

Roxy Ann Court Plans Installation Saturday Evening

Roxy Ann court, Order of the Amaranth, will hold the annual public installation of officers Saturday, April 5 in Medford Masonic temple. The hour is 8 p.m.

Grand officers will be here to assist in the ceremony. Planning to attend are Mrs. Ann Rundell, Portland, past grand royal matron; Jack Schulze, Klamath Falls, past grand royal patron; Mrs. Schulze, past grand standard bearer; Mrs. Frances Astrom, Portland, grand secretary; Frank Douglass, Klamath Falls, assistant grand lecturer.

Elective officers to be installed are Mrs. Eldon Waldron, royal matron; James Risley, royal patron; Mrs. Glenn Linn, associate matron; Jack Kennedy, associate patron; Mrs. Charles Hoppe, conductress; Mrs. George Rehart, associate conductress; Mrs. Ira Canfield, secretary; Vernon Turpin, treasurer; Herbert Morris, one-year trustee; L. Manning, three-year trustee.

Mrs. Dewey Queen is the retiring royal matron and Ira D. Canfield the retiring royal patron.

Stamp Club To Hold Meeting on Saturday

New members of the Junior "Y" Stamp club are Vernon Harris, James Emmett, Jack Smith and Joe Shelton. The club now has a membership of 55 children.

Last week the club studied the stamps of Sweden, and for the meeting Saturday, April 5, will study the stamps of Finland. The club meets each Saturday at the YMCA at 1:30 p.m.

Prizes will be given for the best essays on Finland. Clyde Smith is leader, and Mrs. Eric de Place and Quenton Bailey, assistants.

Society and Clubs

Teachers To Hold Meeting Saturday In Griffin Creek

Jackson County Classroom Teachers' association will hold its last meeting of this school year at Griffin Creek school Saturday, April 5. A ham luncheon will be served at noon in the school cafeteria.

The program will open with group singing led by Mrs. Myrtle Chapman, Ashland, and accompanied by Mrs. Myrna Frink, principal of Griffin Creek school. Mrs. Frieda Wilson of the Southern Oregon college will speak on "Testing, Evaluation, Grading and Report Cards."

Mrs. Una B. Inch, county school supervisor, will act as moderator of a panel discussion following the talk by Mrs. Wilson. Teachers taking part in the panel will be Mrs. Lurene Nye, Ashland; Tiney Murray, Butte Falls; Wilma Peabody, Medford; Oak Grove school, and Loran W. Casebier of Talent.

Election of officers will be held, an evaluation of the year's program will be given and plans for next year will be discussed. All teachers of the county are cordially invited to attend. Mrs. Frink is taking reservations. Superintendents and principals are welcome to attend.

Have grilled mackerel for dinner tonight, with a sauce made of mayonnaise in which finely chopped watercress is mixed. You won't need a whole bunch of watercress for the sauce, but the remainder will keep crisp and green in the vegetable refrigerator.

Plans Completed By Phoenix Club For Garden Show

Phoenix—Members of Phoenix Garden club are busy this week completing plans for a spring garden show Sunday, April 6, at the Community club building.

Show hours are to be 12 noon to 9 p.m. Entertainment is being planned throughout the day, including a style show, and tea will be served. All gardeners, whether members of any club or not, are invited to enter displays in the show.

Committee chairmen for the show are Mrs. O. L. Penland and Mrs. A. C. Lewis, invitations; Mrs. Jess Wilson, Mrs. George Bourne and Mrs. L. C. Taylor, hostesses; Mrs. Vaughn Quackenbush, specimens; Mrs. George Hartley, Mrs. O. V. Poe, arrangements; Mrs. Jewel Parr, Mrs. Tom Elson, floor display; Mrs. C. W. Lewis, Mrs. C. H. Hockersmith, Mrs. Penland, stage and theme; Mrs. Myrtle DuBucque, Mrs. Minnie Culver, Mrs. W. F. Biddle and Mrs. L. S. Houston, plant sale; Mrs. L. O. Caster and Mrs. Lillian Coleman, tea service; Mrs. Chris Wolfe, Mrs. W. I. House and Mrs. Hockersmith, souvenir plants; Mrs. A. O. Floyd and Mrs. A. C. Lewis, program and style show; Mrs. Clifford Maust and Mrs. Guy Bobleigh, guest book.

Cooperating for the style show will be Jean Hart, Houser's Dress shop, Bert Price and Town and Country, Burelsons and Frances Dallaire. Musical numbers will be given from time to time by a barber-shop chorus and quartet, students of the Eve Prentice studio, Mrs. Tom Lowe and Kay Fisher.

When you get out a new dishcloth, sew a large button on one corner. The button may be used for scraping food from pots or dishes.

Adding color to both the Lily Day parade and the dance will be the presence of Pete, the Easter Seal rabbit. Pete is really Mrs. J. A. Rose, president of Rotana.

The parade and dance are two of four ways in which Jackson county residents may support the work of the Oregon Society of Crippled Children and Adults. It is pointed out. Other methods of contribution are purchase of the Easter Seals, or contributions by way of the coin containers in retail establishments.

Lily Day Parade, Country Club Dance On Drive Calendar

On the calendar for April 5 and April 7 are two events being held in Jackson county in connection with the annual Easter Seal sale. The annual Lily Day parade will be held Saturday, April 6, and the second event will be a benefit dance at Rogue Valley Country club.

Selling the lilies, made by the handicapped of Oregon, will be 26 Medford Senior High school girls selected by Mrs. Laurence Butler, dean of girls at the school, and 25 members of Medford Bethel, Job's Daughters.

The girls will work under the supervision of Mesdames Paul Atkins, Alvin Boswell, Norman Burke, P. C. Chinn Jr., Stella Breed, Susie Riddle, W. C. Blackledge, Robert Powell and the Misses Hazel Swayne and Billie Kuntner. Corsets will be given each girl by Medford Rotana club, sponsors of the Easter Seal drive in Medford.

A new orchestra, Two Beaux and a Peep, will play for the country club dance. Dancing will be from 9 p.m. until 1 a.m. and a buffet supper will be served from 11 to 12 midnight. Tickets for the dance may be bought at Purucker's Music store, from all members of Rotana, or Mrs. John McCann, 2-5594.

Adding color to both the Lily Day parade and the dance will be the presence of Pete, the Easter Seal rabbit. Pete is really Mrs. J. A. Rose, president of Rotana.

The parade and dance are two of four ways in which Jackson county residents may support the work of the Oregon Society of Crippled Children and Adults. It is pointed out. Other methods of contribution are purchase of the Easter Seals, or contributions by way of the coin containers in retail establishments.

County delegates will include Mesdames L. O. Rogers, George Hubbard, Lee Hoag, C. B. Cordy, Delbert Spain, Myron Newton, William Romayne, Albert Harrison, Leo Jacobs, Chester Fitch, Carl Peterson, Arch Barksdale, Margery Clark, L. A. Macklin, Forrest Campbell, William Neal and William Davenport.

From Medford the city council delegate is Mrs. Leigh Gustison; Jackson unit delegate is Mrs. Alvin Boswell; Medford Junior High PTA, Mrs. J. W. Danforth; Roosevelt, Mrs. R. D. Dames and Mrs. O. A. Kunkel; Washington, Mrs. Fred Underwood and Mrs. Norman Burke; Lincoln, Mrs. John Benson.

Mrs. John E. Hayes, president of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, will deliver the keynote address on Monday, April 7. Mrs. Jennelle Moorhead, Oregon president, will preside.

Scheduled are the annual nomination and election of officers, workshops dealing with PTA problems on local, county and state levels. Changes are also to be made in the by-laws of the constitution.

For entertainment a smorgasbord dinner, chuck wagon breakfast and a large regional dinner are planned.

Mrs. Moorhead set the theme of the convention in the invitation issued to local units when she asked all delegates to come prepared, not with material equipment, but with enthusiasm, tolerance and an open mind.

League Announces Open Meeting for Talk by Senator

Men, as well as women, are invited to attend a meeting at which State Senator Phil Hitchcock will speak Saturday, April 5, it was announced today by Medford League of Women Voters, sponsoring his appearance here. The luncheon meeting will be held at the Pioneer room in the Jackson hotel at 12:30 p.m. Reservations are to be made by calling Mrs. Nick DeWitt, 2-5640.

Reorganization of the state tax structure will be the senator's topic, and his talk will be followed by open discussion. Senator Hitchcock is considered one of the legislature's outstanding members, and he is known as an able speaker.

Plans for Frolic Completed Today

Last minute preparations for the annual April Frolic at the Jackson school were nearing completion this afternoon and workers planned to have everything in readiness for opening of the building to dinner guests at 5:30 p.m. today.

Several new booths had been added to the bazaar. A stall for sale of festive hats and jumping beans gave a carnival appearance to the setting. It is to be manned by W. H. McGuire.

Fish ponds to test the skill of children will be operated following the presentation of the operetta. Mrs. Kenneth Nolte, Mrs. J. R. Clark, Mrs. Alvin Boswell, Mrs. Roy Heath and Mrs. Violet LeMaster will take charge of the ponds.

The operetta, to be staged by the school, will open at 7:30 o'clock.

Picture of Month Displayed at Store

Southern Oregon Society of Artists has named John Ahern's scratch work picture, "The Stag" as the picture of the month. It is now on display in Barker's store window.
