Initiation Announced For Rebekah Lodge; Party Planned by IOOF

Mrs. Lewis Thompson, degree staff captain of Olive Rebekah lodge, announced initiation for March 17 at a meeting of the lodge held Monday evening. Mrs. Alfred Schroeder, noble grand, presided.

Letters were read from the Society for Crippled Children and Adults concerning the annual Easter Seal sale, and from Medford Odd Fellow lodge inviting Rebekahs to a party.

It was announced that Mrs. Merle Ivie has transferred to the Salem lodge, since the Ivies are now living in that city. Mrs. E. L. Miller, a Rebekah from Paisley, Ore., was a visitor. Mrs. Miller is living with her mother, Mrs. Mary Moss, a past state president of the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon.

The lodge voted to hold a rummage and plant sale at the Pythian building April 25-26. Mrs. Fred Daugherty is general chairman.

Mrs. Bert Kenyon will be chairman of refreshments for the March 17 meeting.

The accent is on the feminine for Spring, and this full skirted dress, for day or evening, with its soft bosom folds and attached scarf, is typical. Designed by Carolyn Schurer of Ameritex Sherbet, an "Everglaze" cotton print.

Auxiliary President To Be Guest Here; Crater Unit Meets

Mrs. Al Crouse, state president of the Lions' auxiliary, will be guest of honor at a dinner meeting set for Tuesday, March 11, at the Medford hotel. Members from all of southern Oregon's Lions' auxiliaries will be present.

Members of Crater Lions' auxiliary made plans to attend the dinner at their meeting held Tuesday night in the home of Mrs. Willard Buchanan, 1032 Woodrow lane. The group also made plans for a food sale in April.

Mrs. Willard Buchanan, president, presented Mrs. Al Crouse, retiring president, with a past president's pin.

Guests at the meeting were Mrs. Kenneth Blackhurst, Mrs. Robert Dickey, Mrs. A. Gressett and Mrs. Kenneth Hammer. Mrs. Blackhurst won a prize.

Mrs. J. I. Bacon was Mrs. Crouse's co-hostess.

Dan Christensen Wins Membership Contest; "Y" Stamp Club Grows

The membership contest recently held by the Junior "Y" Stamp club was won by Dan Christensen. Second prizes went to Eddie Albright, David Espey and Gary Espey, and third prizes to Francis Murphy, Nicky Moore, Billy Frake, Phil Morgan, Mike Morgan, Janet Robertson, Raymond Nelson and Eldon Mardock.

The contest prizes were donated by Wade Harmon, Mrs. Eric de Place and Clyde Smith. The club now has a membership of 50 children.

New members of the club are Jill Morrison, Dennis May, Jimmy Snodgrass, Judy Ross, Willard Anderson, Tommy Knauss, Richard Corum and Hank Herbert.

Allan Kimmey, Nicky Moore and Raymond Nelson won prizes with essays on the stamps of Belgium.

Visiting—Mrs. Robert Weisenberger and children, Julie and Jack, are visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Vogel, 420 Whitman avenue. She was accompanied here Friday by Weisenberger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Les Weisenberg, Central Point, who returned Sunday to Hood River where they live. They are former residents.

Ministers Speak For Last Session Of Christian Club

The Rev. Walter Duff and the Rev. McNeill, representatives of Youth Home missions and Village missions, were speakers for a meeting of Medford Christian Business and Professional Women held Monday evening at the Medford hotel. The meeting followed dinner.

The Rev. Mr. Duff stated that after having been closed for many years, the church at Butte Falls is to be opened again and will have a regular pastor. He stated that Mr. and Mrs. Art Jackson have been appointed to the church by Village missions, supported by the national council of the organization.

Miss Verle Mills and Miss Dorothy Chatelaine, missionaries of the council who have been working in Butte Falls the past two months, will now be assigned to another field.

Mrs. V. Lawton, Central Point, spoke and exhibited potato dolls.

Mrs. Clarence Pierce, accompanied by Miss Velma Brock, was soloist for the program.

The first "hot cross" buns were served in ancient Babylon at the spring feast in honor of the goddess Astarte. Each bore Astarte's cross.

It's a more feminine outlook for casual wear this Spring. Take, for example, the slim all-around pleated skirt and short sleeve cardigan sweater ornamented with an embroidered crest on the pocket and gold buttons, shown above. The skirt is of "Creme Chateau" (rayon and nylon) and the sweater of spun nylon.

Investments in fashion are just that, beautiful things of fine design and impeccable workmanship. Suggested investments: long, washable doekin gloves; hat of white lilacs; mink stole and jeweled clip. Kistlav gloves. Sally Victor hat design. Frederic fur stole.

Change Location Of Piano Recital By Theodor Haig

Location of the Sunday piano recital by Theodor Haig has been changed from the Lithia theater to Churchill hall auditorium, on the Southern Oregon college campus. It was announced today by Mrs. Cay Huffman, instructor in music at SOC. The program will be presented at the originally scheduled time, 3 o'clock, and tickets already purchased for the Lithia will be honored at Churchill hall.

Difficulties in arranging shipment of a special piano for the recital caused change of plans from the Lithia to the campus, Mrs. Huffman explained. The college concert grand appeared to be the best solution, she added.

The program is one of the few of its type to be presented in the valley this season, Mrs. Huffman said, and enthusiasm has been indicated in the exceptional musical opportunity. Advance sale of tickets is being handled by Pruitt's Music center and Purucker Piano house here.

Reunion, Dinner Held by Family At Wards Sunday

Mrs. W. G. Knips, Oak Grove road, and her family held a reunion and dinner Sunday, March 2, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ward, 311 Vancouver avenue. This was the first time the family had been together since 1926.

Attending the event were Mrs. Knips, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Knips and son, Michael, Lakeside, Ore.; Mrs. Vern Hall, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. William E. Knips and children, Harold and Linda, Medford; Major Alberta Knips, army nurse who has just returned to this country after four years in Germany, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Knips and son, Jon, Medford; Mrs. George Woodfield, West Milton, O., and Mr. and Mrs. Ward and children, Jane and Tommy.

Major Knips will report at Ft. Lewis March 27. She will be accompanied north by her sister, Mrs. Woodfield, who will continue on to her home in Ohio.

Getting married is very simple in Java. Eating from the same plate automatically makes a couple man and wife.

The Gibson Girl silhouette is Spring fashion news. Here, huge puffed sleeves add width to the collarless neckline; the bodice is softly fitted and the skirt, full. Eisenberg dress.

Phoenix Lady Lions To Attend Dinner

Phoenix — Members of Phoenix Lady Lions will attend a dinner for the state president of Lions' auxiliaries to be held Tuesday, March 11, in the Medford hotel. The dinner is set for 7 p.m.

All members of the Phoenix auxiliary are invited to attend and reservations are to be made by telephone 2-4185 not later than Sunday, March 9.

The regular monthly meeting of Phoenix Lady Lions will be held Thursday, March 13, at 8 p.m. in the home of Mrs. A. V. Thompson, South Pacific highway. Mrs. E. R. Clafflin will be co-hostess. All members and wives of members of Phoenix Lions' club are cordially invited to attend.

Breakfast for three in the household of Henry VIII consisted of a roast of beef, a loaf of bread and a gallon of ale.

"I never dreamed

I'd look

this young at my age"

I'd often wondered how I would look as I grew older... wondered how long my skin would remain soft and smooth, and youthful-looking. But—no need to wonder now... my Rejuvenescence-care-for-skin belies the years more beautifully than even I had ever hoped.
