

Miss Truman States Colorado Vacation

Colorado Springs — (U.P.) — Margaret Truman is scheduled to spend a vacation here during Holy Week, April 7-12.

After her vacation, Miss Truman has scheduled three concerts in the Rocky Mountain area.

Her first concert will be in Denver, April 14; Pueblo, April 16; and Laramie, Wyo., April 18.

The president's daughter is expected to take the week's break in her concert tour to spend a week at the "Trianon" estate of millionaire art patron Blevins Davis, a family friend.

Mother of 14 Given 15-Day Jail Sentence

Spokane — (U.P.) — Mrs. Sadie Older, mother of 14, Wednesday faced 15 days in the city jail and two years on probation for defrauding the state of $159 in welfare funds.

Judge Raymond F. Kelly, who last week delayed sentencing of Mrs. Older because he "did not know what to do about it," passed sentence, Tuesday. Mrs. Older, who has six children living at home, pleaded guilty to a charge of grand larceny in obtaining aid-to-dependent-children funds while failing to report to welfare officers that she had remarried.

Judge Kelly said he feared

Mrs. Older's youngest children would be the "real victims" of a prison term, but that the law "can't be stopped in its tracks."

Mark Twain observed that when a man goes out to buy a collar, he comes back with a collar and maybe a tie he didn't mean to buy, but when he sends his wife, she comes back with a bottle of face lotion, four yards of dress goods, some silk stockings, linoleum for the kitchen floor—and forgets the collar.

A national survey showed nearly 84 per cent of motorists involved in traffic accidents were driving straight ahead just before the impact.

The Grange

Roxy Ann Grange

Home Economics club of Roxy Ann Grange met March 5 at the home of Mrs. Lewis Bish with 18 members present including one new member, Mrs. Mike Castner. The piggy prize was won by Mrs. Don Meadows.

Mrs. Orrie More will keep the scrapbook this year, molding it into the history of our Grange.

Plans for the annual plant and food sale to be held at Grange hall March 27, are off to a great start. Mrs. Ivan Wolfe is chairman for plants; Mrs. Leslie Shaw is chairman for foods. Mrs. Kenneth Shaw is chairman for the luncheon to be served during the day for convenience of the public. The sale is open to the public.

Six of the ladies turned in their dollar and told how they earned it, ranging from baby-sitting to gathering eggs.

Central Point Grange

Central Point Grange met February 7 with all officers present. Carl Dobrot was given third and fourth degrees.

Eleven past masters took part in the program during lecture hour.

Mrs. Catey presented the Grange with a lovely crocheted altar cloth which she made herself. The Cateys recently celebrated their 59th wedding anniversary.

Lecturer Shirley Bohnert announced that W. B. Tucker, county agent, will talk on "grasses" at the next meeting, March 21.

Plans were discussed for the square dance and canasta party for Friday night, March 14. Ladies are to bring sandwiches. All Grangers and their friends are cordially invited.

Live Oak Grange

The social evening at Live Oak Grange was held March 8. A large gathering of Grangers and friends enjoying a special program prepared by Lecturer, Mrs. Glen Black. Juanita MacDonald, of Grants Pass, formerly of Hawaii, delighted the group with native dances. Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Sieger sang a duet accompanied by Mrs. Paul Hughes at the piano. C. W. Babb, Loyd Smith and Mrs. Karl Christensen furnished music for square dancing.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Harry Rose, Mrs. Robert Hoover, Mrs. Philip Strahan and Mrs. Harry Nelson.

Live Oak Grange will meet in regular session Thursday, March 13, at 7:30 p.m., and a large attendance is urged. Initiation in third and fourth degree will be put on in full form by the team.

Live Oak Grange is expecting a good turnout for the baked ham dinner to be served Saturday, March 15, from 5:30 to 8 p.m.

Motion pictures will be shown by Carlos Morris, through courtesy of Conger-Morris of Medford.

Tickets for the ham dinner include the evening entertainment.

Being Landlord Expensive Business, State Discovers

Salem — (U.P.) — The state of Oregon is finding that being a landlord isn't the profitable enterprise some seem to think.

One of the houses, on Marion street, it bought against the time when it would need the property for the capitol zone, caught fire recently when a faulty furnace backfired. The house didn't burn down but the state had to give $300 from its restoration fund to clean the entire house of soot.

To Remodel Furnace

Gov. Douglas McKay expressed a doubt that it was profitable for the state to be in the landlord business. The other board members, State Treasurer Walter J. Pearson and Secretary of State Earl T. Newberry, agreed.

Monthly Rental $70

But Board Secretary Roy Mills said the place in question was drawing $70 a month rent, and it would be 15 or 20 years before the state needs the prop-

Bits o' Green To Be Worn by Nome Irish

Nome, Alaska — (U.P.) — Shure, and there will be wearin' o' the green on Nome's fur-trimmed parkas this St. Patrick's day.

The Irish are awaitin' the arrival of a Pan-American world airways plane with a three-pound package of Shamrocks right from the old sod.

The hibernian green is on its way by air from Shannon, Ireland, at the request of Irish Jim Walsh, Pan-Am agent here.

Shure, the Irish Jimmy always felt it was a shame that nothing green grows in the Arctic this time of year. So he had his friends in Erin send him the bits o' green. Begorra.

Paris — (U.P.) — Starlet Yvonne Menard won an unexpected burst of applause at the Folies Bergere when her G-string dropped off during a dance number. Unbashed, she picked it up, turned her back to the audience, re-adjusted the wispy item, and resumed her dance.

Stepinac Not Allowed To Take Church Role

Belgrade, Yugoslavia — (U.P.) — Marshall Tito says he will never permit Archbishop Alois Stepinac to resume his position as Roman Catholic Primate of Yugoslavia.

Although released from prison four months ago, Stepinac is not permitted to leave his home town and is referred to by the government as "the former Archbishop."

Tito made his statement in answering questions during a two-hour interview with 41 American editors, publishers and broadcasters Tuesday at his official residence.
