, Cal., July 1—(U.P.)—Relief Pitcher Mike Kanshin stopped a seventh inning uprising here Friday night, to help his Medford Rogues to a 3-1 Far West league victory over the Marysville Peaches.

Medford's runs came in the second inning when Don Williams as first batter up singled to right, Bob Haddock flied out but Chuck Freeman came through with a single to left to put Rogues players on first and third.

Mare Guglielmo singled over second base to score Williams and Freeman tallied on a wild pitch. Guglielmo going to third. The local catcher in turn crossed the plate when Pitcher Bob Smith singled to make Medford's final run of the game.

No more hits were made by the Rogues until Johnny Popovich and Williams both singled but were put out.

Marysville threatened to at least tie the score in the seventh inning when the Peaches loaded the bases with two out only to have big Mike Kanshin fan the last batter to end the inning and threat.

The linescore:
Medford 3 0 0 0 0 0 0 3 6 9
Marysville 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 1 3 3
Smith, Kanshin (7) and Guglielmo, Arizular and Schafer.

Oregon Net Tournney Due

Portland, Ore., July 1—(U.P.)—The 52nd annual Oregon State tennis championships got under way at the Irvington club here Sunday.

More than 75 aspirants will battle through first round action in the seven divisions during first-day play.

On hand to defend titles are three defending champions: Emery Neale, Portland, men's singles; Patsy Heard, Portland, junior women's singles, and Seth Peterson, San Francisco junior men's singles.

Toughest competition is expected in the men's singles. Defending Champion Emery Neale heads a list of top west coast netters including Hugh Findlay last year's semi-finalist and ex-freshman tennis coach at Oregon State college Clyde Knox sixth ranking Pacific northwest player Tom MacDonald top University of Oregon seventh ranking player in New Zealand.

Medford's runs came in the second inning when Don Williams as first batter up singled to right, Bob Haddock flied out but Chuck Freeman came through with a single to left to put Rogues players on first and third.

All Classes At Pool Off

No swimming classes will be held this week at the Hawthorne park swimming pool due to the holiday and the fact many of those registered probably are away, Norm Worthley said Saturday. Classes will resume next week.

Children in the non-swimmers and beginners classes held Monday, Wednesday and Friday mornings and the intermediate and junior and senior life savers classes Tuesday and Thursday mornings are among those postponed.

Also postponed for this week are the adult non-swimmers' classes held Tuesday and Thursday evenings.

Boys' Baseball Unscheduled

There will be no sessions of the Summer Baseball school at the high school field Monday or Tuesday but the sessions will resume Wednesday morning, Director Alex McDonald said Saturday. The school will also meet Thursday.

School hours are from 8 a. m. to noon except Tuesdays and Thursdays when the school also runs from 1 to 4 p. m. as well as in the morning.

More than 100 boys are attending the school this year under the direction of McDonald, Bob Newland and Frank Roelandt.

U. S. Golfers Entered In British Tournament

Troon, Scotland, July 1—(U.P.)—Seven U. S. challengers, headed by Frank Stranahan of Toledo, O., and Johnny Bulla of Phoenix, Ariz., took their final practice rounds today as 266 golf stars from 10 nations prepared to tee off in the British open championship Monday.

Bobby Locke of South Africa will try to retain the crown against a field which included seven former titleholders. He was favored at 3 to 1 but faced a heavy task in the rugged, five-day tournament which ends with two rounds next Friday.

San Francisco, July 1—(U.P.)—Bay area A. F. L. carpenters have rejected the contractors' "final offer" and will strike Monday.

El Centro, Cal., July 1—(U.P.)—The Sunset league-leading El Centro Imperials won't come home after next week's road trip.

Wimbledon, Eng., July 1—(U.P.)—America's chances for the Wimbledon men's singles championship—and the Davis cup later on—soared today when young Vic Seixas upset the veteran Jack Bromwich and led five U. S. players into the quarter-finals, mostly at the expense of Australia.

Mathias Top In Decathlon

Tulare, Cal., July 1—(U.P.)—Olympic Champion Bob Mathias was crowned national AAU decathlon champion for the third straight year today after running up a total of 8,042 points to smash the world's record for the 10 gruelling events.

The 19-year-old Tulare youth, "boy wonder" of the 1948 Olympics, was hailed by his closest opponent, North Carolina's Bill Albans, as the "greatest performer ever." Albans had 7,361 points.

Mathias not only broke the 14-year-old world decathlon mark of 7,900 points set by Glenn Morris in the 1936 Olympics, but also bettered Morris' American decathlon record of 7,380 points, also set in 1936.

While failing to crack any individual world marks in the 10 tests, he displayed outstanding ability in each of the events to build his record-breaking score.

Stars, L. A. Win in PCL

Hollywood, July 1—(U.P.)—Ben Wade's four-hit pitching and two homers that accounted for all of Hollywood's runs gave the Stars a 5 to 2 win over Oakland Saturday in a Pacific Coast league game.

San Francisco, July 1—(U.P.)—The confidence of Seal Hurler "Con" Dempsey was blasted Saturday afternoon when a fifth-inning grand slam homer by Angel Lou Klein shattered San Francisco's one-run lead and insured the Pacific Coast league win for Los Angeles 8 to 4.

Phil Getchell Loses Junior

Portland, Ore., July 1—(U.P.)—Portland golfers swept the Oregon State junior golf tournament at Alderwood Country club Friday as Bruce Cudd, Barbara Snook, Gary Hval and Bobby Cone won championships in the final round.

Cudd, 16, shaded Phil Getchell, Medford, in the 36-hole junior finale, one-up, Miss Snook, representing Columbia-Edgewater Country club, nosed out Pat Neubert, Riverside Golf and Country club, one-up for the girls' crown.

Hval, 12, was the youngest winner in the history of the boys' contest, and whipped Don Anawalt, Eugene, 4 and 3. Cone, 9, beat David Stanford, Eugene, one-up in nine holes in the special pee-wee division.

C. P. Studs Play Three Games Away This Week

Central Point, July 1—The Central Point Studs will take to the road for baseball games Sunday, Monday and Tuesday with all three not counting in the Southern Oregon league standings. Sunday is an "off day" in the league so make-up games can be played.

The Studs play at Brookings on the Sabbath and at Crescent City on Monday and Tuesday afternoons.

Nelson Back With Team After Hurt Boy Better

Tommy Nelson, playing manager of the Medford Rogues, was expected to join the local club at Marysville yesterday after taking his son injured when hit by a car this week, to a Los Angeles hospital.

Pete Jonas, Pacific university baseball coach and pitcher for the Rogues, had been managing the team since Nelson left Willows for Santa Barbara where the boy was hurt.

El Centro, Cal., July 1—(U.P.)—The Sunset league-leading El Centro Imperials won't come home after next week's road trip.

No Pee Wee Ball Monday

There will be no scheduled games in the Pee Wee Baseball league Monday but instead another set of four tilts will be played Wednesday evening, a glance at the official schedule revealed Saturday.

Games tomorrow night were eliminated due to the holiday on Tuesday.

Wednesday's schedule calls for Ashland and Talent playing at Medford, Central Point at Phoenix and Eagle Point at Jacksonville. Play ball is at 8:30 p. m. for the younger boys and about 7:15 p. m. for the older ones.

No Junior Legion Ball Drill Monday, Tuesday

There will be no Junior Legion baseball practice Monday and Tuesday this week on account of the holiday but drills will be held Wednesday and Thursday evenings.

Yesterday's scheduled game between the local club and Myrtle Creek was cancelled when the Creekers decided to play only games in their own area.

'Great Circle' Winner Hollywood Park Race

Inglewood, Cal., July 1—(U.P.)—Great Circle proved himself the best three year-old now competing on the west coast by scoring a half-length victory in the $20,000 Cinema handicap at Hollywood park today.

With Your Host campaigning in the midwest, Great Circle took over in the three-year-old ranks by coming from far off the pace to capture the mile race in the good time of 1:36, just three-fifths of a second off the track record.
