Four Traditional Meetings To Be Held at St. Mark's

Four traditional services will mark the Easter observance at St. Mark's Episcopal church.

The Sunrise Choral Eucharist at 6:30 a.m. will include Easter music by the senior choir. There will be no preaching at this service.

At 9 a.m. a family choral communion will be held and will include music by St. Marks' girls' choir. The Rev. J. M. B. Gill will preach on "Recognition."

At 11 a.m. a choral communion will be celebrated, with the senior choir again presenting the music, and the Rev. George Bolster, rector of St. Marks, preaching on "Comes the Dawn." This service will be broadcast over station KYJC.

At 4 p.m. the children's Easter Flower service will be held, including the presentation of Mite boxes, and the flowering of the cross. Doug Philips will be in charge of the service, with St. Mark's Choristers, providing the music and with Gail McDuffee at the organ. The rector will deliver a short address.

All children, who are invited to bring their parents, should bring a handful of spring flowers for the decoration of the cross, and will receive a potted plant at the conclusion of the service as a memento of the occasion.

Monday of Easter week is reserved for services with the sick and shut in.

The Choral Euchartist services are traditional with the church.

The 6:30 and 11 a.m. services will open with an organ prelude, "Offertoire de St. Cecile," Batiste, and the processional hymn will be "Welcome Happy Morning." The Introit will be "In the End of the Sabbath," Speaks, with Kenneth B. Teeter as soloist, and following will be the Kyrie Eleison, Gloria Tibi and Laus Tibi, all by Eyre. The hymn will be "The Strife is O'er" and the offertory anthem, "King of Kings" by Simper, with Mrs. H. E. Morris as soloist.

Closing numbers will be Sursum Corda, Sanctus, Benedictus qui venite and Agnus Dei, Eyre; hymn, "At the Lamb's High Feast," Bach; the seven-fold amen, Stainer; recessional hymn, "Jesus Christ Is Risen Today," and postlude, "Hosannah" by Hartmann.

Director of the senior choir is Mrs. Roberta Ward Bebb, the organist is Mrs. Marguerite Conrad and choir mother, Mrs. C. Elwood Hedberg. Singing in the senior choir will be Mesdames George Barnum, C. W. Crary, John S. Day, R. E. Bebb, Edith Garrett, C. O. Larison, A. G. McMillin, H. E. Moris, Ray Baker, Patricia Smith, Fred Morlan, M. E. Sands, Donald Kent, and the Misses Olive Curry and Barbara Williams; Messrs R. W. Frame, C. Elwood Hedberg, Roy Brown, George Bruse, Fred Morlan, Kennth Fykerude, Kenneth William, Douglas Philips, Paul Skinner, Richard Carter, Lloyd Timmons Jr., and Kenneth Teeter. Mrs. Stephen G. Nye directs the girls' choir and Miss Gail McDuffee is organist.

Members of the choir are Misses Carol Bates, Isobel Carr, Carol Coleman, Oscella Ann Caldwell, Anne Gregory, Kathleen Guiley, Gail Gatter, Anne Hart, Alexa Hibbard, Marcia Houghton, Sandra Hubbard, Nancy Hamilton, Marilyn Olson, Alberta Puhl, Suzanne Reichstein, Alicia Robinson, Lynette Sylvia and Evelyn Stafford.

The 9 a.m. service will include the processional hymn, "Jesus Christ Is Risen Today," the anthem, "O Sons and Daughters Let Us Sing," and the recessional, "Come Ye Faithful."

Recovery Expected For Tiny Wanderer

Pendleton —(U.P.)— Attendants in a Pendleton hospital said Friday that three-year-old Keith Parkins is expected to recover after spending Wednesday night in a brush-filled canyon near Ritter, Ore. His condition was listed as critical.

The youngster, son of a Washington state penitentiary guard, wandered away from his grandfather's ranch at Ritter about noon Wednesday.

He was found unconscious on the frozen ground of Skull canyon early Thursday morning by a search party that included his father, Allen O. Parkins. The spot was several miles from the ranch at Ritter.

State Police officer Thomas Taylor of John Day, Ore., said the lad was stiff from cold and exposure when found. He was flown to a hospital here in a private plane.

On The Side

What is love?
'Tis that delightsome transport
We can feel,
Which painters cannot paint,
Nor words reveal,
Nor any art we know of can conceal.
—Paine

Texas is in again with something for California, or even Brooklyn to try to top. Mrs. Betty Calamusa, of Houston, Texas, who is 39 years old, has been married twelve times to ten different men. She gave two of her husbands a second chance. All of her ex-husbands are living and all are said to have a little spark of love still burning for Betty. Maybe I'll try to get in touch with Mrs. Calamusa. She should be a good expert for our Mules & Men department.

Please Note.

Another clever celebrity who lived at 75½ Bedford St., Manhattan, the smallest house in New York City, was Harry Woods, the song writer. He wrote one of my favorite songs, "Side By Side." My girl friend and I used to sing that together when we were first married. Harry also wrote "River, Stay Away From My Door," "When the Red, Red Robin Comes Bobbobin' Along," "When the Moon Comes Over the Mountain" and "Just A Little Street Where Old Friends Meet."

Briefly.

That ancient brain teaser as to "How Old Is Ann?" continues to baffle many amateur mathematicians. The answer is that Ann is 18 years old . . . In 1913, Harry Lauder, the Scotch comic, was being paid $4,000 a week in vaudeville in this country. And no income tax to pay. Harry made a provision in his contract that he be paid weekly in cash with three $1,000 bills, one $500 bill and the rest in smaller bills.

Asides.

How big can a human being grow? So far the largest man known to medical historians was Miles Darden, of Tennessee. Darden was seven feet six inches in height and weighed 871 pounds! . . . Add picturesque street names: Johnnycake Road, Baltimore, Md. . . . It was not "Lefty" O'Doul but O. Henry who first said: "East is east—and west is San Francisco."

Almost Dry.

It is generally believed the mint juleps flow very freely in Kentucky. Fact is, it is almost a dry state. Despite the fact that Kentucky distillers make 40 per cent of the whisky produced in this country eighty-eight of the 120 counties of the Bluegrass State are dry, voted so by local option. Kentucky also has the reputation of being the birthplace of more beautiful women than any other state. That's not so. That honor rightly belongs to Texas.

Sidelights.

At one time Fred Allen, the melancholy comedian, was one of this country's greatest users of tobacco. He smoked fifteen cigars a day and in between chewed tobacco . . . If having long-lived parents is an aid to longevity Mary Garden should be around for some time yet. Her father lived to be 90, her mother to 93. Incidentally, Mary and her folks once lived in Brooklyn, on President street. It was Oliver Herford who said: "Into each life some Brooklyn must fall."

Passing By.

Dorothy Caruso, Widow of Enrico. She was 24 years old when she married the great tenor. He was 45. The marriage, ended by Caruso's death, lasted a little less than four years . . . Osar Levant, Composer, pianist, actor and wit. An extremely superstitious fellow. Refers to thirteen as "that number." Is afraid that if he comes right out and says "thirteen" it will bring him bad luck. Also, if he sees somebody throw a hat on a bed he screams. By the way, what is the origin of the superstition that throwing a hat on a bed brings bad luck?

Bookstores.

Note it stated the third largest bookstore in the United States is in Dallas, Tex. Another one of those interesting but irritating statements. Doesn't mention which are the two largest. I believe Brentano's, New York, is the country's largest bookstore; or am I stuck for another of my hard-earned stogies? Anyway, even if Brentano's isn't the largest, it is my favorite. They let you browse undisturbed in Brentano's. Nobody comes up and says: "Can I help you?"

Solo Competition Festival at Klamath

Klamath Falls — (U.P.) — The annual Southern Oregon District Solo Ensemble Competition festival opens here Friday.

More than 350 music students from southern Oregon high schools will attend the sessions. Judges will include well-known musicians from universities and colleges throughout the Northwest.

Cabbage is "the outstanding vegetable buy" for this month, the U. S. Department of Agriculture reports.

McKenzie Boat Parade Sunday

Eugene — (U.P.) — The McKenzie River Guides' association, sponsor of the annual "White Water Boat Parade" down the river, expects the event to attract more than 100 entries this year.

The 17th annual parade will start down the 18-mile stretch of white water at 10:30 a. m. Sunday. The lightweight plywood boats will be launched at Redsides, three miles above Blue River.

The parade has never produced a major accident though spectators are always treated to spills and upsets, especially at Martin rapids. Thousands of care annually line the highway along the river as the flimsy craft careen through the roaring water.

Lions Will Sponsor Clyde Beatty Circus

The Clyde Beatty circus will appear in Medford on June 10 under the sponsorship of the Medford Lions club, it was announced today by Ed McKeen, Lions' president. Negotiations had been completed between the clubs' board of directors and B. J. Collins, general contracting agent for the circus.

The three-ringed show will include 26 acts, including a personal appearance by Beatty and his famous wild animals. The group will bring an array of trained wild animals assembled from five continents.

The Lions clubs' proceeds will go into their general fund for boys and girls work and their sight conservation program.

THAT'S A LOT OF INSECTS

Knoxville, Tenn.—(U.P.)—Two University of Tennessee graduate students estimate that picnickers hit about 102 insects each time you drop a sandwich. If you select a nice leafy ground to spread your picnic cloth, the chances are you will be covering 14,745 of the little pests, they said.

Immigration to America reached its peak in 1900-1910, when nearly 9,000,000 aliens—more than twice the total United States population in 1790—entered the country.
