Methodists Will Present Wallace Chime Ringers

The Wallace Chime Ringers will present a program of sacred music, familiar Gospel hymns, at the First Methodist church, Sunday at 7:30 p. m.

This team is noted for its beautiful percussion music, church officials said. Over a ton of equipment will be used.

The large triple octave chimes are one of the few sets in existence today. One hundred chimes played by two people give the effect of a large organ and bells. The Swiss Hand Bells were imported from Europe recently.

These musicians have played in more than two thousand cities programs in colleges, high schools and churches during the past six years.

Scriptural Background
Mrs. Wallace, well known for her vibra harp arrangements will play four of the large instruments. Mr. Wallace, in addition to his playing, will bring poetic and scriptural background for the program. Laura Hamilton of the Sherwood conservatory of music in Chicago will play on all instruments.

The Rev. Meredith Groves will speak on: "We Ought To Help One Another."

At the 11 a. m. service Mr. Groves will speak on: "Prepare the Way of the Lord." Special music includes an anthem by Chancel choir, "The Lord Is My Shepherd," and a song by the Cherub choir, "For the Beauty of the Earth."

Somebody's waiting for this invitation...FROM YOU

Take someone to church this week...you'll both be richer for it

There's somebody in our town... maybe the new family down the street... maybe the people next door... or that youngster at the office... There's someone in town you know... or know about, who would be really flattered if you asked them to go—with you—to church

Ask them—this week—won't you?
