Mrs. Christine Gobersen was 100 years old Friday, April 11. She celebrated the momentous occasion by receiving calls from relatives and friends and having her picture made with her birthday cake and some of the flowers which were part of her gifts. Mrs. Gobersen, who has lived in Medford five years, makes her home with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Miller, 217 Vancouver avenue. A native of Schleswig Holstein province in Germany, Mrs. Gobersen came to this country in 1881 and for many years the family lived at Humphrey, Neb. Of her nine children, three daughters and two sons are still living and in addition Mrs. Gobersen has 18 grandchildren, 38 great-grandchildren and 2 great-great-grandchildren. —(Brainerd photo)

Wagner Creek Club Plans Benefit Event

Talent—Plans for the Spanish dinner to be given by the Wagner Creek Community club have been completed. It will be held Tuesday, April 22, in the schoolhouse on Wagner creek road, beginning at 6:30 p.m.

Tickets are being sold all this week by all club members. Betty Hopper has tickets available for high school students, and Beverly Mild for grade school, Phoenix.

Young people are to provide dinner hour entertainment, and following dinner a feature film, travelogue and comedy will be shown through courtesy of Conger-Morris, Medford.

Mrs. Roscoe Talbott, dinner chairman, states that the ticket prices are so low entire families will be able to attend, and she asks that reservations be made by Saturday, April 19, if possible.

RNA Cancels Party Planned for Tonight

Royal Neighbor lodge announces that the box social scheduled for today has been canceled. However, the regular lodge meeting will be held beginning at 8 p.m.

The lodge meets at the Pythian building on North Grape street.

Phoenix Plans Annual Ball In Honor of Candidates

Phoenix—First of the many events which will precede the fourth annual Phoenix Club Festival will be held Friday, April 18, in Phoenix Community clubhouse. This will be the annual Princess ball in honor of the festival queen candidates.

Candidates this year are five high school girls. They are Miss Betty Hendrickson, sponsored by Phoenix Parent-Teacher association; Miss Betty Hopper, sponsored by Phoenix Youth club; Miss Mary Kay White, Phoenix Lions' club; Miss Leota Perry, sponsored by Phoenix Grange, and Miss Kay Fisher, candidates of Phoenix Thursday club.

Mayor E. R. Clafin will give an address of welcome, and the candidates will be introduced. The Belle Van Dyke trio will provide modern music for dancing from 9 p.m. until 1 a.m.

Curt Fisher, coordinator of the 1952 festival, states that the annual ball provides everyone an opportunity to meet the candidates, and the admission tickets will entitle the holder to vote for the candidate of their choice. Refreshments for the ball will be served by sponsors of the candidates.

Mr. Fisher states that festival plans are making excellent progress, and that all participating clubs are enthusiastic in their support.

Demonstration Given For Gold Hill Women; Unit Elects Officers

Gold Hill—"Making Buttons, Belts and Buckles" was the project demonstrated at a meeting of Gold Hill Home Extension unit Friday at the community club room in the Odd Fellows building. Mrs. Lester Thompson and Mrs. Hannah Routh presented the lesson.

Buttons made from small bone rings covered with dress material, corded buttonholes and Chinese buttons made from cord covered with material and knotted, were some of the newest ideas in dress fastenings. The leaders also showed methods of lining and stitching belts so that they will not wrinkle, and several designs of buckles.

Officers were elected for the coming year. Mrs. Cecil Johnson was chosen as president, succeeding Mrs. Thomas Davis; Mrs. Lester Parker, vice-chairman; Mrs. George Dorman, secretary; and Mrs. Lester Thompson, treasurer. These will be installed at the May meeting.

Members voted on projects they would like to have included in next year's program. It was announced that the Homemakers Festival will be held May 7 at the Central Point Grange hall.

A potluck luncheon was served at noon. The next meeting was scheduled for May 9, at the clubroom. The project will be "Streamlining Your Housework," presented by Miss Eula Wintermote, county extension agent.

Prospect Auxiliary Plans Annual Party

Prospect—Plans for an annual party were made at a meeting of the auxiliary of Prospect Lion's club held recently at Beckie's Cafe, Union Creek.

Following dinner, the president, Mrs. Roscoe Larson, conducted a business meeting.

The annual party will be held April 19 with members of the Lions club to be honored. "Hard Times," will be the theme of the party.

Plans were made to assist the Prospect Health unit with a food sale April 23, and to assist the Lion's club with the turkey shoot. A movie will be sponsored by the auxiliary April 17 at the Community club.
