

On The Side

By E. V. Durling

Shut them in. With their triumphs and their glories and the rest! Love is best! What's the earth. With all its art, verse and music worlds Compared with love, found, gained and kept.

—Robert Browning

Too many men let the old rocking chair get them when they pass 60. For a man with an active mind retirement is almost a disease. It is a life shortener. P. T. Barnum was a millionaire and 61 years old when he organized the circuits that was to become known as "The Greatest Show on Earth." Incidentally, the first performance of Barnum's circus took place in Brooklyn.

Fast Talker

A court stenographer tells me the fastest speaker he ever heard voiced 260 words a minute. How many words a minute do you speak when you really get going? How about your wife? How rapidly does she talk when she warms up and begins to state what she really thinks of you? Why not clock her at the next opportunity? It might be interesting to note her reaction when you pull out your watch and begin checking on her conversational speed.

Horses & Women

A Short Women's association. That is what has been recently organized in Great Britain. Its object is to battle for a better break for women measuring five feet three or under. Seems the pint-size females over there have considerable difficulty in getting fitted for the various necessary articles of attire. The Short Women's association intended to harass manufacturers to the point where no small female will feel she is a forgotten woman. I like the idea of this organization. The name does not appeal to me. Should be the "Little Women's Association." Whether or not there is a need for such an organization in this country I don't know. Still I am always hearing of shops for tall girls but rarely of one for the cute, little tricks.

Play It Right

When are we going to have "Romeo and Juliet" produced and played as Shakespeare wrote it? I am referring to the performers cast for the title roles. These parts should be played by young people. At the time of their love affair Juliet was about 15, Romeo a little older. It was a teen-ager romance. In 1935 Basil Rathbone played Romeo to Katharine Cornell's Juliet. At that time Rathbone was 42 years old. Katharine Cornell was 36.

Sidelights
How is your memory for old vaudeville jests? I remember one of a blonde sister act at the old Brooklyn Orpheum saying: "Puppy love is when a girl marries a guy making less than fifty dollars a week." . . . At one time in his long career Lionel Barrymore weighed 220 pounds. He reduced by following the instructions given in Vance Thompson's brilliant book on dieting titled "Eat and Grow Thin."

Passing By

Katharine Hepburn. A very accomplished actress. Every year she gets better and better in every way. She is my nomination for the first lady of the screen. She could be first lady of the theater too. She is another Maude Adams. Can I say more? You may feel inclined to argue this point with me. However, when it comes to judging actresses, third basemen and the solid horse for show I am practically infallible. . . . Fred Levy. Distinguished candy firm executive from San Francisco. Fred says he always tips in advance and that this invariably inspires excellent service. The idea is good, but not new. "Death Valley" Scotty at the height of his career as a spender would tear a fifty dollar bill in half. Then he gave one half to the waiter saying: "If the service is good you get the other half." The service was always good.

Mules & Men

At what age do men begin to become attractive to women? Listen to what Sylvia Sydney recently observed: "I am forty-one. What's wrong with being forty? Men are not attractive till they're that age. I have never been out with a man under forty."
