

Dedication Week To Be Observed By Methodists

In observance of "The Week of Dedication" the Rev. Merdith Groves will speak on "We Have an Altar" at the 11 a. m. service Sunday, at the First Methodist church.

The service will be broadcast over radio station KJYC.

Special music will include an anthem by the church choir, "Build Thee More Stately Mansions," with Herbert Daniels directing; a solo by Mrs. Lyle Schoppert, "If With All Your Heart," and "Whispering Hope" by the Methodist Men's quartet. Mrs. Jerry B. Sherman will play organ numbers.

At the 7:30 p. m. service there will be reception of members and baptism of children and adults. Mr. Groves will speak on "We Would See Jesus."

Special music includes a selection by the Vesper choir, "He Lives," and a duet, by Mr. and Mrs. William Wilson.

Following the service a reception will be held for the new members in the church parlors.

Free Methodists Hold Conference

Delegates from seven Free Methodist churches in the Rogue River district met at the third quarterly conference at the Medford Free Methodist church, February 26 and 27.

Presiding over the session was the Rev. R. T. Fine, Salem, superintendent of the Oregon conference.

Highlights of the conference were the messages presented by Bishop Leslie R. Marston, Greenville, Ill. On his first visit to the Rogue river valley the bishop reportedly was impressed by the climate, the scenery and the friendliness of the people.

Dr. Marston urged interdenominational cooperation for a revival of morality true Christianity in America.

TALENT LONG BURIED
Providence, R. I. (U.P.)—For 17 years, Rico Turchetti played his guitar—which looks like a combination ironing board and surf board—in and around his home city here without causing excitement. Then a few weeks ago he appeared on a nation-wide TV talent program and overnight skyrocketed to success. Now he has a contract for a weekly appearance on a television program from coast to coast.

Christian Church Slates Special Program Series

First Christian church at Medford is planning a special series of programs leading to Easter Sunday. The church is now in an extensive evangelistic effort and has set a goal of 152 additions on Easter Sunday, April 13.

The congregation has made a covenant of prayer, in which members are to pray each day, that 152 people will come into the church on Easter Sunday.

The church is now engaged in an extensive calling campaign, and will follow this with a more definite approach for decisions April 6 to 13 when Bayne E. Driskill, director of evangelism for Texas, will lead in this special evangelistic effort.

Mr. Driskill has already visited the church and will lead such a campaign in both Portland and Seattle during March.

In preparation for the program special sermons are being presented each Sunday and the Bible School is stressing attendance and decision. The goal for Easter Sunday attendance in the Bible School is 650.

The following series of sermon subjects indicate the type of messages that will be presented: March 2, 11 a. m., "A Vision of Ezekiel"; 7:30 p. m., "Man's Greatest Sin." March 9, 11 a. m., "The Church of Christ"; 7:30 p. m., "Lifting the Veil." March 16, 11 a. m., "Can One Be Saved Without the Church?"; 7:30 p. m., "Repentance of a Great City." March 23, 11 a. m., "What Must I Do To Be Saved?"

The pastor has asked that the sanctuary be filled Sunday evenings as well as mornings. All interested are invited to the services.

Endeavor Society To Conduct Worship

The Senior Christian Endeavor society of the Friends church will have charge of the worship service Sunday at 7:30 p. m.

Four young people will speak on "Stewardship." They and their topics are Dwayne Brood, "What Is Stewardship?"; Rose Marie Hansen, "Stewardship of Talents"; Jack Parker, "Stewardship of Time," and Pat Schroeder, "Stewardship of Money."

Mrs. Schroeder, president, will introduce the speakers. Miss

Head of College To Speak Sunday To Presbyterians

Dr. Frank Warren, president of Whitworth college, Spokane, Wash., will speak at the 7:30 p. m. service Sunday at First Presbyterian church. His subject will be "Christian Opportunities Today."

Dr. Warren also will address the senior high Westminster fellowship at 6:30 p. m.

The pastor, Dr. D. K. West will conduct a communion service at 11 a. m. Sunday. He will talk on "Broken for You." New members will be received at the service.

Social Hour
The senior high fellowship will have a social hour at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Al James, 1426 Euclid avenue, after the evening service. Members of the junior high fellowship will have a potluck supper for their parents at 5:30 p. m. Colored slides of Mexico will be shown by Dr. and Mrs. Bert Elliott.

The young adults and college age group will convene at 8:30 p. m. at the home of Dr. and Mrs. West, 52 Ross Court. Winston Carl will be discussion leader.

Dr. West spoke today at the World Day of Prayer joint meeting of Ashland churches on "Prayer—God's Power for Today's Need."

Hansen will be song leader. Arlene Mayfield will lead testimonies. There will be a baritone solo by Parker. Ushers will be Delmar Brood and Richard Hopkins.

Fisher To Talk At YFC Meeting

Rogue Valley Youth for Christ will have a rally at 8 p. m. Saturday, March 1, at the junior high school auditorium with the Rev. C. William Fisher as guest speaker.

Mr. Fisher is widely known as an evangelist and has been compared to Billy Graham in his Gospel presentation. He is from Kansas City, Mo., and has been in YFC work for some time in the northwest.

The evangelist is a musician and will present trombone numbers. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Fisher.

Billy Hansen, a local young man will play accordion numbers.

DOE GETS TOUGH
Watkins Glen, N. Y. (U.P.)—James Spader, post office clerk, discovered that the docile, soft looking doe is a tough animal to tangle with. As he took his first ride in his new sedan, a doe ran into the side of the car, breaking the door and damaging the front end.

USHERS GOOD SCOUTS
Memphis, Tenn. (U.P.)—Theater Manager Joe Simon says his ushers are good scouts. Four of them recently got Eagle Scout badges.

Somebody's waiting for this invitation...FROM YOU

Take someone to church this week...you'll both be richer for it

There's somebody in our town... maybe the new family down the street... maybe the people next door... or that youngster at the office... There's someone in town you know... or know about, who would be really flattered if you asked them to go—with you—to church

Ask them—this week—won't you?
