Local and Personal

Visit—Mr. and Mrs. Gene Horton, Portland, left yesterday after visiting here with Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Ragsdale, 513 Palm street, en route to vacation in California.

Returns—Georgene Schaefer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Schaefer, 99 motel, returned yesterday from Long Beach, Calif., where she went by plane with Mr. and Mrs. H. Metz, Ashland, to visit the Metz' son, Henry Metz, stationed there with the Navy. He left that port March 24 on board a Navy ship.

Tonsils Removed—Miss Joan Dean, daughter of Mrs. A. Z. Dean, 1066 South Oakdale avenue, had a tonsillectomy yesterday, according to an Osteopathic hospital report. Joe Nixon, 9, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Nixon, 3154 Dark Hollow road, is confined to the hospital for medical treatment. Mrs. Orvil Horton, 230 Beatty street, had surgery there Tuesday.

Building Permits—Mrs. M. Fluhrer has received a $1,000 building permit to remodel the Acme building at Sixth and Fir streets, the city building inspector's office reported today. A permit has also been granted to Ken Paine for construction of a radio shop and store building valued at $3,000 at 627 North Central avenue, building department representatives said.

To Broadcast—"Help the crippled child become a productive adult" will be the theme of an Easter seal talk to be given by Dr. William J. Miller of Station KYJC Friday, March 28, at 5:45 p.m. Dr. Miller, Medford pediatrician, is Southern Oregon consultant on cerebral palsy for the Oregon Society for Crippled Children and Adults. The physician took a graduate course at the University of Chicago, where he studied under Dr. Meyer Perlestein, nationally recognized authority on cerebral palsy, under a grant from the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults.

Plan Party—Women of the Moose will hold a public card party Friday, March 28, at 8 p.m. in Girls Community club.

Townsend Club—The monthly dinner meeting of Townsend Club No. 1 will be held Friday, March 28, at 6:30 p.m. in the Pythian building. Those attending are asked to bring a covered dish for the dinner, and men are asked to bring pies. Pupils of Mrs. Eve Prentice will play accordion music.

Music at Dinner—Special music during the YMCA smorgasbord Saturday, March 29, at 6:30 p.m., will include selections by a group of Eve Prentice's Accordion girls. A square dance session will be held after the dinner at the "Y." Proceeds are to benefit world service of the organization.

From Denver—Mr. and Mrs. Will Scott, Denver, Colo., left this week after visiting several days with an aunt, Mrs. Will Fugere and family, Griffin Creek. They were in Mexico for the winter and were en route to Seattle when they visited here. They were greatly impressed with the Rogue valley and plan to return soon, relatives here said today.

Obituary

EDWARD CARTER

Services for Edward H. Carter, 59, who died at Camp White Monday, will be held in the Camp White V. A. Domiciliary center chapel Friday at 2 p.m. with Chaplain Henry W. Anderson officiating. Committal will be in the new Camp White cemetery. Conger-Morris funeral home is in charge of arrangements. Members of veterans' organizations, auxiliaries and friends have been asked to attend the services. Members of the Military Order of Lady Bugs and Cooties were particularly requested to be there. This is the second veteran's funeral at Camp White and the new cemetery to be attended by these organizations. Mr. Carter was born June 27, 1892, in Arkansas, and was a veteran of World War I, serving from Sept. 5, 1918, to Dec. 23, 1918, as a private, Company "F," 8th Battalion, Repl. Tr. He is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Marie Griffin, Tulsa, Okla.

ANXIOUS TO FINISH
Colville, Wash. —(U.P.)—Mrs. Thelma Driggs, anxious to complete a high school education interrupted 30 years ago, slipped and fractured an ankle hurrying to class.

Rita, Secretary Plan Motor Jaunt

Hollywood — (U.P.) — Screen star Rita Hayworth and her secretary, Margaret Parker, made ready Thursday for "a long motor trip" after spiking rumors that the actress would meet Aly Khan in Mexico before she divorced him in Reno. "It's ridiculous," she said Wednesday. "I have no intention of meeting with Aly in Mexico or any place else." Miss Hayworth said she and her secretary intended to climb into her new station wagon possibly this week-end and "just go where we please." Afterwards, she said, she would go to Reno and divorce the Indian prince.

Business Address Listed by Registrar

Mrs. Nellie W. Burns, special voter registrar for a number of precincts in and near Ashland, pointed out today that her business office is at 15 North Main street, Ashland.

A story in The Mail Tribune yesterday gave her home address, as it was listed on the county clerk's registrar list, but Mrs. Burns said their registration equipment is located in her office.

Mrs. Burns is registrar for all Ashland precincts, 1 through 13, and also serves Ashland West (14), Barron (15), Bellevue (16), and Colestine (18).

Wall Street

New York — (U.P.) — Stocks advanced Thursday under the lead of railroad shares, which set a new high for nearly 21 years.

The rise reflected hopes of an early freight rate rise, a factor which offset worry over a probable steel strike.

GOP Leader Sets Talk for League

William A. Thelin, Milwaukie, Ore., Clackamas county chairman of the Republican central committee, will address the League of Women Voters at a rally meeting Friday, March 28, at 8 p.m. in the home of Dr. and Mrs. Fred T. Burich, 2303 Hillcrest road.

The speaker, also a member of the state executive committee of the Republican party, will take the place of State Rep. Paul Geddes, Roseburg, who is ill and unable to fill the engagement.

The public is invited to the meeting which will concern a proposed amendment to the Oregon state constitution on reapportionment of representation in the house and senate, based on both area needs and population, as provided by the constitution, league women added. Previous proposals for reapportionment have been based primarily on population, they said.

Klamath Irishman Would Enter Army

Klamath Falls — (U.P.) — Jeremiah McAuliffe, 24-year-old Irishman, told his local draft board Thursday he is willing to enter the U. S. army despite a treaty of friendship with Ireland which could prevent him from being drafted.

McAuliffe and three other Klamath county youths will go to Portland for induction into the armed service April 9.

Two other natives of Ireland living in Lakeview, Ore., recently refused to be inducted through selective service and the Lake county draft board resigned in protest.

Wife Takes Mate's Place On Cot in Ambulance

Marion, Ill. — (U.P.) — Warren Hastings gave up his ambulance cot to his wife, who was accompanying him home from the hospital.

After stopping the ambulance and conferring with the family doctor at his office, Mrs. Hastings slipped on the stairs and suffered a broken collar bone and ankle. The ambulance returned to the hospital with her husband riding in a chair beside the cot.

Seattle Man Admits Worthless Check Tries

City police have obtained a signed statement from George Wilkins Hatcher, 31, of Seattle, admitting attempts to pass three worthless checks here, they said today. Hatcher was arrested at 6 p.m. yesterday at a Medford bus depot. None of the checks were accepted.

In the statement, the man admitted passing fraudulent checks in Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana. He also stated that he had a previous criminal record involving bad check and grand larceny charges and had served a term in a federal prison for felonies committed while he was in the army, police said.
