

Home Rites Wed Norma Jane Ward, Thomas Carlton Jr.

A single ring ceremony at 8:30 o'clock in the evening, February 23, wedded Miss Norma Jane Ward to Thomas A. Carlton Jr. The Rev. Kirkland D. West of the Medford First Presbyterian church performed the rites at the home of the bride's brother, W. H. Ward, 901 South Ivy street. Only members of the immediate families attended.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Verna Ward, 108 Mistletoe street, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Carlton, Gold Hill.

Miss Diane Fries was maid of honor. Johnny Haven served as best man.

The bride's father gave her in marriage. For her wedding she chose a gray suit with black accessories and she wore a purple corsage.

The maid of honor wore a rose suit with navy blue accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

The rooms of the Ward home were decorated with yellow and white snapdragons.

A reception followed the ceremony and the couple made a brief wedding trip to the coast. They are living at 20 Laurel street.

The bride has been employed as a bookkeeper at the United States National bank and is a 1950 Medford senior high school graduate. The bridegroom was graduated from Prospect high school in 1948 and is an employee of the Double Dee Lumber company.

Luncheon

Mrs. Larry Neely was hostess Tuesday noon for a luncheon honoring Mrs. Al Crose, Salem, state Lions club auxiliary president, and Mrs. Clarence Humble, Klamath Falls, state auxiliary vice-president. It was given at Rogue Valley Country club.

Others attending were Mrs. Ed Pringle, Mrs. James Campbell and Mrs. Dwight Johnson.

Medford Students Attend Tournament At Oregon College

Four students from Medford participated in the 22nd annual inter-scholastic forensic tournament of champions on the campus of Linfield college, McMinnville, the week-end of March 6-8. Taking part were Miss Jean Kyle, student at Willamette university; Miss Margaret McCormick and Miss Elizabeth Collins, students at the University of Oregon, and Miss Constance Inskeep, Southern Oregon college student.

Miss McCormick placed second in the interview section of the junior women's division and Willamette university placed fourth in the senior division for the entire tournament.

Approximately 600 students from nearly 40 colleges in the western states attended the three-day conference, which was under the direction of Professor R. D. Mahaffey, head of Linfield's speech department. Trophies and certificates were awarded to teams and individual winners.

Events included debate, extemporaneous speaking, experimental, interview, student congress, and acting. Members of the speech department here and students majoring in speech assisted with the conference schedule, including judging.

The tourney is one of the oldest invitational forensic meets held annually in the United States.
