Aschenbrenner To Lead Methodist Church Campaign

The Rev. E. J. Aschenbrenner, pastor of St. Paul's Methodist church, Spokane, Wash., will be guest minister in a series of evangelistic services at First Methodist church, March 23 to 30.

He will speak Sunday morning and evening at each week day at 7:45 p.m. Mr. Aschenbrenner will also instruct teams of laymen who will call on non-members to invite them into the fellowship of the congregation.

Mr. Aschenbrenner will also speak Saturday at 4 p.m. and Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday of next week at 10 a.m. to ministers gathered at Medford from other participating churches in this area. The Medford center in one of 13 centers, representing about 250 Methodist churches in the northwest, which will carry on similar meetings during the coming week.

The mission is sponsored in Medford by the membership and evangelism committee of First Methodist church, Dr. E. G. Ray is chairman. Other committee chairmen leading in Medford are Mrs. J. S. Heatherington, public services; Ben Schmidt, spiritual preparation; Dr. G. A. Dierdorff, finance and Mrs. J. W. Poage, spiritual life.

"Good News from God Our World" will be theme of the sermons preached by Mr. Aschenbrenner at the First Methodist church. His topics are as follows: Sunday, 11 a.m., "God Made Us"; 7:30 p.m., "God Redeems Us"; Monday, "God Is Within Us"; Tuesday, "God Empowers Us"; Wednesday, "God Unites Us"; Thursday, "God Assures Us"; Friday, "God Commends Us".

Mr. Aschenbrenner was formerly pastor at Neumann Methodist church, Grants Pass. The public is invited to the services.

Free Methodist Conclave Begins

The Rev. George Delamarter, Winona Lake, Ind., was main speaker, as the Oregon Youth convention of the Free Methodist church opened at the Medford church last night.

John Beagle, bass soloist of Portland, and the "Forward" male quartet furnished special music. Herbert Hansen, Salem, is the song leader for the convention.

In addition to the annual business session the program for today included an address by Dr. Elvis E. Cochrane, discussion groups on Christian Leadership and "What We Believe and Why" and a skating party at the Rogue rink.

The public is invited to the rally tonight at 7:45 p.m. when there will be a special program in addition to the address by Mr. Delamarter.

The youth convention will continue through Sunday evening with a special rally being planned for Sunday at 2:30 p.m. Dr. Cochrane will bring the main address.

Methodist Speaker

Adventist Pastor Radio Speaker

Pastor O. E. Schnepfer of the Seventh-day Adventist church, will speak over the KJYC "Chapel of the Air" program Sunday, March 23, at 9:30 a.m. on "The Measure of Our Religion."

On Saturday at 11 a.m. in the church his topic will be "The Test of Discipleship," and the communion service will follow.

The Prospect Missionary Volunteers will give a simulated radio broadcast at young people's meeting at 4:45 p.m., with Eugene Burrill announcing the theme, "Being Ready for Heaven," and the numbers.

Alvy Bowman and Leonard Yost will sing, "Everything's All Right in My Father's House," the Prospect trio, Forrest and Garnett Bigger and Alvy Bowman, will sing "Follow All the Way." Howard Brooks will give an address on "Heaven," Garnett Bigger will speak on "Sharing Your Faith," and a film, "Winning Men for God," will be shown.

At 8 p.m. in the gym there will be a sound film, "Little Miss Big."

Lutherans Seek Mission Funds

Sunday, March 23, will mark the beginning at St. Peter's Lutheran church of the Conquest for Christ collection for expansion of the Lutheran Missouri synod mission fields.

The synod has set a goal of $10,000,000 from its 5,000 congregations throughout the world for this expansion. Of the amount $6,500,000 will go for pastor and teacher training and the rest for direct aid to the mission fields.

Missionaries of the Every Continent Lutheran church are now active on every continent, according to Dr. Frederick S. Streufert, secretary of missions for the synod. In the last decade the church has sent men and women for the first time into Japan, the Philippines, New Guinea, Guatemala, Hawaii, Cuba and the Canal Zone. Lack of funds has prevented immediate expansion at most of the recently organized foreign posts.

Ray Harder is head of the collection committee at St. Peter's. Others on the committee are Walt Kingman, Mrs. Hugh Huntley and Ronald Wolff.

Korea Subject Of Revival Talk

Starting on the third week of revival services in the Bible Auditorium, 910 South Central avenue, Evangelist Harold E. Metcalf will speak Sunday at 7:30 p.m. on "Korea" and events leading to Armageddon.

Tonight he will show the relationship between "Divine Healing" and the work of trained, self-sacrificing physicians.

On Wednesday Mr. Metcalf, who is a graduate of Washington Missionary college, Washington, D.C., told of four ways by which Christ was known to His friends after His bodily resurrection, which were appearance, voice, mannerisms and name, and substantiated by scriptural texts his assertion that people from this earth will know their loved ones in the same way.

Two pianos, a Hammond organ, trombone, choir and soloists furnish music each night. During the broadcast at the auditorium Sunday at 9:30 p.m. three Oxford Bibles will be given to shut-ins whose names have been sent in by their friends.

DeMolay Youths Guests at Church

Forty members of the Order of DeMolay and their advisers will attend First Presbyterian church at the 11 a.m. service on Sunday.

Dr. D. K. West will preach on "Gethsemane, The Garden of Testing." The offering for the Great Hour of Sharing will be received and dedicated.

The service is to be broadcast over radio station KJYC. At the evening services Dr. West will preach on "Are You a Man God Can Use?"

On Friday the ministerial association will conduct a three hour service, beginning at noon and closing at 3 p.m. This will be held in the sanctuary of First Presbyterian church.

Norma Jean Snell will be leader of the senior high Westminster fellowship meeting at 6:30 p.m. Following the 7:30 p.m. service, the senior high group will hold its social hour at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Al James, 1426 Euclid avenue.

The junior high fellowship meeting at 6:30 p.m. will be led by members of the stewardship commission, Carol Dyke, Barbara Bransford, and Jonna Lou Henson. Young adults and college age group will convene at the home of Jim Baker, 555 Haven street at 8:30 p.m. Leader will be Miss Florence Erbes.

Christian Church Makes Plans for Easter Season

First Christian church has a goal of 152 or more additions for Easter Sunday. An extensive calling program has been planned and will continue throughout the entire Easter season, according to the Rev. Shelly Anglemeyer, pastor.

The program will conclude with a special visitation week, beginning Sunday, April 13.

Those who are to assist in special visitation program will be Bayne E. Driskill, director of visitation evangelism for Texas, and his son John, who will help in directing young people, and Ed Eldridge, field representative of Northwest Christian college, Eugene.

The leaders are planning two morning church services on Easter Sunday. The first will be 9 a.m. and the second at 11 a.m. The Bible school will meet at 10 a.m. between the two church services. A public address system is to be installed to care for the overflow attendance in Fellowship hall, where a complete service will be held including communion.

Special Music The choir is arranging special Easter music for presentation at both morning services. On Sunday evening the choir will present a miscellany of Easter music.

Young people will join other church youth in sunrise services which will be announced later. During Easter week there will be other special services. On Thursday noon, Christian Women's fellowship will conduct a sacrificial luncheon. On Thursday at 6 p.m. there will be a candlelight communion service.

On Friday the ministerial association will conduct a three hour service, beginning at noon and closing at 3 p.m. This will be held in the sanctuary of First Presbyterian church.

Norma Jean Snell will be leader of the senior high Westminster fellowship meeting at 6:30 p.m. Following the 7:30 p.m. service, the senior high group will hold its social hour at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Al James, 1426 Euclid avenue.

Events Planned By 'Y' Committee

The new YMCA Square Dance committee, of which Gordon Kershaw is chairman, has planned a series of events for square dance enthusiasts.

One will be a public smorgasboard and square dance in the YMCA gymnasium Saturday, March 29. The event is being planned jointly with the YMCA World Service committee, and proceeds will go for orphans homes and schools maintained by the YMCA in foreign countries.

The dinner will start at 6:30 p.m. and dancing at 8 p.m. Several local callers will be on hand.

On Monday, March 24, a new course for beginners in square dancing will get under way at the YMCA social hall. Instructors will be Norman Hillyer, Gordon Kershaw, Jack Crump and Lee Ragsdale. All interested should call the YMCA. This will be the last beginners course this spring.

Washington Seeks To Reduce Welfare Rolls

Olympia — (UP) — A two-point program aimed at reducing the number of persons on Washington state's welfare rolls is under way here.

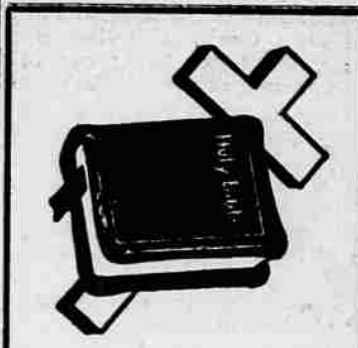

The program will strive to find jobs for welfare recipients who are able to work and get adult children of welfare recipients to contribute financial support to their needy parents, Assistant State Social Security Director George Brown said.

Bank Gets Approval For Stock Dividend

Portland — The First National Bank of Portland has received approval from the comptroller of the currency to pay a $5,000,000 stock dividend to shareholders April 1, on the basis of two additional shares for each three shares held on March 15, bank officers have announced.

Shareholders will later be offered 200,000 new shares of stock on a one for five basis, at $30 per share.

APOSTOLIC FAITH

NORTH CENTRAL AVENUE AT 3RD STREET

faith and friendship walk hand in hand

Millions of Americans this month are making it a special point to invite their friends into their churches — as freely and frequently as they ask them to their homes. You'll find that SHARING your faith does something for you, and for your friends as well... it grows when it's shared... and your friendships grow, too.

Take someone to church this week... you'll both be richer for it
