Citizens Join Police In Guarding Negro Homes in LA Bombing

Los Angeles — (U.P.) — A citizens' committee joined policemen Monday in guarding a residential district which was rocked by bombs with a warning to Negroes to move out "or be bombed out."

Two home-made bombs exploded almost simultaneously Sunday in the home of Negro William Bailey and at a duplex residence across the street occupied by whites.

Fifth Explosion

It was the fifth bomb explosion on Dunsuir street in six months.

No one was injured, police reported. But investigators said the blasts caused extensive damage to the houses and furniture.

John W. Potts, 32, and Ralph Martinez, 35, occupied one unit of the duplex. Officers said the unit was "undoubtedly mistaken for that of Bernard Hartstein, champion "Sugar Ray" Robinson.

The government complaint specifically charges the defendants with conspiracy to exclude others from the promotion of professional championship boxing contests and the sale of radio, television and motion picture rights in such contests.

who had recently sold the house to Roger Duncan, a Negro."

Duncan said he plans to move in May 4 despite "this very un-American thing." He is a Los Angeles city fireman.

Officers said they found a note written from newspaper headlines pasted on paper tucked under the mailbox of the Bailey residence. It read:

"Negroes move off Dunsuir St. north of Adams we will bomb off all Negroes."
