A stated meeting of Roxy Ann court, Order of Amaranth, will be held Thursday, April 17 at 8 p.m. at the Medford Masonic temple. Officers are asked to be present at 6:30 for practice before the meeting.

Children's Show Set for Friday at Methodist Church

Theme of the annual children's spring fashion parade, to be given Friday, April 18, in the recreation room of First Methodist church will be Hawthorne playground park. The show, set for 7 p.m., is sponsored by Circles 6, 7 and 10 of the church.

Setting for the show will be a playground scene and the children will model in groups, pantomiming various scenes. The scenes will include a picnic group, a fishing scene, the sandpile set, a Sunday school scene, both boy and girl baby sitters, a nursemaid skit and a mother-daughter scene.

The planning committee is headed by the chairman of the three circles, Mrs. Charles Liebbrand, Mrs. G. A. Dierdorff and Mrs. Byron Griffith. Mrs. Robert Duncan and Mrs. Arthur Cook are writing the script, and the decorating committee will be Mrs. Jennie Lawless, Mrs. Lyle Schoppert and Mrs. F. K. Waters. Mrs. Horace Doolen is music chairman and Mrs. John Kent is chairman of ticket sales. Admission will be charged, and refreshments served.

Howard PTA Plans Dinner on Friday

Howard Parent-Teacher association will hold the annual dinner in the school cafeteria Friday, April 18, from 6 to 7:15 p.m. A complete ham dinner will be prepared by the school cooks and served at a nominal charge.

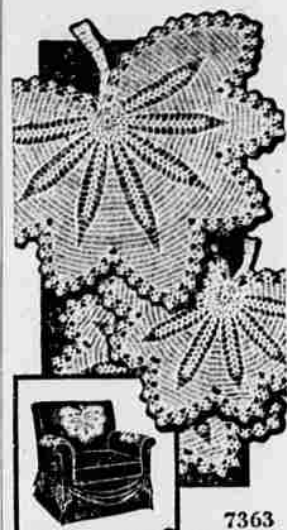

In conjunction with the dinner, open house will be held in all classrooms and Mr. Root's music group will present the spring festival in the gymnasium. All parents are cordially invited to attend all events.

Phoenix Lodge Plans Meeting at Parkers

Phoenix—Neighbors of Woodcraft of Phoenix will meet Thursday, April 17 at 8 p.m. at the home of Chester Parker, Highway 99 north. A social evening, with games for entertainment is planned.

Hostesses will be Mrs. Parker and Mrs. Mark Hackney.

Benefit Concert Of Music Society To Include Quartet

Adding to the program to be given by Medford Musical society April 22 will be a string quartet from Eugene. The quartet will play with Doris Helen Calkins, harpist, one of two featured soloists for the evening.

Members of the quartet are Mollie Small Hardin and Constance Elkins, violinists; Gwendolen Lamphire Hayden, viola, and Roberta Lathrop, cellist.

All four are said to be accomplished musicians and in addition Mrs. Hayden is an author. Her children's books, a series of "Really Truly" stories, are well known and she recently published a book for adults, "From Football Field to Mission Field."

The quartet has made many appearances with Mrs. Calkins, considered one of the coast's finest harp players.

The second artist on the program is Josephine Spaulding, mezzo-soprano, Portland.

Proceeds from the concert, which will be given at Medford Senior High school auditorium, will be used for the society's scholarship fund.

Bethel Delegation To Attend Session Of Grand Council

A large delegation of members from Medford Bethel, Job's Daughters, will leave Thursday for Roseburg to attend Oregon's 28th annual grand guardian council meeting to be held there April 17, 18, and 19.

Among those attending will be Miss Kay Durno, queen; Miss Johneva Pond, senior princess; Miss Shirley Johnson, Junior princess; Miss Sandra Hubbard, guide; Miss Caroline Coleman, past queen; and Misses Roberta Manning, Meredith Turner, Florence Stacey, Joyce Adams and Dallas Mae Barnard.

Others attending will be Mrs. V. A. Turpin, guardian of the Bethel; L. R. Manning, associate guardian; Mrs. LaVern Johnson, Mrs. V. M. Califf, Mrs. Lloyd Caton, Mrs. Martin Newman and Mrs. Oie Skoog.

No meeting will be held by the Medford Bethel tonight, it was announced.

Medford Couple Home After Stay in Salem; Attend Group Reunion

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Brainerd have returned to their home on East Main street after spending a week in Portland and Salem. After spending the early part of the week in Portland, the Brainerds returned to Salem where they were guests of Mrs. Brainerd's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Swartsley, and her mother, Mrs. R. W. Swartsley.

While in Salem they attended a reunion of a group of north-west residents who made a tour of the Hawaiian islands in January. The group first assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Max Rogers and then later were at the American Legion club for dinner. After dinner the group went to the home of Dr. and Mrs. A. D. Woodmansee where Mr. Brainerd and Dr. Woodmansee showed pictures which they took on the tour.

Chairman Prepares Special Program For May Luncheon

For the annual May Fellowship luncheon, sponsored by Medford Council of Church Women, a program of special interest is being prepared by a committee under the leadership of Mrs. Owen Kunkel, chairman.

Theme for the day is "Spiritual Security For Today's Families" and the program will emphasize the importance of proper child development with great stress being made regarding Christian influence in the home. Mrs. Kirkland West will be the afternoon's speaker.

Luncheon will be served in the dining room of First Presbyterian church at 12:30 p.m., Friday, May 2, with hostesses from the several affiliated churches assisting at the tables.

Since the Council May Fellowship luncheon is an outstanding event each year, it is anticipated that the attendance will be very large and those planning to attend are being reminded to secure tickets from presidents of church women's organizations at an early date.

Mrs. Ivan Gay has been chosen to arrange and prepare the programs for the luncheon and Mrs. Lyle Sams will supervise table arrangements.

Filters employing porous stainless steel as the filter medium can now be had for special clarifying problems. Pore openings in the stainless steel vary from 20 to 65 microns.
