

3-Day Southern Zone Shoot Will Start Here on Friday

A Pacific International Trap-shooting association registered southern zone shoot will open at the Medford Gun club on Friday and will continue through Sunday.

It will be the biggest event of the year at the Medford grounds. Members of the club are hoping that entries will build up to 100 by the final day. Shooters are expected from throughout Oregon and northern California and possibly from Washington.

A total of 82 trophies will be awarded. They include awards for high over all on the 700 targets for the three days, to the oldest participating shooter and for the longest straight run. Old-timers are to register their ages. Practice traps will open at the grounds at 8 a. m. each day with competition to open shortly thereafter.

A pair of 16-yard events are scheduled for Friday. Participants will shoot at 100 targets in the morning and 100 in the afternoon. In addition there will be a 25-pair doubles match. For the 16-yard competition there will be trophies in each class to the winner and runner-up on the day's total of 200 targets.

Handicap shooting is on the slate Saturday, 100 targets in the morning and 100 in the afternoon with nine trophies in each event.

A 16-yard shoot is set for Sunday morning. Awards will include trophies for the high lady and high junior. The afternoon handicap will include a buddy shoot. A 25-pair doubles match will conclude the tournament.

Meals, including breakfast, will be served on the grounds.

Fruit Growers Receive Plaque

A plaque was presented to the Fruit Growers team last night at a special meeting of volleyball players in the Medford YMCA league.

Members of the crew, playing together for the first time, won the title in the eight-team loop.

The volleyball group decided to make every Wednesday night one of fun and competition at the Y with two informal rounds of two-out-of-three games. One round will start at 7 p. m. and the other at 8:15 p. m. Those interested in playing are asked to contact Donald Day, Y physical director.

Members of the Fruit Growers team were Captain Jim Corwin, Milton Hansen, Les Cory, John Wheeler, Dr. Bernard Thompson, Louis A. Corwin and Clair Wyant. Competition was reported exceptionally keen this year.

Tornado Encounters Cavemen on Friday

Black Tornado baseballers engage in their second District No. 6 A1 scramble on Friday when they take on Grants Pass high on the Medford field. Game time is 3 p. m. There will be an admission charge.

The Medford prepsters have beaten Grants Pass twice in frays that did not count in district standings. However, the Tornado will be faced with a bit different situation this time. John Harbour is expected to pitch for the Cavemen.

Harbour has not faced Tornado batters this year. Grants Pass apparently is judiciously saving its ace for the scuffles that count. The Medfordites are expecting a tougher time of it than in the previous meetings.

Wooten To Pitch
Medford won the initial practice mix with Grants Pass 9 to 1. The Cavemen were lashed 12 to 0 in the second meeting as the veteran Terry Maddox tossed a no-hit, no-run game. Derald Wooten and Lloyd Hart were pitchers in the first tussle. Derald Wooten is the likely choice of Coach Alex McDonald as chucker this time.

The district race this year appears a scrap between Medford and Grants Pass. Each has beaten Klamath Falls. The three are the only schools in this A-1 district. Each plays only two district frays with each other school.

Ned May Pinch Hit
McDonald said that Ned Landers will not be able to play Friday except possibly as a pinch-hitter. The Medford first baseman suffered a spike wound in the Crater high mix on Tuesday. Terry Sherwood is scheduled to take over first base duties with a choice lying among three youths to fill Sherwood's regular left field spot. The three are Lloyd Hart, Tom Rodgers and Dick Atterbury.

It is hoped that Landers will be able to play at Grants Pass next Wednesday.

Softballers May Meet Next Week

Those interested in formation of a summer softball league in Medford were reminded today to contact either Ray Lewis at Pierce Freight lines or Dick Jewett at The Mail Tribune.

It is planned to call a meeting some time next week on formation of a league but it is desired to get some idea beforehand on the number of teams that might participate.

A suggestion has been made that men interested in playing see what they can do to line up sponsors.

So far, the National Guard has said that they want to field a team, the YMCA has reported that it might organize two teams. There is at least one business in town that has indicated interest. Fred Sears, physical education chairman for the YMCA, has offered the Y facilities as a clearing house for loop organization.

Day and time of the contemplated meeting are yet to be announced.

Rookie's Homer Wins Fray For Cleveland

Chicago —(U.P.)— "I was just aiming for a plain old single. I never expected anything like that," said rookie Jim Fridley who his first major league hit, a homer into the left field stands, gave the Cleveland Indians a 1 to 0 victory over the Chicago White Sox.

"It was a fast ball, about letter high and just a little outside," the big left fielder explained.

Fridley's big blow, the realization of every rookie's dream, gave pitcher Bob Lemon his first win of the season Wednesday in a pitching duel with veteran Joe Dobson.

Dobson handed out only four hits but one of them was the telling pitch to Fridley.

Giants Happy
Bob Elliott, the blond blaster from California, made Giant fans happier than they have been at any time since Bobby Thomson hit his historic pennant-winning homer against the Dodgers.

The 35-year-old Elliott was obtained from the Boston Braves just last week in a desperation deal to dispel the gloom cast over the defending National leaguers by Monte Irvin's broken ankle.

Belting Bob really filled Irvin's old cleanup spot in his Giant debut in Wednesday night's season opener against the Phillies — smashing two home runs to give pitcher Sal Maglie exactly the margin he needed for a fine, four-hit, 5 to 3 victory on which Maglie struck out eight batters.

Flying Start
The Elliott-Maglie combination enabled the pennant-defending Giants to get off to a flying start, in another day in which top-flight pitching highlighted the program. Maglie, Vic Raschi of the Yankees, Tommy Byrne of the Browns, and Cliff Chambers of the Cardinals cashed in on "hexes" to record well earned triumphs.

Raschi, pitched two-hit ball over the Athletics, before going out in the ninth to beat them 8 to 1.

Byrne's seven-hitter over Detroit was his 13th win against five losses over his favorite opponents, while Chambers topped his old mates, the Pirates, 6 to 5, yielding only two tallies before going out for a pinchhitter.

Pitching Forgotten

In other games in which pitching stood out Julie Moreno at Washington topped the Red Sox 4 to 3, in 11 innings. The Dodgers and Braves forgot all about pitching in a wooden wedding in Boston in which Brooklyn made 20 hits to win 14 to 8. The Reds and Cubs had an open date.

The Browns came from behind to tie the Tigers at 3-3 with three runs in the seventh, then went on to win when Tom Wright singled, rookie George Schmees tripled and Hank Arft doubled for two more runs in the eighth.

The Cardinals made it two straight over Pittsburgh by putting on a five-run rally in the seventh, including a two-run homer by Stan Musial.

BEAR CATS WIN
Salen—(U.P.)—Willamette university's Bearcats were a definite title threat in the Northwest conference baseball chase Thursday after downing Coach Roy Helsler's defending titleholders from Linfield, 7 to 3.

Soap and water, applied with a stiff brush, will remove ordinary dirt from asbestos shingles.

Solons Nab 6th Straight PCL Victory

San Francisco —(U.P.)— It's about time someone suggested giving the Sacramento Solons a saliva test.

After an unbelievably-hapless start, during which Manager Joe Gordon's group lost seven of its first eight airings, the Sacs have ceased to be so sad and currently are gliding on a win streak of six.

No one has yet suggested the Gordon-Guided Solons are a pennant threat. But perhaps Sacramento is not so bad as it appeared during the terrible opening week against Los Angeles. Needed Help

Eccentric Chester Johnson, the losingest pitcher in the PCL last season, needed help last night in the ninth inning but got credit for twirling Sacramento to a 5-4 decision over Hollywood. Joe Glynn and Gordon's single batted home all the runs the Sacs needed.

Elsewhere, Los Angeles clung to its half-game league lead with a 5-3 victory over Seattle, and San Diego squared its "feud" series with San Francisco, downing the Seals in a wild contest, 9-5. Oakland and Portland were not scheduled.

Plans Abandoned For Local Nine In Valley Loop

Plans for a semi-professional team representing Medford in the Rogue Valley Baseball league have been abandoned and young men from Medford desiring to participate in the circuit possibly will play for a Camp White team, it was learned following a loop meeting Tuesday at Central Point.

Original plans of the league have been revised to provide for an eight-team circuit. Ten teams had been hoped for.

Entries in the loop as seen now will be Cave Junction, Glendale, Grants Pass, Central Point, Prospect, Butte Falls, Camp White and Ashland. Grants Pass is a new member. Rogue River and Eagle Point will not field clubs as earlier expected.

May 11 Opening
Eagle Point players have previously formed the home team for veterans domiciliary as Camp White.

May 11 has been set for the opening of home and home league play. A shagnessy play-off will follow the regular schedule with the play-off winner to be league champ. It was voted to present trophies to the top hitter and top batter of the league.

HOME STRETCH—White Sox second baseman Nelson Fox kicks up his heels as he scurries past Cubs catcher Toby Atwell while outrunning Cubs third baseman Ransom Jackson during first city series game in Chicago. Fox scored on double steal. Sox won, 10-8.

MacArthur Name Out of Contest

Laurel, Md.—(U.P.)—At his own request, Gen. Douglas MacArthur's name was scratched from the Presidential Sweepstakes, a special race to be run for charity at Laurel Thursday.

Ten stable ponies, named after presidential candidates, are to run in a special non-betting race but MacArthur asked his name be withdrawn because he is not seeking a presidential nomination.

"Very much in favor of the charity," the general wired Joseph Cascarella, Laurel secretary-treasurer, "but not being a presidential candidate, would prefer to have my name scratched from the presidential sweepstakes at Laurel race course."

Other entries are Eisenhower, "Truman's Choice," Stassen, Warren, Kerr, Kefauver, Taft, Russell and "Dark Horse."
