

Annual Concert
Musical Society
Arouses Interest

The program chosen by Medford Musical society for its annual spring concert on Tuesday, April 22, is arousing interest among members and friends of the society. The concert, planned for the benefit of the society's scholarship fund, is to be given at the Medford High school auditorium.

Josephine Spaulding, well-known mezzo-soprano of Portland, is one of the artists to be presented. Mrs. Spaulding has appeared in Seattle as soloist for the Ladies' Musical club, has sung for the Washington Athletic club and in Portland with the Portland Symphony orchestra and the Portland Chamber orchestra.

Doris Helen Calkins, said to be one of the Pacific coast's best known harpists and a member of the University of Oregon school of music faculty, is the second artist on the program. Mrs. Calkins has studied harp for many years with Kajetan Attil, solo harpist for the San Francisco Symphony orchestra. She has appeared as soloist with the Orion club of Victoria, B.C., with the Eugene Gleemen and the Salem Symphony orchestra.

A string quartet, composed of Mollie Small Hardin, violin; Constance Elkins, violin; Gwendolyn Lamphire Hayden, viola and Roberta Lathrop, cello, will accompany Mrs. Calkins.

April meeting of the society, originally set for April 14, has been canceled because of a number of conflicting events, it was announced yesterday.

Members of the society selling tickets for the benefit concert are asked to turn the ticket money and extra tickets in to Mrs. Michele Rossi at the Cameo beauty salon not later than the day of the concert.

Hundred Couples
Attend Benefit
At Country Club

Pete, the Easter Seal rabbit, Easter-like floral decorations and a huge rabbit with blinking electric eyes made a pleasant medley and formed the backdrop for the gala Easter Seal benefit dance April 7 at Rogue Valley Country club.

Over 100 couples attended, both to have a good time and to help Oregon's crippled children. The dance was sponsored by Rotana club.

Many of the couples commented on the spring flower arrangements, the work of Mrs. Tom Ginn, president of Medford Garden club. Both the individual and buffet tables were decorated by Mrs. Ginn and the club.

Two Beaux and a Peep, the new orchestra at the country club, provided both music and entertainment for the guests during dancing and the supper hour.

Mrs. John McCann, chairman of the dance, states that employees of the country club donated their services for the evening, and added that everyone involved in the dance plans had been "most cooperative."

All proceeds from the dance will go to the Easter Seal drive according to A. C. Fries Jr., local treasurer for the drive.
