Obituary

ARCH M. MASTERTON
Funeral services for Arch M. Masterton, Medford realtor, 1300 Queen Anne avenue, will be conducted at 2 p.m. Wednesday, at the Steen funeral home, Magnolia boulevard, in North Hollywood, Calif. Interment will be made in the cemetery at Inglewood, Calif.

Mr. Masterton, the son of Joseph and Elda Masterton, was born in Auburn, Ill., on July 17, 1897. He was a veteran of World War I and after discharge was employed by the Lockheed aviation company. After the outbreak of hostilities in World War II he was sent to England in 1939 where he worked for seven years supervising unloading, assembly, and distribution of American aircraft to the allied forces. In March of 1942 he was married to Edith Smedley at Liverpool, England.
He came to Medford in 1947 where he became associated as a partner with Carl R. Beebe in the Medford Realty company. He died Sunday in a North Hollywood hospital.
Survivors besides his wife, Edith, include two small daughters, Pamela and Gail; and two brothers, Henry, of Chicago, Ill., and Herbert J., 1001 Lozier lane, Medford.

RICHARD JACOBSON
Richard Jacobson, 62, a veteran of World War I, died Monday at Camp White VA domiciliary center. Conger-Morris funeral home is in charge of arrangements.

MRS. NANCY ROBERTS

Mrs. Roberts was born April 21, 1865, in Laeade county, Missouri. On Oct. 29, 1885, she was married to John E. Roberts, who died April 8, 1946. She had lived in southern Oregon for 53 years, and had been a member of the Presbyterian church 42 years.
She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Lula Rusko, Phoenix; a brother, Emil E. Houston, Hood River; and several nephews and nieces.

CARL BARNEY
Carl Cyril Barney, 30, a Medford resident for the past six years, died Monday at Roseburg after a brief illness. Funeral services will be held at Perl funeral home Wednesday at 9:30 a.m. with Ashland Elks Lodge No. 994 in charge and at the Interdenominational church, Happy Camp, Calif., at 4 p.m. Wednesday. Interment will be in Happy Camp cemetery.
Mr. Barney was born March 27, 1922, at Happy Camp and resided here at 837 Pennsylvania avenue. He was employed by the California Oregon Power company as a journeyman lineman and was on a special construction crew.

The deceased was a member of the Ashland Elks lodge, the Interdenominational church at Happy Camp and of IBW 659, Medford. As an army sergeant during World War II, Mr. Barney served in the Normandy, northern France, Rhineland and central Europe campaigns.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Helen Barney, Medford; his mother, Mrs. Anna Barney, Happy Camp; five brothers, Emory, U. S. Army, San Antonio, Tex.; Melvin, Mt. Shasta, Calif.; Elder, Roseburg; Jewell, Medford; and Walter, Happy Camp; and three sisters, Mrs. Sherwood Ross, San Francisco, Calif., and Mrs. Sara Nesbitt and Miss Ada Barney, Happy Camp.
Honorary pallbearers will be E. R. Robinson, J. P. Dunphy, J. L. Allen, J. T. Delsman, R. E. Rians and R. J. Heidenreich. Active pallbearers will include L. B. Platko, C. Rutter, M. E. Cooley, F. J. Augustynowicz and L. E. Campbell.

It Costs Less Than You Think To Own America's Most Exciting Car

TAKE ANOTHER LOOK at that low price at the right! You probably didn't realize you could buy a car of Packard's famous quality and outstanding beauty for so little money.

- By greater margins than ever, Packard today costs less for what you get than any other car! Packard value means big-car performance and comfort at medium-car cost—in America's most exciting new motor car!
- This beautiful new Packard welcomes your entrance through extra-wide doors. Handsome interiors provide ample room to lounge at ease. Seats are as wide as the car is high. Packard's safety-glass area of 3046 square inches gives you all-around visibility for added motoring enjoyment and protection.

••• Only Packard gives you the smoothness of Ultramatic*, the automatic drive that excels all others, plus the brilliant performance of the world's highest-compression eight. Packard's beautiful, sound-insulated bodies are cushion-mounted, armor-ribbed and equipped with husky, direct-acting shock absorbers to give you America's most comfortable ride. And fast-acting Easomatic Power Brakes* afford you smoother, easier stops with 40% less foot pressure!

••• Look at one more car. If you're going to spend $2500 for a car, then today's new Packard, at just a few dollars more, is well within your reach. Packard costs less to buy than you probably thought, and the record over the years proves it costs less to own, for "Built like a Packard" means built to last!

the world's highest-compression eight—with up to 25% fewer working parts than in engines of comparable power!
••• Every Packard car undergoes 4,287 separate inspections before it leaves the factory. "Built like a Packard" means built to last!

••• Handsome new interiors and fresh exterior color combinations accent Packard's smart beauty.
••• You get the world's most luxurious ride in Packard's all-steel safety body, which is cushioned at all 18 mounting points. Seats are as wide as the car is high!
