Y Mittmen Skirmish Roseburg on Saturday

Hugh Jennings, coach of the Medford YMCA boxing team, said today his entire crew of fighters is in topnotch physical condition and is eagerly awaiting the clash with Roseburg, Saturday, March 1, at 7:45 p.m. at the senior high gymnasium.

Sponsored by the Crater Lions club, the 15-bout card is expected to be chock-full of thrills, action packed from the first fight to the last. Advance ticket sales indicate a sellout.

Two trophies will be awarded. The Crater Lions team trophy to the winning team and the "Shorty Miles" best boxer award to the outstanding boxer of the evening's card.

Fight followers here are looking forward especially to the Connie Mann-Roy Marshall fight in the featherweight division. Mann in his fight in Roseburg kayaked Jack Mills, a stablemate of Marshall.

Another thriller, according to Jimmy Zack, assistant boxing instructor, will be the heavyweight scrap between Medford's Jerry Jennings and Mike Coleman. These boys fought a "pier 6" brawl in their first encounter in Roseburg. Both boys have been begging for a rematch and this can be billed practically as a grudge battle.

One of the newer additions to Jennings' stable is middleweight Pat Viles, who goes against Roseburg's Percy Pendergast. Young Viles is considered one of the outstanding prospects of the Medford group because of his tremendous punching power.

Proceeds from the fights will be used to purchase athletic equipment. Tickets are on sale at Lamports, Sam's Sporting Goods, the YMCA, Barker's Men's Store, Brown's Club, or from any member of the Crater Lions club. Tickets will also be available at the high school box office prior to fight time.

Officials for the fight will be referee, Fred Sears; judges, Jack Barr and Joe McDuffy Jr.; timekeeper, Bob Kyle Jr.; and ring announcer, Manville Heisel. The Medford boys who will see action are: Jimmy Miles, Herb Green, Larry Lewis, Bert Hartley, Riley Bean, Alan Hennings, Bob Apple, Bobby Lyons, Bob Boyd, Eddie Baker, Edward Erickson, Edwin Erickson, Connie Mann, Junior McDonald, Pat Viles and Jerry Jennings.

Bob Houbregs Eyes Record

Seattle—(U.P.)—Sharpshooting Bob Houbregs will be shooting for a record Friday night when Washington meets Washington State here in the first of two games that end the Northern Division basketball season.

The Husky hookshot ace needs 47 points in the two games to beat the Northern Division record set by Washington's Jack Nichols, who rolled up 265 points in 1948.

All-Star Squads Will Be Chosen

Portland—(U.P.)—Football players for the East and West teams, who will face each other in the first annual Shrine B school all-star game at Pendleton August 30, will be selected here Saturday.

Jack Woodward, coach of 1951 B semi-finalist Phoenix, is scheduled to be among those meeting at Multnomah Athletic club in Portland on Saturday to select players for next fall's B high school Shrine all-star fracas at Pendleton.

Bruins Favored In South League

San Francisco—(U.P.)—Pacific Coast conference basketball starts its final series Friday night with the Bruins of UCLA favored to capture the southern division crown and face Washington, northern division champs, in the playoffs.

The Bruins host USC over the week-end while California hosts Stanford Friday night and faces the Indians on their court Saturday night.

UCLA has a six and four record and needs only one victory to leave California and Stanford battling for second place. Cal is currently tied with Stanford for the second spot, each with a five and five record. USC is in the cellar with four wins and six losses.

If California and Stanford should split their series and USC win a pair from UCLA, the race would end up in a four-way tie. The fact is highly improbable as UCLA wins the biggest percentage of its games.

School Children Live In Era of Confusion

Albany, N. Y.—(U.P.)—A prominent educator believes school children are living in an era of "intellectual confusion" because of unsettled world conditions.

Dr. Evan R. Collins, president of the New York State College for Teachers, points to the "good old days" when "a war meant a war."

"Today," he adds, "our school children understand a war by degrees. To them a war is a cold war, a hot war or a shooting war, and peace doesn't mean prosperity; war does."

"Today they don't understand democracy as in the good old days. Today, democracy is qualified as an economic or social or political democracy."

He says "the climate of intellectual confusion" makes it necessary for pupils to be taught in terms of relating their studies to the whole world picture.

WOMEN CLEAN UP

Southbury, Conn.—(U.P.)—Members of the Democratic Women's club thought the town hall was getting that run-down look. They formed a clean-up brigade, armed with mops, brooms, paint and wallpaper, and gave the place a face-lifting.

The South Amboy, N.J., sharpshooter's 15 field goals and six free throws gave him a 1,006 season total. He has one more regular-season game to play—against Portland here Friday night.

Aeronautics Board Suspends Low-Cost Air Coach Service

Seattle—(U.P.)—A civil aeronautics board order grounding airlines low cost coach service affects Western Air Lines only slightly. Vice-President Arthur F. Kelly said Friday.

Kelly said the only notification received from the CAB was a telegram suspending the proposal of Western and five other major domestic airlines to extend present air coach fares until Dec. 31, 1953.

Applies to One Flight

The CAB action applies only to one of Western's several coach schedules, Kelly said. This is the night flight between Seattle, Tacoma, Portland and San Francisco-Oakland.

Kelly said Western must consider whether to discontinue this night flight before expiration of present low-rate tariffs on March 31, or to revise tariffs.

United Airlines officials expressed "surprise" over the CAB's action but declined to discuss it.

The board said it issued the order because the low-cost service was not low enough. It said the companies had not complied with conditions of the original

Two-Town Paper Drive Set Sunday

Central Point—A paper drive in both Central Point and Medford will be conducted Sunday by Myers-Holland Post 129, American Legion, to raise funds for the post's hospital, child welfare and rehabilitation programs, it was announced today.

Those with a winter-long accumulation of old papers and magazines are asked to bundle them up, papers and magazines in separate bundles, put them on their front porch or where they can be picked up easily, and leave the rest to the Legion's pick-up detail.

Several trucks will tour the streets of both towns to gather all the paper and magazines available.
