

Miss Harding Talks On Foreign Flowers For Garden Group

Miss Amy Harding was main speaker for the meeting of Medford Garden club, held Thursday at Girls' Community club. Her topic was "Flowers From Abroad."

Miss Harding illustrated her interesting talk with colored slides showing garden scenes from Denmark, Ireland, England, Scotland and France. These scenes were photographed by Miss Harding during her recent visit to Europe. She was especially impressed by the Kew gardens in England.

The horticulture lesson, "Dogwood, Heroes of Spring," was discussed by Mrs. W. A. Freeland. Mrs. John Litster chose the robin as the "bird of the month."

Guests for the afternoon included Mrs. John Shannon, Verradale, Wash.; Mrs. H. M. Higday, Seattle, Wash.; Mrs. John D. Holst, Butte Falls; Mrs. Lee Amer, Mrs. Fred Bullock, Mrs. George S. Jennings and Mrs. S. B. Milne, Medford.

Mrs. Verne Shangle was tea chairman assisted by Mrs. L. F. Bittle, Mrs. H. F. Cope, Mrs. Edith Bundy, Mrs. J. W. Jacobs and Mrs. Frank Carson. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. L. J. Knox and Mrs. William Jacobs.

Tickets on Sale For Annual Event Of Valley Quartets

All seats will be reserved this year for the second annual Harmony Jamboree and parade of quartets which will be staged here Saturday, March 22, those in charge of the SPEBSQSA event said yesterday. The proceeds of the show will be used toward purchase of medical supplies, blankets, mattresses and first aid equipment for Mercy Flights, Inc., officers explain.

Tickets are on sale now at Barker's Men's store, Purucker's Music store and Pruitt's Music center.

To encourage Grants Pass persons to attend the show as well as begin a new SPEBSQSA chapter in that city, the Rogue Valley chapter of quartet singers with the chapter chorus will appear on radio station KUIN in Grants Pass March 16. Appearing there will be the "Novelairies Harmony Wreckers" and the "Three Notes and Dad."

On March 14 the "Novelairies" will sing over radio station KYJC. Because of the increase in ticket sales, chapter members are encouraging those who saw last year's show and who expect to attend again, to purchase their tickets as early as possible.
