

Nazarene Church Scene of Ceremony For Phoenix Couple

Phoenix—A candlelight ceremony at 8 o'clock in the evening March 19 wedded Miss Barbara Ellen Bayne and Clifford Wallace Hutchins. The Rev. C. Henry Lacy performed the rites in the Phoenix Church of the Nazarene before a background of ferns, palms and baskets of lavender and white stock with candelabra. Candles were placed in each window.

The traditional wedding march and recessional were played by Mrs. Arnold F. Kornstad, pianist, and the wedding songs were sung by Fred Hall. About 125 guests attended.

The bride is a teacher at Rogue River high school, and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Bayne, Hartley road, Phoenix. The bridegroom is a printer for the M. Dale Newton company. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Hutchins, Phoenix.

Miss Doris Stewart, Phoenix, was maid of honor, and Harry P. Hutchins, Phoenix, was best man for his brother.

Keith Bayne, a brother of the bride, was usher.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of ivory satin with scalloped yoke on the skirt and train designed as a part of the skirt. Her net veil was trimmed with lace and was held in place with a coronet of blossoms. She carried a white Bible with a white orchid.

Miss Stewart's gown was of Nile green taffeta with net overskirt. She carried a colonial bouquet of lavender and white stock.

About 100 guests attended the reception held in the church parsonage. Mrs. Evelyn Womelsdorf completed serving the wedding cake. Mrs. Gerald Hutchins served punch. Mrs. Fred Hall was in charge of the guest book.

From out of town for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Hutchins and family, Eugene, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Clarence R. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Keith A. Brown and family, Mr. and Mrs. Barham, all of Salem; and Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Skinner, Coos Bay.

The couple will live in Rogue River until the close of the current school year.

They made a wedding trip to the California coast and Humboldt bay area.

The bride is a graduate of Ashland schools and Northwest Nazarene college. The bridegroom attended Humboldt State college at Arcata, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Wallace Hutchins are shown following their wedding March 19 in Church of the Nazarene, Phoenix. The bride is the former Barbara Ellen Bayne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Bayne, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hutchins, both Phoenix. —(Share photo)

OES Grand Matron To Visit in County

Mrs. Alice Robinson, Independence, Ore., worthy matron of Order of the Eastern Star for Oregon, will visit Jackson county Tuesday, April 1. A district meeting will be held in the Ashland Masonic temple with Alpha, Adare, Nevada and Reames chapters all participating.

To Meet

Christian Women's Fellowship of First Christian church will meet Wednesday, April 2. General business will be discussed at 10:30 a.m.; there will be a luncheon at 12:15 p.m., and the missionary program will commence at 1:30 p.m.

Miss Hale Married To Ensign Walker In Church Service

Ashland—Miss Darlene Hale, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Zittercob, Ashland, became the bride of Ensign Robert S. Walker in an evening ceremony March 19 at Trinity Episcopal church, Ashland. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Walker of Honolulu, Hawaii.

Relatives and close friends of the families attended the service.

The bride, whose father gave her in marriage, wore a gray spring suit with dark accessories and carried a bouquet of gardenias encircled with lilies-of-the-valley.

Miss Mildred Zittercob, sister of the bride and maid-of-honor, wore a winter white suit with dark accessories and carried daffodils. The bride's mother wore a blue spring suit.

Dennis McCoy was best man. The wedding music was played by Miss Edna Daugherty and Miss Sarah Peters sang.

Following the wedding a reception and dinner was held at "The Shack" in Shady Cove with 14 persons present. The reception dinner was given by the grandparents of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. George Goswick.

Mrs. Walker, a registered nurse, was graduated from Ashland high school and Good Samaritan School of Nursing in Portland. Ensign Walker is a graduate of Honolulu high school and Princeton university in New Jersey. The couple flew to Groton, Conn., where Ensign Walker will attend Coast Guard school for the next four months and Mrs. Walker will work in the hospital there.

Nurses To Meet

Jackson County Licensed Practical Nurses' association will meet Monday, March 31, at 7:30 p.m. in Community hospital penthouse. Dr. Jack Ingram will be the guest speaker. All licensed practical nurses, practical nurses and nurses aides are invited.

Episcopal Service Weds Miss Walker, Gordon Marx

An event of Sunday, March 23, was the wedding of Miss Charlotte Walker, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. L. Paul Walker, 408 South Oakdale avenue, to Gordon Marx, son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Marx, 1985 Kings highway. The double-ring rites, read at 2 o'clock in the afternoon by the rector, the Rev. George R. V. Bolster, were followed by a reception for 200 guests in the parish hall.

Arrangements of white carnations, snapdragons, stock and white daffodils decorated the church, and white satin bows with red rosebuds decorated the ends of the pews.

Miss Duane Maddox was soloist and Mrs. Ernest Conrad was at the organ.

The bride wore a ballerina length white organdy dress with tucked sleeveless bodice and full skirt. A Juliet cap of seed pearls held her shoulder-length veil and she carried white carnations and stephanotis.

Mrs. LaVerne Truax was matron-of-honor for her sister. She wore a frock of blue organdy designed to match that of the bride, and carried a bouquet of mixed spring blossoms. Miss Sonja Jorgensen, cousin of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid, and Mrs. Gordon Allard, sister of the bridegroom from Darwin, Calif., was bridesmatron. Their frocks matched that worn by the bride, Miss Jorgensen wearing yellow and Mrs. Allard coral, and they carried bouquets of spring blossoms. All the attendants wore floral halos.

Miss Sara Eaton, Astoria, was flower girl. She wore a pastel organdy frock with a bandeau of flowers on her hair. Miss Molly Walker, sister of the bride, and Miss Claudia Arnold, cousin of the bride, were ring-bearers. Their frocks were of green organdy and they wore floral headpieces.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Walker wore a suit of off-white bengaline with white hat and white purple-throated orchid. The bridegroom's mother wore a suit of gray faille with small hat and mauve orchid corsage.

Dr. Walker gave his daughter in marriage and Thomas Sloane, Phoenix, was best man for Mr. Marx. Ushers were Archer Richardson, Harold Hulse and Cliff Lawrence.

For the reception Mrs. Cliff Lawrence presided at the punch bowl and Miss Sue Harris took charge of the guest book. Mrs. Orval Eaton, Astoria, Ore.; Mrs. George Harrington and Mrs. Bruce Stanley poured coffee and Mrs. Macey Arnold and Mrs. Ray Frisbie cut the wedding cake. Mrs. Del Berg and Mrs. M. P. Vogel assisted in serving.

The bride's table was decorated with a profusion of purple violets and garlands of greenery with gardenias.

Mr. Marx and his bride made a brief wedding trip to the coast and will live at Eugene, Ore., where Mr. Marx is attending the University of Oregon. Both the bride and bridegroom were graduated from Medford senior high school and the bride attended Oregon State and Southern Oregon colleges.

Two Students Spend Vacation Week Here

Frank Morris, freshman at the University of Washington, Seattle, has been spending spring vacation with Dr. and Mrs. Dwight Findley, 36 Glen Oak court. The student brought with him another freshman, Collen Cruikshank. Both are members of Phi Delta Theta fraternity.

Young Morris makes his home with the Findleys.

Dr. and Mrs. Findley, with their daughter, Diane, and son, Jackie, drove to Salem last week-end to attend the annual Freshman Glee of Willamette university. Another daughter, Miss Jeanene Findley, is a freshman at the university and was chairman of the entertainment committee.

The Findleys were joined in Salem by the two University of Washington students.

Miss Jean French Wed in California To Albert Kantor

Miss Jean French became the bride of the Rev. Albert Kantor in a double ring ceremony held March 9 in the Dos Pablos, Calif., Community church.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, O. E. Childreth, Medford.

She wore a white satin gown with full length train and long net veil. Her circular bouquet was of white iris and stephanotis.

Miss Marion Clark, Fresno, Calif., was the bride's only attendant. She wore yellow organdy and carried a bouquet of yellow carnations. David Brown of Dos Pablos served as best man.

Spring flowers and palms decorated the church.

Mrs. Lou French, mother of the bride, wore a navy dress with a corsage of pink gardenias.

The bride was graduated from Medford high school and Los Angeles Bible Institute and is now teaching at Firebaugh, Calif.

The Rev. Kantor is a graduate of Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.

After a brief wedding trip to Carmel and other California coastal towns, the couple will live at route 2, box S48.

Also attending the wedding from Medford was Mrs. Childreth, the bride's aunt.

Wagner Creek Group Plans Spanish Dinner

Talent—Plans for a Spanish dinner were discussed by the sewing and painting groups of Wagner Creek Community club, at a joint meeting held Tuesday.

April 22 has been set for the dinner and tickets may be purchased from any member of the club. Mrs. Roscoe Talbott is in charge of general arrangements.

Moving pictures will provide a after-dinner entertainment. These will be shown through the courtesy of Conger-Morris, Medford.

An Easter egg hunt is planned by the club for the young children of the community. Mrs. R. F. Ditsworth and Mrs. Virgil Neuenschwander are in charge of plans for this party.

Mr. and Mrs. Thad Coleman are shown receiving best wishes from the Rev. J. S. Manchester following their wedding March 21 at the Manchester home. Before her marriage the bride was Miss Marion Stegall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stegall, Gold Hill. The bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Ada B. Graham, Redding, Cal. —(Brainard photo)

Five Sisters Hold Week-End Reunion In Gold Hill Home

Gold Hill—Five sisters who had not been together in 43 years, held a family reunion last week-end in the home of Mrs. Mary Shaw, one of the sisters.

Attending the reunion were Mrs. Shaw, Mrs. Eleanor Gannon, Gold Hill; Mrs. Louisa Weigel, Minneapolis, Minn.; Mrs. Walter Armstrong, Great Falls, Mont.; and Mrs. Charles Huddleson, Eureka, Cal. The sixth member of the family, Leonard Beilich, a brother living in Spokane, Wash., was unable to attend.

Mrs. Weigel left Wednesday night to return to her home. Mrs. Huddleson was accompanied to Gold Hill by Mr. Huddleson and the couple's daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Irving McBeth, Eureka.

Other guests at the reunion were Mr. and Mrs. John Stieber, Gold Hill.

The sisters were all born in LaCrosse, Wis., and lived there for a time as children. Later the family moved to Great Falls, Mont. Mrs. Shaw and Mrs. Gannon have lived in Gold Hill for the past 10 years.

Author, Lecturer To Speak in City For Dinner Club

John Morley, author, lecturer and well-known foreign correspondent, will be the next guest speaker, Monday, April 14, for the Rogue Valley Knife and Fork club. The Rev. George R. V. Bolster, president of the club, made the announcement this week.

Mr. Morley has just returned from a reporting and lecturing assignment which took him around the world and made it possible for him to interview leading figures in England, Germany, Italy and the Levantine, India, China and Japan. His lecture, "A Correspondent's Report Around the World," is "no nostalgic account of things which occurred way back when—but an up-to-the-minute report on events which are taking place in the principal focal points of the world," the club president said.

To Retire

New York — (U.P.) — Kirsten Flagstad, who announced at a recent Carnegie hall recital that it would be her last appearance on the concert stage, also is bidding farewell to opera. She is currently giving her final five operatic farewell performances at the Metropolitan in a revival of Gluck's "Alceste."

Make Your Easter Weather Match A SUIT

$16.95

And they're truly fabulous... such fashion finds! This checked beauty will take you round the clock... wherever you want to go... in the most flattering manner. A row of shiny buttons march down the front... and are accented on the clever pocket detail. You'll find the fine details of tailoring you never ever see in suits at this budget price, too. Sizes 8 to 15.

the patio

22 South Central—Phone 2-8168

You'll find Easter cards as gay and bright as sunshine; as sweet as Easter lilies, in our Hallmark collection of Easter cards. There's one for every one you want to remember. Select yours today.

See SWEM'S for Your Easter Gifts

Swem's BOOK & GIFT SHOP

Adrienne's

PRE EASTER SPECIAL on COATS

Many Coats have been reduced for this

Special Event

Fleeces
Poodle Cloth
Worsted and Novelty Weaves

$19.98 $25.00
$35.00

The Latest in Easter Accessories are found at Adrienne's

The Important '52 Look in Millinery $3.50 $5.98 to $25.

214 E. Main Adrienne's Phone 2-7169

Marion Stegall And Thad Coleman Wedded Recently

Miss Marion Stegall and Thad Coleman were married March 21 at 7 o'clock in the evening at Assembly of God church parsonage, Medford. The Rev. J. S. Manchester performed the ceremony, attended by a small group.

Miss Ruth Stegall, Gold Hill, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Paul Nilsen was best man.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stegall, Gold Hill, and the bridegroom's mother is Mrs. Ada B. Graham, Redding, Cal.

Mr. Stegall gave his daughter in marriage. She wore an aqua blue suit with white accessories and her flowers were pink carnations. Her sister wore a navy blue suit with red accessories and red carnations.

Daffodils on an archway formed a background for the wedding couple.

The couple made a wedding trip to Roseburg and now are at home at 1009½ West Main street.

The bride has been employed in the Bear Creek orchards' office. She attended Medford high school. The bridegroom, who attended Canyonville Bible academy, is assistant manager at Leon's store.

MAKE YOUR FIRST CHOICE IN PLATED TABLEWARE

Gorham SILVERPLATE

Guaranteed by the makers of famous Gorham Sterling

Other Silverplated Ware Carried by Lawrence's—
• COMMUNITY
• 1847 ROGERS

Lawrence's

In Medford 42 years stocking the same high quality merchandise found in the better stores in the larger cities and more moderately priced.

130 EAST MAIN