

The Grange

Enterprise Grange
The March 11 business meeting of Enterprise Grange, Master Chester Jensen presiding, was well attended with 52 members present and 43 visitors representing Pomona Grange, Upper Rogue, Upper Applegate, Gold Hill, Bellview, Live Oak, Sams Valley, Phoenix, Griffin Creek and Central Point.

Pomona Grange presented the lecture hour program.

This was the first of a series of meetings where a neighboring Grange presents the lecture hour program.

Upper Applegate Grange
Upper Applegate Grange will meet in regular session for social meeting on March 22. The literary program will consist principally of musical numbers by the Ruch accordion band under direction of Eve Prentice. Two representatives from the county tax office also a member of the county court will be present to explain the county tax system and answer questions relative to property assessments, etc. All interested are invited.

Sams Valley Grange
Sams Valley Grange met March 15 with Master Ralph James presiding. Albert Straus talked on P. M. A., Principal Mack of Sams Valley school, spoke on India. Fred Divisek presented his accordion band and vocalists, Ferris Simpson, Vera Wood, Georgia Ashby, Marilyn Barker, Susan Perry, and Herbert Ridgely.

Visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hockersmith of Phoenix and Mr. and Mrs. John Peffley of Brookings and Mr. and Mrs. Murray Perry of Grants Pass.

Herman Preim talked on how to feed calves.

Next H. E. C. meeting will be at the home of Melitta Preim.

Serving at the next meeting will be Mrs. Helena James and Mrs. Ruth Donough.

There will be a dance at Sams Valley Grange hall on March 29.

Live Oak Grange
A larger attendance than usual was present at last week's meeting of Live Oak Grange to greet Master Henry Tjoelker and his bride on their return from a honeymoon on the coast.

During the lecture program, the newlyweds were presented with a beautiful floor lamp, a gift from the members, and a fine coffee maker from the H.E.C. Glen Black, master of ceremonies, made clever presentations of the gifts. Mr. and Mrs. John Breeding, whose golden wedding anniversary fell on this date, were presented with a gold woolen blanket and a large gold anniversary cake which was cut and served during the refreshment hour along with a three-tiered wedding cake which was decorated by Mrs. Henry Bonney for the occasion.

Chester Jensen, master of Enterprise Grange at Wimer was a special guest and brought with him Mr. and Mrs. Wehren who received the third and fourth degrees with the initiation of Live Oak candidates. They were Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hutchison, Mr. and Mrs. H. Knutson, Mr. and Mrs. Truman Drew, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Lingren, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dunham, Leslie Jones, U. R. Fanley and Guy Wilcox.

The baked ham dinner March 15 was a great success and many stayed to see the motion pictures shown by courtesy of Conger-Morris of Medford.
