Providence Guild Receives Charter From Association

The charter recently granted to Providence guild of Sacred Heart hospital by the American Hospital association was unveiled at a dinner party at Mon Desir last Tuesday evening. The event was attended by guild members and their guests.

Mrs. James Dunlevy, guild president, pointed out that the type five charter awarded the local group is for hospitals of from 75 to 100 bed capacity, a classification that Sacred Heart hospital has held for the past forty years despite the growth of the community it serves.

Dr. Reinhold Kanzler, president of Jackson County Medical society, congratulated guild members for their "splendid progress" and pledged the assistance of the medical society for future plans.

Dr. Oscar Halboth, chief of the medical staff at Sacred Heart hospital, pointed out that despite the scientific knowledge of the medical profession, doctors still had to have modern hospital facilities in which to carry on their work.

The Rev. George R. V. Bolster, representing Community hospital, expressed the hope that an auxiliary or guild would soon be established to work with the staff of that hospital and to join forces with Providence guild members for greater service to both institutions.

Acting Mayor Paul Selby, speaking on behalf of the city of Medford, expressed his appreciation for the "fine work" the guild has already accomplished with only a small membership and suggested that with such worthy projects planned for the future, the guild's membership, which is non-sectarian and non-denominational, should advance to at least a membership of 2,000 local women.

Three Extension Units To Meet This Week; Agent To Be Speaker

C. B. Cordy, county extension agent in horticulture, will talk about "Home Gardens" at the March meeting of the Medford Parents Extension unit. The meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Heine Hertager, 47 North Orange street, at 7:30 p.m., Tuesday, March 4.

Open House Marks 50th Anniversary Of Provolt Couple

Provolt — An open house at their ranch home near Provolt, observed the 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Hill. The couple has lived in this area since 1907.

Plans for the open house were made by Mrs. Lester Hill, a daughter-in-law. Among those attending the observance were the couple's three children, Lester Hill, Provolt; Roy Hill, Kenos, and their daughter, Mrs. Harry Treloar, Butte, Mont. The couple has eight grandchildren.

Spring flowers with ivy decorated the rooms. For the event Mrs. Hill wore a green print dress and her corsage was of yellow rosebuds.

The couple was married Feb. 18, 1902 at Baker and later they moved to Marysville, Calif. In 1907 they purchased the ranch near Provolt which since has been enlarged to 200 acres, with about 80 acres now under irrigation.

The couple was the first to operate the Provolt telephone exchange and both have taken active interest in the Applegate Grange. She has held various offices in the home extension unit.

Mrs. Hill was Louvella Near before her marriage. One of the highlights of the open house was the use of a gold coffee service which was owned by Mrs. Hill's paternal grandparents, Dr. and Mrs. John Near. They had used it at the observance of their 50th anniversary in 1885 in Detroit, Mich.

During the open house Ben Ellis, master of the Applegate Grange spoke on the contribution the couple had made to the valley.

A program of music was presented during the afternoon.

Eagle Point PTA Observes Founding At Last Meeting

Eagle Point—Founders' day candle-lighting ceremony and silver tea highlighted the February 26 meeting of Eagle Point Parent-Teacher association. The candle-lighting ceremony was conducted by Mrs. Walter Young, who gave a short history of the organization from the early founders to the founding of the Eagle Point chapter. Mrs. Young cited legislative improvements gained locally through the organization including free textbooks and the school lunch program.

Preceding the business meeting, a musical program was presented by students of Steven Whipple. A saxophone solo was given by Carol Ann Clark followed by a selection on the sousaphone by Barbara Jackson. The girls' trio, Juanita Ragsdale, Marilee Scott and Ann Sanford, sang.

Reports were made concerning the dinner which PTA women prepared for the Lions club charter meeting February 23. All those participating in the planning and preparation of the dinner were thanked by the president, Mrs. Bertrand Stanley. Thanks was extended girls of the high school who, under the direction of Mrs. Don Green, served the large crowd which attended the dinner.

Mrs. Barrow's room won the room count at this afternoon meeting.

Mrs. A. R. McDonald, Mrs. Osa Turner and Mrs. Joseph Whipple were hostesses at the silver tea served following the business meeting.

Meeting Announced
Jolly Stitches will meet March 7 at 1:30 p.m. for a dessert luncheon in the home of Mrs. Al Floyd, 5055 Keeneway drive.

A Tribute To The Toastmaster's Club

"For it's always fair weather when Toastmasters get together!" That's a new version of the old song that is highly apropos at any gathering of these exuberant Masters of Ceremony! Toastmasters are the spark plugs of banquets, luncheon meetings, club affairs and innumerable other parties where an orderly presentation of speakers or activities must be maintained. When the professional toastmasters have their own meeting, there is where Greek meets Greek and the standard of parliamentary procedure is perfection! We salute the gentlemen of the Toastmasters' Club... and wish them every success in all of their activities!
