

Meeting Announced
For Rebekah Lodge

Olive Rebekah lodge will meet Monday, March 3 at 7:30 p. m. in IOOF hall with Mrs. Alfred Schroeder, noble grand, presiding. In addition to the regular business session, a social hour will follow. Mrs. W. L. Walden, chairman, and her committee, will have charge of refreshments. Visiting lodge members are invited.

To Elect

Chapter CG, PEO will elect officers at a meeting in the home of Mrs. Donald Ward, 16 Kenwood avenue, March 5 at 1 p. m. Luncheon will be served preceding the election. Mrs. Niles Smith and Mrs. J. A. Grigsby are assisting hostesses.

Chapter BE, PEO will meet in the home of Mrs. Louis Brown, 737 West Jackson street, Tuesday, March 4, for election and installation of officers. Mrs. R. M. Johnson will be assistant hostess.

Wagner Creek Group
To Purchase Piano;
Committees Appointed

Wagner Creek—Forty members of the Wagner Creek Community club met for a potluck dinner and business session Tuesday evening in the school house.

J. C. Cox, Talent, and Dave Brabbin, Wagner Creek, provided music for square dancing and guests from outside the community included Mr. and Mrs. William Burns, Ashland.

During the business meeting the group voted to purchase a piano for use of all community groups which meet in the school house. Also, they decided to purchase a sewing machine for a newly formed sewing circle. A report of this unit was made by Mrs. Ed Hild and the following chairmen announced: Mrs. Byron Bushnell, sewing; Mrs. Herman Sommer, quilting; Mrs. Virgel Neuenschwander, purchasing; Mrs. T. B. Blevins, welfare contact; and Mrs. Ed Hild, coordinating and publicity.

Mrs. Roscoe Talbott announced an enrollment of nine in the textile painting class, initial meetings to be held in the school house kitchen Tuesday evening, March 4. Anyone wanting to join the group may contact Mrs. Talbott by phone.

The second and fourth Saturdays of each month were designated as youth night. The meeting place will be in the school and entertainment will include music, games and dancing. A square dance class is being planned. Parents of the community will alternate as chaperones and all girls and boys from seventh grade through high school are invited.

Monthly daytime parties are planned for the younger children.

While club membership is solicited it is not required for participation in any of these activities. The next regular meeting date of the club is March 11.

Elected

Bob A. Stothers, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Stothers, was recently elected secretary of the Oregon Stage chapter of Delta Sigma Phi, national social fraternity. He is a senior in mathematics education at the college and is to graduate in 1953.

Ashland Auxiliary
Post Office Clerks
Receives Charter

The recently organized auxiliary to National Federation of Post Office Clerks of Ashland was presented with a charter Friday, February 22, at a southern Oregon district meeting held at Smitty's Ranch House in Central Point.

Preceding the presentation, auxiliaries from Grants Pass, Ashland, and Medford met with the clerks for opening ceremonies.

Attending the auxiliary meeting were the following state of Oregon officers: Mrs. Webb Sausen, Corvallis, president; Mrs. Harrel L. Buckridge, Eugene, first vice-president; Mrs. Clifford L. Jardine, Portland, second vice president, and editor of the ladies' magazine; Mrs. David R. Allred, Medford, fourth vice president. The state officers were presented with corsages which were made by Mrs. Allred. Other representatives received small flags.

Also attending were Mrs. Edward Vincent, Central Point, member at large; Mrs. John Ellis, Corvallis, auxiliary president; Mrs. Edward Andes, Grants Pass, president of the auxiliary which is two years old, and three members; Mrs. Lyle E. Massey, Ashland, auxiliary president and three members, and Mrs. Lee Hubler, Medford, auxiliary president and seven members.

Mrs. Sausen installed the officers of the Ashland auxiliary and presented their charter. They are Mrs. Lyle E. Massey, president, Mrs. Lawrence Powell, vice-president, Mrs. Iven E. Olsen, secretary, and Mrs. A. Bert Freeman, treasurer.

Brief talks were given by Webb Sausen, national state representative; Chris Christensen, Portland, national first vice-president; Mrs. Buckridge, Mrs. Ellis, Mrs. Andes, all of the Ashland officers, and Mrs. Sausen, who spoke of the state convention to be held in Portland June 27, 28 and 29.

At the conclusion of the afternoon meeting a dinner was served by the Medford auxiliary.

Table decorations were in the patriotic motif with red, white and blue candles, miniature hatchets and cherry trees.

Hears Talk on Egypt

Mrs. Russell Wade spoke to the Medford Toastmistress members Monday evening on the Egyptian viewpoint of the Anglo-Egyptian question and Mrs. L. E. Wilson discussed the history of Sudan. Mrs. Ben Stafford explained the point-four plan and Mrs. Enid Cleek, a new member, gave her autobiography.

Mrs. Gerald Morrisette was topic mistress and Mrs. Georgia White was meeting critic. The timekeeper was Mrs. Earl Moore. Speakers are to be judged for a coming district meeting. Mrs. Bernice Kunzman and Miss Anna Streed tied for the early February meeting judging. The winner will be announced in March. The meeting was held at the Girls' community club.

Pjan Herb Luncheon

Central Point—Members of Central Point Garden club will hold an herb luncheon Wednesday, March 5, at the home of Mrs. John Holmer. For the luncheon each is to take table service and either a hot dish or salad containing herbs.

Following the luncheon at noon, Mrs. John Holst of the Butte Falls Garden club will speak on "Herbs."

Chapter To Meet

Bow Bells chapter, Daughters of the British Empire, will meet Wednesday, March 5 at 8 p. m. in the Girls Community club. Members are asked to take soft cotton rags for a "rag" drive. Those needing transportation or have rags to be picked up, should call Mrs. G. W. Allingham, phone 2-8620.

In Play

Miss Arlene Arnold, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Arnold, 1915 Stewart avenue, has been assigned the role of Lady Middleton in Jane Austen's "Sense and Sensibility." The play is being sponsored by the senior class of Los Angeles Pacific college, according to an announcement from the school.

To Meet Wednesday

The Christian Women's Fellowship of First Christian church will meet Wednesday, March 5. General business meeting of the group will begin at 11 a. m. and luncheon will be served at 12:15 p. m. The missionary program is scheduled for 1:30 p. m.
