

Roosevelt Honored By 200 Democrats At Saturday Dinner

"Franklin Roosevelt's greatness lay not so much in what he gave as what he inspired in others. His force was more spiritual than physical and it was world wide. He had the unique ability to give the common man everywhere faith in himself. And the heritage he left was a blueprint for world peace—the lesson that along with liberty and equality there must be true fraternity."

This was the message delivered by David C. Shaw, Gold Beach attorney, who gave the Roosevelt Memorial dinner address at the Medford hotel Saturday evening.

Also speaking at the dinner, which was attended by close to 200 local and upstate Democrats and some Republicans, were Dr. Arthur Kreisman of Southern Oregon college who spoke for Sen. Estes Kefauver, and Pete Soderlund, SOC student debater and recent mock UN assembly delegate who spoke for Gov. Adlai Stevenson.

Other Speakers
Candidates who gave brief talks were Francis Lambert who seeks the nomination for state treasurer; Dr. Louis Wood, one of the two seeking the Democratic nomination for the Fourth district congressional seat; Monroe Sweetland, present Democratic National committeeman, and Mike DeCicco, rivals for the head party post; Mrs. Margaret Cawood, one of the two running for Democratic National committeewoman, all of Portland, and Lee Chance, Granis Pass, running for district delegate to the Democratic National convention.

Local candidates attending were Lloyd Whitney and Charles Hockersmith, rivals for nomination as county commissioner, and Ralph Sweeney, seeking reelection as county treasurer. Andy Hawver, candidate for nomination as county assessor, unable to attend, was represented by Dr. Kreisman.

Taft Begins Drive For Home State Votes

Ashtabula, O. — (U.P.) — Sen. Robert A. Taft opened his home state drive Monday for all 56 delegates to the Republican national convention in the May 6 primary by continuing his attack on President Truman's seizure of the steel industry.

Starting a 14-hour whirlwind drive through industrial Northern Ohio, Taft told audiences in Warren, Youngstown and here that "under the Truman conception of seizure, the President, to stop a strike, could seize all union offices and all union funds."

Thousands View Cherry Blossoms Near Salem

Salem — (U.P.) — The day couldn't have been better for the occasion if the Salem Chamber of Commerce and the Cherrians, Salem booster group, had ordered it.

Sunday—38th annual blossom day in Salem—was bright and clear, and the blossoms were at their fullest in the Marion and Polk county areas listed on the route of travel.

Thousands of visitors from all parts of Oregon and from some other states came to Salem for the event and followed the blossom route bumper-to-bumper.

Accused Murderess Fails Suicide Try

Portland—(U.P.)—Mrs. Zada Z. Kader, accused of killing her three-year-old daughter, Sherrie, and throwing her body into a sump pit last January, failed in a suicide attempt Sunday night, the sheriff's office reported.

Officers said Mrs. Kader was found in the bathroom of the county jail with a cord from her bathrobe around her neck and scratches on her wrist. Sheriff Terry Schunk said Mrs. Kader had used a broken razor blade to slash her wrist but that the wound bled only slightly.

Mrs. Kader, 21, had written a long note maintaining her innocence and accusing law enforcement officials and newspapers of persecuting her.

She is awaiting trial for first degree murder.

Britain's New Jet Transport Tested

London—(U.P.)—Britain's four-jet passenger airliner, the "Comet," flew from London to Rome Monday in two hours and 17 minutes on its last test flight before opening the jet passenger air transport age May 2.

The British Overseas Airways plane arrived at Ciampino Airport at 11:05 a.m. and was scheduled to make the return flight to London later in the day.

On May 2 the 480-mile-an-hour jet craft will leave London Airport on a 6,274-mile flight to Johannesburg, carrying a full payload of 36 passengers. It will be the first regularly scheduled jet passenger flight.

Portland — (U.P.) — Lovely 17-year-old Pat Morud, of Grant high school, Monday was named Portland's first Rose Festival princess for 1952.
