Local and Personal

In Anchorage—George Steele, formerly of the Lithia hotel, Ashland, and until recently chef at the Tabu restaurant, left this week for Anchorage, Alaska, where he will be employed in similar work.

"Y" Family Night—The family night program at the YMCA this Friday will feature special games, and cards will be played. All families should bring prizes. Mrs. Eric de Place will be in charge of refreshments. The swimming pool is closed for renovation this week.

Underwriters To Meet—The March meeting of the Rogue Valley Life Underwriters will be held at the Jackson hotel at noon, Monday, March 31. A provision of the New York state insurance law, which relates to membership and earnings of the group's members, will be discussed and action taken.

Science Lecture—The public is invited to attend a Christian Science lecture entitled "Christian Science: The Science of Blessedness," by Evelyn F. Heywood, CSB, of London, England. The lecture will be held Monday, March 31, at 8 p.m. in the Gold Hill Grange hall under sponsorship of the Gold Hill Christian Science society. Miss Heywood is a member of the board of lecturers of the Mother church, The First Church of Christ Scientist, Boston, Mass.

In Crescent City—F. J. Spalding, Route 3, was in Crescent City, Calif., yesterday on business.

From Klamath—Lee Scarlett, a co-owner of the Willard hotel, Klamath Falls, and George Hills, Oregon Equipment company, were business visitors here yesterday from Klamath Falls.

Disaster Broadcast—Radio station KMED will broadcast a National Red Cross program direct from the mid-southern tornado disaster area Saturday from 10:30 to 11 p.m.

Plan Skating Party—A Girl Scout skating party will be held Saturday at the Rogue Valley ballroom from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. The event is for Girl Scouts in the fourth grade or above, and girls are asked to check with troop leaders concerning costs. It is stated that the canteen will be in operation.

Eagles Dinner—The Fraternal Order of Eagles and the auxiliary will hold a ham dinner at 6 p.m. Saturday, it was announced today. All members, their wives, delinquent members and wives, and boy and girl friends, as well as children, will be welcome. Ladies attending are to bring a standard-size covered dish or pie.

From Anchorage—Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Parker, Anchorage, Alaska, will leave Saturday after visiting since Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Dwyer, 624 Hamilton street. The couple reported the roads good for this time of year. They drove from Anchorage to Roosville on the Canadian-Montana border in five days.

Hospital Notes—Medical patients at Sacred Heart hospital today include Mrs. LaMar Frier-mood, route 1, box 38, Central Point; Mrs. Roy A. Harnden, Box 212 Phoenix, and Teresa Kay Coleman, 4, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Coleman, 826 West Jackson street. Catherine B. Rowley Claimed by Death

Catherine Berman Rowley, 75, the wife of Walter E. Rowley, died yesterday in a Salem hospital where she has been for some months of failing health, it was learned here today.

Born in Wyoming, Ill., on Sept. 27, 1876, she was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Berman. She was married to Walter Rowley on November 15, 1904, and the couple moved to Medford from Galva, Ill., on Aug. 5, 1921.

Mrs. Rowley was a charter member of the Elga Dual Hobbs tent, Daughters of Union Veterans, and belonged to the DUV in Medford.

Her husband, for many years employed in the mechanical department of The Mail Tribune, survives. He is at present residing in the Union Printers home at Colorado Springs, Colo.

Obituary

SAMUEL KRAUSS
Samuel B. Krauss, 84, a former resident of Medford, died Thursday in Wisconsin. The remains will be returned to Medford for burial, with Conger-Morris funeral home in charge of arrangements.

Wall Street

New York (U.P.)—Stocks with underground treasure led the market higher Friday on the most active trading of the month.

Oils dominated. Rails set a new high for nearly 20 years because Northern Pacific ran up several points to a new high. That railroad is now regarded as an oil stock as well as a rail because of its land holdings in the Williston basin of North Dakota.

Dow Jones closing stock averages:
Thirty industrials, 266.96 up 1.75; 20 railroads, 92.79 up 0.56; 15 utilities, 50.25 up 0.22; 65 stocks, 101.75 up 0.61.

Sales Friday totaled 1,560,000 compared with 1,360,000 traded Thursday.
