WALL STREET

New York — (U.P.) — Stocks turned quiet and easier Friday as the steel companies prepared to bank their furnaces in advance of a strike scheduled for midnight Tuesday.

Holding to custom, Wall Street refused to sell on strike news. But traders turned very cautious. Some profit taking came into the oils and special issues. Rails, weak in the early trading, rallied from their lows with a few issues standing out for strength.

Dow Jones closing stock averages: 30 industrials 265.82, off 1.18; 20 railroads 92.46, off 0.82; 15 utilities 49.66, off 0.07; 65 stocks 101.13, off 0.52.

Sales Friday totaled 1,190,000 shares compared with 1,280,000 traded Thursday.

Obituary

GEORGE ROBINSON

Services for George Luther Robinson, 67, who died Thursday, will be held in Conger-Morris chapel Monday at 2:30 p.m. with the Rev. C. W. Frost of the Apostolic Faith church officiating. Committal will be in Siskiyou Memorial park.

Mr. Robinson was born in Grants Pass June 16, 1864, the son of the late John H. and Olive Robinson. He had lived in Southern Oregon all his life and in Medford for the past 18 years. On Oct. 19, 1908, in Grants Pass, he married Maude Humpton, who survives. He was a member of the Apostolic Faith church.

Other survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Gladys L. Spinas and Mrs. Lena F. McCaleb, both of Medford; four sons, Clifford L., Fred E., Raymond E. and Miles R., all of Medford; a sister, Mrs. Elsie Dellinger, Grants Pass; four brothers, Claude C., Fossil, Omer, Salem; Reginald J., Grants Pass, and Everett E., Grants Pass, and 11 grandchildren.

SOUHPRENIE HERBERT

Funeral services for Souhprenie Melanie Herbert, 86, who died at her home in Gold Hill Thursday, will be held Saturday at 9 a.m. at Sacred Heart church with the Very Rev. John M. Berger officiating. Interment will be in Siskiyou Memorial park. Rosary devotion will be recited at Peril funeral home today at 8:15 p.m.

It is the request of the family that flowers may be sent to the service or a donation made to the Memorial Book or Library fund at Sacred Heart church, or to some other charity.

The deceased was born in Montreal, Canada, on Aug. 9, 1865, and at the age of 8 went with her family to Dennison, Tex. In 1901, in San Francisco, she was married to Arthur P. Herbert, superintendent of the Mexican Central railroad. He died in Mexico in 1912.

Following her husband's death Mrs. Herbert came to Medford where the family had orchard properties. For 20 years she owned and operated orchards in the valley. Last August, she and her daughter, Helen Herbert, who survives, moved to Gold Hill.

Mrs. Herbert was a member of the Third Order of St. Francis, Sacred Heart church. Other survivors include a brother, L. Claude Perry, St. Louis, Mo.
