International Relations Program To Be Given For Gold Hill Women

Gold Hill—Miss Fern Trull, Grants Pass, first vice-president of Oregon Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs, will present the program for a meeting of Gold Hill BPW club, to be held Wednesday, February 27, at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Agnes McLallen, on North 99 highway near Foothills creek.

The program will be devoted to international relations, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Belle Smith. Topic for the international relations program for the year is: "To Build a Free World."

Miss Trull will bring three members of her history class who will put on a flannelgraph demonstration illustrating the differences between democracy, socialism and communism.

Each Gold Hill club member is invited to bring one guest. Members are requested to telephone the club secretary, Mrs. J. Les Graffis, to let her know if they are bringing guests.

Gold Hill members have been invited to attend a meeting of the Grants Pass BPW club Tuesday, February 26, at 8 p.m. at the library auditorium on Fifth and B streets.

Two Oriental scholarship students from Oregon State college, one Japanese and one Burmese, will speak. They will be accompanied by Mrs. Natalie Burns, state chairman of the Oriental Scholarship committee, and possibly Mrs. Leone Jensen, a member of the same committee, and the dean of home economics at OSC.

Preceding the Grants Pass meeting, a dinner will be held at 6:30 p.m. at the Redwoods hotel, to which Gold Hill members are also invited.

First Christian Class Holds Monthly Session

Adult Bible class of First Christian church held the monthly business and social meeting in Fellowship hall Thursday.

Desert was served by a committee headed by Mrs. Vern Bailey. Decorations and the program were in the patriotic theme in observance of Lincoln and Washington's birthdays. Contests were held, with Mrs. Nora Ireland and Mrs. F. A. Daugherty winning prizes.

Mrs. W. C. Kindred conducted a business meeting and Mrs. Bert Gregory conducted devotions.

Thirty-seven attended, this number including a number of visitors.

State Nutritionist To Speak for Club

Butte Falls—Butte Falls Home Extension unit will sponsor a special lecture and social hour in the high school Thursday, February 28, at 1 p.m., for all present and future homemakers of the community. Miss Van Tine, state nutritionist, will lecture and answer questions about foods and what they can do to increase the joy of life.

Mrs. Ansel Conley will act as hostess and members of the unit will serve refreshments. Child care will be provided.

Jacksonville Club Makes Plans for Civic Lilac Day

Jacksonville—Jacksonville Garden club discussed plans for a civic lilac planting day at a meeting held February 21 in the club rooms. This is one of the projects of the club.

Mrs. Lawrence Luy reported on the Sherwin-Williams show she attended as a representative of the club and said programs were available for clubs desiring information on paints and color combinations.

Mrs. Lee Port gave the horticulture lesson on preparing the garden for spring planting. She said that krillium, a new product, is a good soil conditioner for breaking up soil, but is not a fertilizer.

Mrs. Port stated that new sawdust was better than old sawdust to use around shrubs and plants since the old sawdust sometimes develops a chemical reaction injurious to plants. She said lime and sulphur sprays for roses and iris may be put on at this time of the year.

Hostess chairman was Mrs. Dee Hendrickson and co-hostesses were Mrs. R. T. Nichol and Mrs. R. N. Finney. The table arrangement was in red, white and blue in observance of Washington's birthday.

Mrs. Mark Smith was a visitor.

Custom Guild Lists Ten Best Tailored Women of America

New York—U.P.—The Custom Tailors Guild of America issued its annual list of the "ten best tailored women" Monday and added, parenthetically, that it took more cloth to cover them than it used to.

Women have grown "taller and more buxom" in the last five years, Guild President Fred Balletta said.

He was not available for comment on just how much bigger they've grown.

The best tailored list by category: Society—Mrs. Brenda Frazier Kelly, New York's number one debutant of 1938.

Theatre—Vivienne Segal, star of "Pal Joey."

Literature—Fleur Cowles of "Look" magazine.

Television—Mrs. Arthur Murray, of the dancing Murrays.

Motion pictures—Ava Gardner Sinatra.

Supper clubs—Singer Margaret Phelan.

Radio—Marlene Dietrich.

Public life—Mrs. Anna Rosenberg, assistant secretary of defense.

Opera—Jarmila Novotna.

Honorable mention—Col Katherine A. Towle of the United States Marine Corps women's reserve.

Plan Party

Wenonah club will hold a birthday party at Redman hall Wednesday, February 27, at 7:30 p.m. The party will honor members who have had birthdays in January and February.

Your Wrapover!

Ferrante and Teicher, duoplane team, will present a concert in Medford Tuesday, February 28 at 8:15 p.m. in the Medford Senior High school auditorium. The concert is one of the 1951-52 series of Jackson County Civic Music association.

54th Anniversary Of Gold Hill Lodge Observed Last Week

Gold Hill—The 54th anniversary of Amethyst Rebekah lodge of Gold Hill was celebrated Wednesday night by a dinner and special program held at the Odd Fellows hall.

A dinner preceded the lodge meeting, and was attended by 33 members. Dessert of birthday cakes was provided by the February committee. Members whose birthdays were observed were Mrs. Wilbur Martin, Mrs. Frank Carter, Mrs. George Dorman, all Gold Hill, and Mrs. Katherine Kellogg, Medford.

The refreshment committee included Mrs. Paul Thompson, chairman; Mrs. William Ferguson; Mrs. Merritt Merriman; Mrs. T. Z. Smith and Mrs. Daniel Stewart.

The lodge session was conducted by the vice-grand, Mrs. Cecil Johnson, in the absence of Noble Grant Maybelle Rains, who is ill. She was presented with a corsage of heather, jasmine and violets, as a gift from Mrs. Rains.

Two charter members of the lodge were especially honored, Mrs. Kellogg and Mrs. Carrie Puhl. Mrs. Walter McLean sang "Memories," accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Paul Holderness, while corsages were pinned on the two honored members by Mrs. Lester Parker, program chairman. The corsages had been made by Mrs. George Dorman.

It was announced that the plan had been to present 50-year jewels to the two charter members, but that the jewels had failed to arrive in time for the meeting.

Mrs. Johnson announced the March committee, appointed by Mrs. Rains. The committee is Mrs. Parker, chairman; Mrs. George Dorman; Mrs. J. Les Graffis; Mrs. William Little and Mrs. Clyde Kell.

Plans were made for a special program to be held at the March 19 meeting honoring Schuyler Colfax, founder of the Rebekah lodge. The members present were divided into three groups and each group planned to give a skit or special number for that meeting.

The vice-grand asked for volunteers to serve on the refreshment committee for the Odd Fellows dance to be held Saturday night, March 1. Mrs. Cecil Johnson volunteered to act as chairman, and Mrs. Clayton Fields and Mrs. Donald Dusenberry also responded.

It was announced that Ray Bornaman, lodge member, has been taken to the Sacred Heart hospital in Medford for treatment and possible surgery.

Missionary Society To Meet in Phoenix

Phoenix—Women's Missionary society of Phoenix Presbyterian church will meet Wednesday, February 27, in the ladies' parlor at the church. It will be preceded by the prayer circle at 2 p.m.

Devotions for the missionary meeting will be led by Mrs. Ed Rusho and Mrs. Jewell Parr will be program leader. The serving committee will be Mrs. J. W. Webster and Mrs. E. J. Clark.

All women of the church and the community who are interested are invited.

SOC Faculty Follies Cast Chosen Sunday

Ashland—Preliminary casting for the 150th annual faculty follies at Southern Oregon college was completed Sunday afternoon.

Faculty members are allowed to choose parts most suited to their individual talents, and were then cast in opposite roles. The system will help give freshness to the performance, it was said.

Daughter Here

Mrs. James C. Luce has arrived in the valley to make her home for the present with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl von der Hellen, Alta Vista road, Eagle Point. Mrs. Luce's husband, Dr. Luce, has arrived in Korea where he is division neurosurgeon with the First Marine division.

Club To Meet

Medford Sojourners club will meet Thursday, February 28, at 1 p.m. at the Medford hotel.

Rogue River Gardeners Hold February Meeting; Plan for Flower Show

Rogue River—At the last meeting of Rogue River Garden club, first plans were made for a spring flower show. It will be held in early May.

In spite of the fact that there was snow on the ground that morning, a number of members displayed flowers from their gardens. Mrs. Dixon displayed violets, crocus and snowdrops and Mrs. Sam Bellah brought three kinds of snowdrops and jasm. Mrs. Shuler brought heather, Christmas roses and snowdrops. Mrs. Ruby Hughes displayed violets and primroses and Mrs. Lulu Plank brought a single petunia blossom.

Mrs. Willard Tenny displayed a dish with wild ferns growing in moss and Mrs. Harry Rose had made an arrangement of white and pink heather, Christmas roses, large snowdrops and two early spring iris.

The meeting followed a luncheon and roll call was answered with garden tips or questions. Guests were Mrs. W. L. Badley, Mrs. Harry Condray and Mrs. Ed Lenderman. They were introduced by the hospitality chairman, Mrs. Myrtle Whipple.

Mrs. Kay Pool, who has been ill a long time, and Mrs. Walter Shock, club president, who has been in California for the past two months, were welcomed back. Mrs. Harry Rose took charge of the program hour.

The club was asked by Rogue River Parent-Teacher association to decorate the school auditorium for the coming music festival. An invitation was extended to the club to view the landscaping of the Smith home which is 3 1/2 miles up Evans creek.

It was announced that pictures of tuberous begonias will be shown at Live Oak Grange hall the evening of March 20. The public is invited to attend.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. F. M. Shontz and Mrs. A. A. Dixon. Hostesses for the March meeting will be Mrs. Bob Hoover and Mrs. Willard Tenny.

If four years of schooling can be regarded as near-illiteracy, says a Twentieth Century Fund report, then over 20 per cent of the people in Virginia, the Carolinas, Georgia, Tennessee, Alabama, Mississippi, Arkansas, Louisiana and New Mexico were beneath this level in 1940.
