Easter Seal Drive To End on Sunday

Citizens of the area were reminded today by Mrs. C. B. Parth that the annual Easter Seal sale ends Easter Sunday. Mrs. Parth urged those who have not already done so to either buy seals or contribute by means of the coin containers placed in retail establishments.

"The greatest dividend of human happiness is the knowledge that one is making possible a better life for someone else," Mrs. Parth stated. The Easter seal campaign which raises funds to support direct services to crippled children and adults presents a genuine opportunity for personal service.

Funds procured through the annual drive support the work of the Oregon Society for Crippled Children and Adults.

Small group discussions or "buzz sessions" in which everyone participated brought forth many suggestions for the new year ahead in parent-teacher work.

A number of vocal arrangements were given by Mrs. Ed Ramsey, George Redhead, Menno Bachmann, Lester Jacobson, Lloyd Shannon and Henry Kammann. Mrs. Redhead was at the piano.

Brad and Barbara Curtis, Suzanne LaMarre Hanson and Kitty Ingle make up the remainder of the cast, directed by Phillip Hanson.

Other plays included in the spring season of the Vining company are "Arsenic and Old Lace," "The Importance of Being Earnest," and "Death of a Salesman." Subscription prices for the four plays will be available only until April 12.

Many Engagements Filled by Groups At Ashland College

Ashland—Musical groups at Southern Oregon college are busier than a Broadway road show this spring, according to Oscar C. Bjorlie, assistant professor of music. Invitations have already been received to appear at eight special functions and more engagements are expected, he said.

The male quartet has slated a particularly busy schedule. The men sang at the Shady Cove Lions club meeting Thursday, next Monday will sing at the annual meeting of the Ashland Methodist church and on Tuesday at the Bellview Grange. Quartet members are Jim Baker, Medford; Lloyd Bunnell, Ashland; Paul Adams, Grants Pass; and George Kekuna, Hilo, T. H.

The girls trio has also met popular demand. It recently appeared at a Sigma Epsilon, Pi initiation and at the Ashland Conference for Young Women and is preparing for a program before the Ashland PEO sisterhood. The group includes Misses Dorothea Coe and Ruth Newton, Ashland and Miss Kay Davis, Grants Pass.

A new musical organization directed by Glenn T. Matthews, assistant professor of music, is the Dixieland band. Its most recent appearance was at the Ashland Centennial banquet. Members are Jim Ylvisaker, Bill Anderson and Ken Bergerson, Roseburg; Elrene Axtell, and Wayne Johnson, Grants Pass; and George Adler, Klamath Falls.

The 60-voice a cappella choir recently completed a three-day tour of central Oregon and is scheduled to provide special music at the Easter sunrise services at Ashland. It will also appear at the Jackson County Elementary Music festival with the band, the later group having also recently completed a three-day tour.

MEDFORD (OREGON) MAIL TRIBUNE—THREE

First Marine Corps Summer Training Since Korea Slated

A full-scale summer training program for marine reservists will get under way this month at Marine bases on both coasts, local Marine recruiters announced today. The training program will be the first large-scale training event for reservists since outbreak of Korean hostilities.

Training of both volunteer reservists and organized ground units will be conducted on the West Coast at Camp Joseph H. Pendleton, Oceanside, Cal.; Troop Training unit, Pacific, Coronado, Cal., and Marine Corps Recruit depot, San Diego, Cal.

Volunteers First
First to participate in two weeks of training will be the volunteer, or inactive, reserve officers and non-commissioned officers enrolled in formal courses who will start this month. Organized Marine reserve ground and air units will begin training in June for two-week periods, continuing through September.

Women Marine platoons will receive training at Camp Lejeune, N. C., and at the recruit depot in San Diego.

Annual field training for Marine reservists was cut short in 1950 with the rapid mobilization of all organized ground units and the eventual ordering to active duty of reserve aviation squadrons for duty during the Korean emergency. Training plans for the summer of 1951 were suspended for the same reason.

Action Threatened By Cooks, Stewards

Seattle (U.P.)—AFL Marine Cooks and Stewards threatened "job and economic action" against West Coast shipowners Friday unless recognition is withdrawn from the Marine Cooks' and Stewards' Union Inc.

A National Labor Relations Board trial examiner ruled March 12 that the independent union, the Pacific Maritime association and two shipping companies—Alaska Steamship company and American Mail Line—had violated the Taft-Hartley act.

The examiner said the committee of the independent union, had discriminated against 100 former members of the union by refusing to hire them.

Farmers Enjoying Strongest Position

Pullman (U.P.)—Farmers now enjoy the strongest financial position they have ever known and all segments of society benefit from it, Jesse W. Tapp, vice-president of the Bank of America, said Thursday.

This favorable position could be credited to a short supply in the face of strong demand—not on "effective" price support program, he told the Pacific Northwest Banking conference.
