Civilian in peace, soldier in war—of security and honor, for three centuries I have been custodian. I am the Guard.

I was with Washington in the wilderness, fought the wily warrior, and watched the dark night bow to the morning.

At Concord's bridge, I fired the fateful shot 'heard 'round the world.' I bled on Bunker Hill. My footprints marked the snow at Valley Forge.

I pulled a muffled oar on the barge that bridged the icy Delaware. . . . I stood with Washington on the sun-drenched heights of Yorktown. I saw the sword surrendered . . . I AM THE GUARD.

I pulled the trigger that loosed the long rifle's havoc at New Orleans—these things I knew—I was there! The hill at San Juan felt the fury of my charge. The far plains and mountains of the Philippines echoed to my shout . . . I AM THE GUARD.

The dark forests of the Argonne blazed with my barrage. Chateau Thierry crumbled to my cannonade. Under the arches of victory I marched in legion—I was there! . . . I AM THE GUARD.

I bowed briefly on grim Corregidor, then saw the light of liberation shine on the faces of my comrades. Through the jungle and on the beaches, I fought the enemy, beat, battered and broke him. I raised our banner to the serene air on Okinawa—I was there! . . . I AM THE GUARD.

Soldier in war, civilian in peace . . . I am the Guard. I was at Johnstown, where the raging waters boomed down the valley. I cradled the crying child in my arms and saw the terror leave her eyes.

I moved through the smoke and flames at Texas City. The stricken knew the comfort of my skill.

I dropped the food that fed the starving beast on the frozen fields of the West and through the towering drifts I ploughed to rescue the marooned.

I have faced forward to the tornado, the typhoon, and the horror of the hurricane—these things I know—I was there! . . . I AM THE GUARD.

I have brought a more abundant, a fuller, a finer life to our youth. Wherever a strong arm and valiant spirit must defend the nation, in peace or war, wherever a child cries, or a woman weeps in time of disaster, there I stand . . . I AM THE GUARD.

For three centuries a soldier of war, a civilian in peace—of security and honor, I am the custodian, now and forever . . . I AM THE GUARD.
