

Rita Belle Rogers Wed To William C. Riggert

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Riggert were married June 23, at First Presbyterian church, Medford. The bride is the former Rita Belle Rogers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Rogers, 814 Adams lane, and Mr. Riggert is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Riggert of Lynwood, Cal. (Shangle photo)

Among late June brides is the former Miss Rita Belle Rogers, whose marriage to William C. Riggert was an event of June 23 at First Presbyterian church. The bride is a daughter of Mr. Ernest Rogers, 814 Adams lane, and Mr. Riggert's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Riggert of Lynwood, Cal.

The service was read by the Rev. Donald B. Blackstone of Twin Falls, Ida., and the bride's father gave her in marriage. Miss Phyllis Corliss sang, accompanied by Mrs. Eva Marsh at the organ.

Masses of pink roses formed a floral setting for the wedding party, and tall baskets held yellow scotch broom. Pink roses with satin bows decorated the pew ends.

The bride's gown was of white satin and lace with long train and full-length veil held by a crown of rhinestones and pearls. The veil is a keepsake of Mrs. Charles Reames and has been worn by seven Medford brides. She carried pink sweet peas and white roses.

Miss Hazel Hartley was the bride's maid-of-honor. Her gown was of chartreuse satin and she carried a nosegay of white sweet peas and yellow roses. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Richard Harrison and Miss Helen Rogers, sisters of the bride. Their gowns were of yellow organdy and their bouquets were nosegays of pink sweet peas and white carnations.

Three-year-old Nancy Johnson was flower girl. She wore a long frock of yellow, matching the bridesmaid's gowns, and she also carried a nosegay of pink sweet peas and white carnations.

Donald Lingren and Ernest Rogers Jr., lighted the candles. Bob Littrell was best man for the bridegroom and Richard Harrison, William Buchanan, Jim Lewis and Floyd Eastwood acted as groomsmen.

The reception which followed was at the home of Mrs. Lew Conley, and Mrs. Ben Stafford and Mrs. John Wubbers assisted. Mrs. Everard Brown cut the wedding cake and Miss Irma Bostock served punch. Miss Mary Lou Van Galder took charge of the guest book.

Almost 200 guests attended the wedding and reception. Here for the wedding were the bridegroom's parents and Mrs. Grace Hackett of Mitchell, S. D. Special guests were Mrs. Nora Kleinhamer, grandmother of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. E. Lingren, Mr. and Mrs. F. Hanson, uncles and aunts of the bride and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bursing, uncle and aunt of the bridegroom.

The newlyweds traveled to Los Angeles for their honeymoon and will live on South Pacific highway. The bride was graduated from Medford senior high school and is now employed by George Gannon, accountant. Mr. Riggert attended Compton college at Compton, Cal., and after two years with the U. S. National bank in Medford is now a bookkeeper for Trail Lumber company.

Club Entertained by Mrs. Delbert Orgain, 12 Kenwood avenue, was hostess to Work-a-Way club members June 28, the last meeting of the group until fall. The all-day meeting opened with a business session, which was followed by a potluck luncheon at noon. The remainder of the day was spent in sewing.

The manatee, or sea cow, is essentially a vegetarian animal.
