

Nazarene Leader To Speak At Anniversary of Church

Dr. D. I. Vanderpool, general superintendent of the Nazarene denomination, will speak Sunday at the 30th anniversary celebration of the Nazarene church of the Nazarene, according to the pastor, the Rev. Vernon Wilcox.

DR. D. I. VANDERPOOL
Nazarene Speaker

Dr. Vanderpool has held strategic pastorates in Denver, Colo., Pasadena, Calif., and Walla Walla, Wash., and also served for 11 years as superintendent of the Northwest district, before being elected to the general superintendency in 1950.

He is considered to be one of the outstanding preachers in the denomination, having been especially successful in evangelistic work. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Vanderpool, driving from their home in San Jose, Calif., for this occasion.

Starts With Rally
The special day will begin with a Sunday School rally at 9:45 a.m., which is the closing session in the six-week "Climb to Easter" emphasis. At 11 a.m.

Speaker To Defend King James Bible

Clifford A. Turvey, businessman and lay preacher, speaking at Valley View Seventh-day Adventist church at 11 a.m. on April 5 will bring the works of Greek and Latin scholars to the defense of the "King James" Bible.

He will defend that version of the Scriptures against charges such as those of Hartzell Spence, who in a recent issue of a magazine stated that it is doubtful that David killed Goliath, that Noah had an ark or that Jonah was swallowed by a whale.

While critics reportedly claim there are at least 20,000 errors in the New Testament, Turvey maintains that for the scientific-minded there is now definite mathematical proof that even the word order of the Bible shows divine inspiration. Turvey declared the movement to rewrite the scriptures to be a fulfillment of a remarkable Bible prophecy.

The speaker will quote several authorities.

Bible Teacher Will Present Flannelgraph

Miss Verna Cingade, teacher of Bible history in Jackson county schools, will preach the Palm Sunday story in flannelgraph at the Friends church Sunday at 10 a.m. She will also be the speaker for Junior church during the worship hour at 11 a.m.

Dead line on Classified Ads: 5:30 p.m. for following day; 10 a.m. Monday; noon Saturday for Sunday a.m. for Sunday a.m.

special music will be presented by the ladies' sextet, and Dr. Vanderpool will preach.

The anniversary service proper will be held at 3 p.m. A special program has been planned to commemorate the occasion. The Rev. C. M. King, first pastor of the church, will participate. Music will include numbers by Elizabeth Wilcox and the church choir and orchestra, directed by John M. Eby with Ethel Kornstad as organist and Ruth Eby as pianist. Dr. Vanderpool will give the anniversary address.

The youth groups will meet at 6:30 p.m., and the closing service will be at 7:30 p.m., with Dr. Vanderpool speaking and several musical numbers presented.

The public is invited to attend these anniversary services.

Assessor Appeals For Quick Return Of Tax Information

County Assessor C. A. Myers today appealed to merchants of the county to return, as soon as possible, the forms which were mailed them with regard to the current recheck of inventories for personal property taxes.

Myers explained that time is rapidly approaching when amended returns will have to be in so that the assessor's staff can process them before the books close finally on May 12. There is a great deal of work to be done on the amended returns before that date, he said.

In sending out amended returns at the time the inventory recheck was started, Myers requested that they all be returned not later than April 1, he said, but a great many are still outstanding.

State Starts Recheck

The recheck of the inventories was started throughout the state by the State Tax Commission recently, when it became evident that some merchants were not reporting their true inventories for personal property tax purposes, with the result that those reporting full value were paying more than their share of the tax.

The work the assessor's staff will have to complete by mid-April includes assembling all the returns, and compiling statistics which will give the assessor the necessary basis to work out an equitable assessed value on the merchandise's true value, as is done in property taxation.

Assessor Myers was emphatic in stating that it will be necessary for the amended returns to be sent in within the shortest possible time before the work, which will benefit most merchants, can be completed.
