Miss Claire Cross, Medford, is in charge of the usherette group which has offered its services. Girls participating include Misses Bettie White and Alverna Gillispie, Medford.

Society Announces Program Numbers For Coming Concert

Program numbers to be given for the Medford Musical society's concert Tuesday evening have been announced. The society, as its annual scholarship project, will present Josephine Spaulding, Portland, mezzo-soprano; Doris Helen Calkins, harpist from Eugene, assisted by a string quartet composed of Mollie Small Hardin, Constance Elkins, Gwendolen Lampshire Hayden and Roberta Lathrop, accompanied by Lucile Schramm.

The concert will be at Medford Senior High school and is set for 8 p.m.

Mrs. Calkins will open the program with "Andante" by Tedeschi; "Aeolian Harp" by Hasselmanns and the harp solo from "Lucia di Lammermoor" by Donizetti.

Mrs. Spaulding's first group of numbers will be "Art Thou Troubled?" from the opera, "Rodelinda" by Handel; "Danza, Danza Fanciulla" by Durante and "Tu Lo Sai" by Torelli.

Mrs. Calkins and the quartet will play the allegro risoluto movement of "Concerto in C Minor" by Renie, followed by Mrs. Spaulding singing "Il est Doux, Il est Bon" from the opera "Herodiade" by Massenet.

Following intermission Mrs. Calkins and the quartet will play a three-part sea chanty by Paul White. To close the concert Mrs. Spaulding will sing a group of numbers, accompanied by Mrs. Calkins at the harp.

Included in this group will be "Pauline's Romance" from the opera "Pique Dame" by Tschalkowsky; "Lilacs" by Rachmaninoff; "Sylvain" by Sinding; Schubert's "Ave Maria" and two numbers of John Jacob Niles, "The Blue Madonna" and "I Wonder as I Wander."

The closing number will be "The Time for Making Songs Has Come" by James Rogers. Tickets for the concert are on sale at Pruitt's and Purucker's music shops and at the Cameo Beauty salon.

Butte Falls Women Plan Flower Show; Speaker Presented

Butte Falls — In preparation for the Butte Falls Garden club flower show set for May 20, club members were given an instructive demonstration on flower show arrangements by Mrs. Louis G. Gentner at a meeting of the club last week. Mrs. Gentner, a member of the Medford Garden club, constructed three arrangements during her talk and displayed others which she had made before the meeting.

Further plans for the flower show also were made. A variety of plants were exchanged by members.

The club voted to donate $5 toward the purchase of linoleum for the Brown church class room.

A workday in the Butte Falls city park will be held April 22 at 10 a.m. and anyone in the community interested in helping on the flower beds in the park is asked to be there.

The club will prepare a card table size exhibit for the Eagle Point flower show April 24.

Visitors at the meeting were Mrs. Roy Green, Mrs. Everett Moore and Mrs. John Collins.

Wimberlys Hosts For Supper Party On Opening Night

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wimberly Jr. were hosts last Monday evening for a pre-theater party, inviting a group of friends to their home, 30 Barneburg road. Following cocktails and supper, the troupe went to Ashland for the opening night performance of "Arsenic and Old Lace" by the Vining Repertory company.

The event was given to stimulate interest in the spring season of the Vining company, and a second is planned for Tuesday evening. Forty guests were invited for the first party, and 40 will be included for the coming event.
