

Draft of Hoover As Clean-Up Head Is Recommended

Washington — (U.P.) — A key House member recommended Thursday that Congress draft FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover to take over Newbold Morris' job as head of the government's drive against corruption.

Rep. Francis E. Walter, Pa., a ranking Democrat on the House Judiciary Committee, made the proposal. He told a reporter he would wage a "strong fight" for its approval at a closed committee meeting.

Power Rejection Urged
A Judiciary Subcommittee recommended Wednesday that the House follow the senate's lead and reject President Truman's request for subpoena powers for Morris.

Walter approved that recommendation, but said Hoover should handle the cleanup job instead of turning it over to an "independent investigator" as the subcommittee proposed.

Ability Unquestioned
Recalling the hubbub stirred up by the Senate investigation of Morris' role in a highly-profitable surplus tanker deal, Walter said:

"It is unfortunate that Mr. Morris has accumulated the atmosphere he has. Perhaps he could have handled the job."

As for Hoover, he said, no one can question his "ability or integrity" and few if any doubt that "he would do a fine job."

Kerr Effort in California Fails

Los Angeles — (U.P.) — Democratic Leader John B. Elliott has announced that it was "physically impossible" to complete a full slate of delegates in time for Sen. Robert S. Kerr (D., Okla.), to be entered in the California primary in place of President Truman.

Elliott said Wednesday that the effort has collapsed because the April 4 deadline did not give supporters sufficient time.

"There was marked enthusiasm for Senator Kerr by Democrats over the state," Elliott said.

Elliott said he had received a telegram from the Senator expressing his sincere thanks to Democratic leaders who pledged their support and his "regret" that they could not enter the primary.

Freak Mishap Kills Woman at Roseburg

Roseburg, Ore. — (U.P.) — A heavy pickup truck being towed south on Highway 99 near here swerved from its lane into a northbound lane Wednesday, instantly killing a woman occupant of a light car it struck and hospitalizing two other persons.

Anne Moody, Vancouver, B. C., a passenger in the car driven by her husband, Percival, was killed.

Hospitalized here were Moody and Norma Rowden, Sutherlin, who was steering the truck.

Jeep Driver Injured As Vehicle Explodes

San Mateo, Calif. — (U.P.) — Donald Thompson, 22, of Centralia, Wash., was in serious condition Thursday after burns suffered when his jeep blew up Wednesday on the San Mateo bridge.

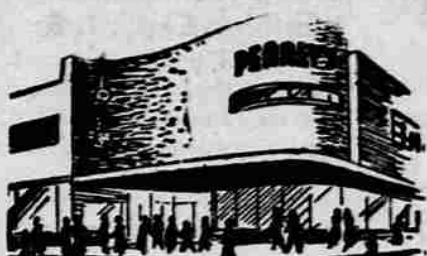

A passerby, Merritt H. Brady, of Oakland, driving behind Thompson extinguished the burned man's clothes with a can of water.

Clam Digging Prospects Excellent in Clatsop

Astoria — (U.P.) — Clam digging prospects on Clatsop county beaches appeared excellent with "minus" tides coming up Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Thousands of diggers crowded the beaches from Ft. Stevens to Gearhart last week-end when digging was reported good during a series of low tides.
