Two Medford Drivers Win at Emigrant Lake

Two Medford racers were among the seven winners yesterday in the outboard motorboat regatta at Emigrant lake in which 64 boats were entered.

Mel McGraw, Medford, won the D utility frakas and Lorraine Barnes topped a field of 11 in the women's B combined rivalry.

Johnny Garcia, Sacramento, was the day's only double winner. He took the B service runabout and B hydroplane competition. Other victors were Ray McKee, Troutdale, in B utility; Frank Harms, Eugene, in D service runabout and Bill Rankin, Seattle in D hydroplane action.

Several Southern Oregon skippers placed third in the races. Bob Pellett, Grants Pass, in B utility; Floyd Jones, Medford, in D runabout; Gladys Grover, Medford, in the women's race, and George Van Galder, Central Point in B hydro.

Snead Victor At Augusta

Augusta, Ga. — (U.P.) — Sam Snead's swing, patterned after Bobby Jones' own, has carried him to his second Masters golf triumph and the usually jocular slammer said Monday he will come back next year to make an all-out defense of his crown.

No golfer has ever mastered the Masters two years in a row and what happened to Ben Hogan in Sunday's final round was typical. Ben, one of the icest competitors in the game, fell apart while Snead drove into the teeth of a high wind to outlast everybody.

Snead had been tied with Hogan at the start of the last round but Snead's par 72 stood up even under Jack Burke's 69 and milder threats by Tommy Bolt and Al Bessink. It gave him a total of 286, four better than Burke's second-place 290.

Konno Defeats Marshall Again

New Haven, Conn. — (U.P.) — Ford Konno, the Ohio State bullet, completed his domination of John Marshall of the New Haven Swim club tonight by capturing his third national AAU swimming crown.

The slim Hawaiian upended the Australian star in the 440 yard freestyle in 4:34.5 and came from behind to do it. Marshall, for the previous two years a triple winner in the AAU meet, finished a poor fourth, almost nine seconds behind the new champ.

Earlier in the meet, Konno had wrestled the 1,500-meter and 220 yards free-style crowns that Marshall also had won for the past two years.

Despite the great one man show by Konno, Ohio State, the recent NCAA champion was unsuccessful in its bid to dethrone New Haven as the team title.

New Haven, mainly on its depth in the free-style events, posted 113 points to 97 by Ohio State. The rest of the teams trailed far behind.

Ted Jantzer Captures Two Trophies at CP Trapshoot

Central Point — Ted Jantzer, Trail, topped the field yesterday in the 16-yard and doubles competition and H. R. Winston, Roseburg, won the handicap in the American Trapshooting association registered shoot held by the Central Point Sportsmen's club.

Jantzer broke 97 out of 100 birds for Class A honors at 16 yards. T. M. Bennett, Wallowa, trailed him in the class with a 95. Harry Cawker, Grants Pass, won Class B with 94, followed by Lewis Jantzer, Trail, with 93. In Class C William Jantzer, Grants Pass, took first by shattering 94 birds. Tom Mehl, Bend, was runner-up with 89.

Ted Jantzer broke 43 out of 50 in doubles and Bennett was a shade behind with 42. Winston knocked down 46 out of 50 in the handicap. Mehl was runner-up with 45.

The shooters, representing 12 Oregon communities, were bothered somewhat by hazy weather. The new electrically operated trap was in good working order and drew much favorable comment from out-of-town shooters.

New members of the Sportsmen's Straight club are Martin Clogston, Medford; T. M. Bennett, Roseburg; and Hugh Brown, Harry Cawker, William Jantzer and James Horn, Grants Pass. Horn has 50 and the others 25.

When a shooter makes a "straight," 25 in a row, he gets his name on a plaque on a board and gets a coat pin. As he progresses in 25s, his plaque is moved forward and he gets another pin. Ted Jantzer is high man with 125.

Next shoot here will be the President's handicap on April 27.

By PAUL CANE

San Francisco — (U.P.) — Giant Johnny Lindell felt pretty smug Monday as he relished—pitch by pitch—his four-hit shutout victory over the Seattle Rainiers, defending champions of the Pacific Coast league.

The Rainiers, by virtue of their title, are no pushovers and merit consideration as a possible repeat for the crown. But Lindell, a huge right-hander who once patrolled the outfield for the New York Yankees, smiled as he pictured the Suds drooling unproductively over his knuckeball.

Lindell felt as important and proud as any film star. He did, that is, until a teammate gave him the word: Base-hit crazy Los Angeles appears next on Hollywood's schedule and Lindell will have to pitch against the Angels this week.

12-Hit Games

Los Angeles, as was its custom in winning six of seven games from Sacramento, exhibited a pair of 12-hit games Sunday to cop a twin bill from Sacramento, 4-2 and 6-1. Lindell's Hollywood mates, meanwhile, flattened Seattle on his four-hitter, 3-0, but dropped the nightcap, 5-3.

San Francisco, which won its seventh-tilt stretch from Portland by the same margin, downed the Beavers, 5-2, on tall Bill Reeder's second pitching win of the youthful season, but lost an exciting second affair, 5-3. And San Diego, pulling perhaps the

Dykes Sees Fighting Chance for Athletics

By LEO H. PETERSEN

West Palm Beach, Fla. — (U.P.) — Jimmy Dykes thinks his Philadelphia Athletics have a "fighting chance" to win the American league pennant, or failing that to wind up in the first division.

He attaches only one "if" to it—if his aging infield can hold up another season. It's a big if, for he has few reserves back of the veterans. If they start fading it well could be another sixth place finish for the A's.

Dykes points out that his club played the best ball in the league over the last six weeks of 1951 and "gained the confidence it needed for it was knocking off the top teams day after day."

Short on Power

The records bear him out on that, but the fact remains that he is short on power and speed. Unless Dick Fowler can finally overcome his bursitis, he also may be short of pitching.

But Jimmy doesn't think so. He feels he has the best left handed pitching staff in the league with little Bobby Shantz, Al Kellner, Morrie Martin and Sad Sam Zoldak.

For right handers he has Bob Hooper, Carl Scheib, and Joe Coleman. Coleman is question mark, for he has been of little use for three seasons because of chronic arm trouble. But he showed signs late last season of coming back and Dykes is hopeful.

Two rookies, End Burtch and Harry Byrd, an 18-game winner at Savannah last season, could make the staff and if Fowler is right it could be one of the best in the league.

In the outfield it figures to be Gus Zernial, the league's home run and runs batted in champion in left; Elmer Valo in center and Al Clark in right. In Clark, Dykes believes he has picked up a power hitter who never received "a fair chance" when he was with the Yankees or Indians. His No. 1 utility man will be Dave Philley, a fine defensive man but only a .262 hitter with rookie Keith Thomas, who batted .282 at Kansas City last season, likely to win the other garden reserve spot.

The infield will have Ferris

Fain, the league's batting champion at first; Pete Suder at second, Eddie Joost at short and Hank Majeski at third.

Joe Tipton, who can hit the long ball but not too frequently, will start the season as the No. 1 catcher with Joe Astroth and Ray Murray in reserve.

TROJANS TOP BEARS

Berkeley, Calif. — (U.P.) — University of Southern California's powerful track and field team, led by its weight man, defeated California, 76 1/6 to 54 5/6 in their annual dual meet here Saturday.

TOURNEY WINNER

Victoria, B. C. — (U.P.) — Ed Thompson, of Astoria, Ore., Saturday won the 22nd annual Empress golf tournament here, downing Billy McColl, Victoria, 5 and 4 in the final round.

Pulman — (U.P.) — Washington State took both ends of a baseball doubleheader from Gonzaga Saturday, 9-2 and 6-1.

Portlander Golf Champ

Phoenix, Ariz. — (U.P.) — Mrs. Lyle Bowman, Richmond, Calif., held the Trans-Mississippi women's golf championship Monday after eking out a narrow one up win over Marjorie Lindsay of Decatur, Ill.

Mrs. Bowman wound up the annual tournament here Sunday after starting off with a 5-stroke lead then running into trouble to drop 3 behind. She recovered during the final nine holes, however, to tie Miss Lindsay at the 35th hole and move ahead by one stroke on the final hole.

Lujack to Coach At Notre Dame

South Bend, Ind. — (U.P.) — Notre Dame football coach Frank Leahy added one of his brightest stars, All-America Quarterback Johnny Lujack, to his staff Saturday.

Lujack who only Wednesday announced his retirement after four years with the professional Chicago Bears, will replace Bernie Crimmins as backfield coach. Crimmins, another former Irish quarterback, quit in January to become head coach at Indiana.

AAU TOURNEY OPENS

Boston — (U.P.) — Featuring the first champion to make his second title defense, the "greatest fistic show on earth" begins a three-day run here Monday with more than 150 boxers vying for 10 crowns in the 64th annual national AAU tournament. Big man, both in size and courage, is Norvel Lee, a Washington, D.C., Negro, who is back to place his heavyweight championship on the line for the second time.
