

Come to Church Easter

2 Easter Church Services Planned By Presbyterians

Two Easter services at 9:30 and 11 a.m., will be held at the First Presbyterian church. Dr. I. Kirkland West, pastor, will speak on "A Skeptical World Looks for the Risen Christ in You." The choir will bring special Easter music.

All Presbyterian young adults are invited to the A. A. Lausmann home for breakfast immediately after the Sunrise service at Huener Butte.

Mr. and Mrs. Al James will be hosts to the senior high fellowship group and their friends at Rogue River Packing company after the Sunrise service.

The junior high fellowship, with Mrs. Otto Frohnmayer, Mrs. Harold Gregory, Mrs. John Henson, Mrs. George Flanagan, and Mrs. Wayne Jamison as hosts, is to have breakfast at the church.

All classes below junior age are to attend Sunday school at 9:30 a.m. There will be no evening service or youth group meetings Sunday evening.

Methodists Will Hold 3 Morning Services Sunday

Three morning services are planned at First Methodist church on Easter Sunday.

They will be at 8:15, 9:30 and 11 a.m. The Rev. Meredith Groves, pastor, will speak on "As It Began to Dawn."

At the first service the Vesper choir, directed by Herbert Daniels will sing "Easter Morn" and Daniels will sing "Christ Arose."

At the other services the Chancel choir, directed by Mrs. C. R. Adamson, will sing "In the End of the Sabbath," with solo

Friends' Easter Activity To Open With Breakfasts

Easter observance at the Friends church will begin with a young people's breakfast at the Raymond Brood home, following the sunrise service, and the Homebuilders class breakfast at 7:45 a.m. at the Medford hotel.

At 10 a.m. children of the beginners through intermediate departments will present the Sunday school Easter program, followed by brief class sessions.

At the 11 a.m. worship service the pastor will speak on "Death's Sting Removed." The choir will present two anthems: "I Walked Today Where Jesus Walked," and "Risen as He Said." There also will be children's church during the worship hour.

To Present Play

A play, "The Challenge of the Cross," will be presented at the 7:30 p.m. service.

Young people of the Senior Christian Endeavor society will make up the cast, as follows: Evangel, played by Joan DeZell; six disciples, played by Duane Brood, Richard Hopkins, Pat Schroeder, Jack Parker, Arnold Lockwood, and Rose Marie Hansen.

The church choir will furnish background music for the play. An invitation is extended to all who wish to attend.

Youth Choir Cantata At Sams Valley Sunday

Sams Valley—Easter services will be held at 10:30 a.m. Sunday at Sams Valley Community church with a Sunday school program and sermon by the Rev. W. Lee Gray, "Jesus Lives."

There will be baptism and reception of members.

The young people's choir will present an Easter cantata, "The Cross of Redemption," at 8 p.m. Sunday.

by Mrs. Lyle Schoppert. The Methodist Men, male quartet, will present a song, "He Is Risen" and Mrs. Gregory MacDougall will sing "The Holy City."

At 9:30 a.m. the nursery, primary and kindergarten departments will have Easter programs in their departments. Other departments of the Sunday school will join in the 9:30 a.m. church service.

Choir Festival

At 7:30 p.m. there will be a Festival of Chords. The four choirs, Chancel, Vesper, Junior and Cherub will present the following numbers:

"Praise To the Lord The Almighty," Junior, Vesper and Chancel choirs; "Fairest Lord Jesus" and "Let Hymns of Gladness Ring," Cherub choir; "Russian Carol of the Trees," Mrs. Vern Wilson and Chancel choir; "May Jesus Christ Be Praised" and "The Day of Resurrection," Junior choir with solo by Virginia Daniels.

"Ye Watchers and Ye Holy Ones," Vesper choir with solo by Larry Henderson; "The Heavens Are Telling," Chancel choir; "Christ The Lord Is Risen Today," combined choirs.

The church will join in the union sunrise service on a hill near Jacksonville at 5:20 a.m. This will be followed by a breakfast in the open for the youth groups of the church.

Willamette Choir Concert on Monday

With a program of choral music ranging from the formal dignity of Bach to Kodaly's unusual harmonies, the Willamette university a capella choir will be presented in concert at the First Methodist church here, at 8 p.m., Monday, April 14.

The university choir draws its members not only from the college of music, but from liberal arts students, making a stronger and more select organization by bringing out the best voices in the university.

Toured Extensively

The choir, organized in 1939 by its director, Dean Melvin H. Geist, has toured extensively throughout the northwest since its formation. Using Salem as its focal point, the group has covered considerable territory in Oregon, Washington, and Idaho.

This year the choir has made its second trip to central California within the last four years. The 50-voice group began 1952 with a stop at Roseburg on April 3. They went as far south as San Leandro, Calif.

Apostolic Faith Services Sunday Feature Music

The Rev. C. W. Frost, pastor of the Apostolic Faith church, has announced that special music will be featured throughout the Easter Sunday services at his church.

The Sunday school at 9:30 a.m. plans a specially arranged Easter cantata to be presented by the primary department under the direction of Hazel Craig and Ednae Adamson. The junior and senior departments will also be represented with musical numbers.

The prelude to the 11 a.m. worship service will be presented by the orchestra. Numbers include "I Know That My Redeemer Liveth," from the "Messiah" by Handel, and "Easter Fantasia" by Lake. The chorus will be heard in "He Rose Triumphant" and "Our Living Lord."

Evening Cantata

The 7:50 p.m. service will open with an organ prelude, followed by an Easter cantata, "From Darkness to Light," compiled by Ellen Jane Lorenz on the music of P. I. Tchaikowski. This number features solos by Mrs. Duane Jones, Mrs. Randy Nichols, Mrs. Cecil Owen and John Friesen and duets by Mrs. Ray Robinson and Mr. Warren Hanlin and Mrs. Nichols and Mr. Efton Jones.

A mixed quartet and male chorus are also featured as well as the 40-voice chorus. Music of the orchestra and chorus are under the direction of Rev. Norman Allen.

Nazarene To Take Mission Offering

"The Living Christ" will be the subject of the Easter sermon by the Rev. Vernon Wilcox at the Medford Church of the Nazarene Sunday, 11 a.m.

Mrs. Wilcox will sing "Open the Gates of the Temple." The annual missionary offering will be received at this service.

At 7:30 p.m. the church choir, under the direction of John M. Eby, will present Ira B. Wilson's Easter cantata, "The Cross Triumphant," with Mrs. Eby as organist.

Breakfast Set

The day will begin with the young people participating in the united sunrise service then holding an Easter breakfast. At 9:45 a.m. the big Sunday School rally of the year will be held. The children's department will present a 30-minute Eastern program, following an abbreviated class period.

A goal has been set to break all existing attendance records, according to Arnold Kornstad.

D. D. Randall To Talk At Upper Applegate

Upper Applegate Sunday school will hold its annual Easter services at the Grange hall, beginning with a community breakfast at 8:30 a.m.

The sermon will be given by Rev. D. D. Randall and a visiting minister from the American Sunday school union.

Every one interested is invited. Water from the slopes of Triple Divide Peak, 8,000 feet high, in Glacier National Park, Montana, flows into three oceans—the Pacific, Arctic and Atlantic.

and friendship walk hand in hand

Millions of Americans this month are making it a special point to invite their friends into their churches—as freely and frequently as they ask them to their homes. You'll find that SHARING your faith does something for you, and for your friends as well . . . it grows when it's shared . . . and your friendships grow, too.

Take someone to church this week . . .

you'll both be richer for it
