Bridge Tournament Planned by Club Sunday at Hotel

Medford Duplicate Bridge club is planning the annual open pair tournament. It will be held Sunday, April 27, at the Medford hotel.

First session will begin at 1 p.m. and the evening session at 7:30 p.m. All bridge players are cordially invited to participate.

Mrs. Frank Baker and Roy Pruitt are the defending champions.

Family Returns From Trip South

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rae, 819 Bennett street, have just returned from a two-week's visit at the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Casperson of Visalia, Calif.

Mr. Casperson is connected with the California Youth authority and has recently been transferred there from Redding. The Caspersons have a son, Carl Gene, who is five years old.

While at Visalia the family drove to Bakersfield to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Herb Edwards and daughter, Karen, who formerly lived in Medford.

To Initiate

Central Point—Initiation will be held by Central Point Bethel, Job's Daughters, when the group meets Thursday, April 24, at 7:30 p.m. in Central Point Masonic temple. Members are to wear formal gowns.

Officers are asked to arrive at the temple at 7 p.m.

Next Convention Of Oregon PTA Set For Medford

The 1953 convention of Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers will convene in Medford, according to an announcement made Friday during a meeting of the Washington PTA.

After a short business meeting a description of the recent Pendleton convention was given by Mrs. Fred Underwood, president, and Mrs. Norman Burke, vice-president, delegates to the 1952 convention. The discussion was moderated by Mrs. John Pletsch.

Date of the coming convention has been set tentatively between April 14 and 30.

Refreshments for the Friday meeting were served by mothers of first grade children.

Name Contest Winners For Rogue River Club; Announce Flower Show

Rogue River—Names of essay winners were announced at the last meeting of Rogue River Garden club by Bill Reeder, one of the judges. Winners were Mrs. Ruby Hughes, first; Mrs. Betty Carroll, second; Mrs. Florence Desselte and Mrs. Emmy Lapham, tie for third.

The garden convention at Central Point May 1 was announced, and four members plan to attend. An invitation was read from Eagle Point Garden club for a flower show April 24.

Rogue River Garden club members are to meet April 29 at the home of Mrs. Harry Rose at 2 p.m. to make convention favors, and various members were appointed to a committee to meet with each organization of the city concerning entries in the flower show May 3. The show committees appointed by Mrs. Marie Tenny, chairman, were scheduled to meet April 22 in the home of Mrs. Carroll to complete plans for the show.

Designed For Use

Special guests included Dr. Eleanor Gutman and Miss Louene Burch of Portland. Dr. Gutman, a member of the Oregon State Board of Health, is director and Miss Burch a consultant of the board's program for health and vision conservation.

Proposed changes in the state federation's constitution and plans for attendance at conferences in Boston and at Klamath Falls were discussed during a short business meeting, over which Mrs. Bertha Pree presided.

Sams Valley Women To Mark Mothers' Day

Sams Valley — Plans for observing Mothers' day were made by Sams Valley Ladies club members when they met last week in the home of Mrs. Harry Musson. Thirteen members and one guest attended.

Committee reports were given and Mrs. Wesley McDonough had charge of the games. Mrs. Arnold Gosnell won a prize.

The Mothers' day observance will be held during the next meeting of the group and each woman attending is to take a bouquet from her garden for her secret pal.

Refreshments were served by the hostess at the recent meeting.

West Side School's Hobby Show Friday

The pupils of the West Side School will hold their annual hobby show Friday, April 25, at 7:30 p.m. in the school gymnasium.

A group from the Eve Prentice Accordion band will present a program.

Refreshments will be sold to raise money for the Student Body association. A small admittance fee will be charged at the door.

Mrs. Florence Lance

Business Women Name New Officers At Last Meeting

Election of new officers and initiation of new members highlighted the dinner Thursday evening, April 17, of Medford Business and Professional Women's club. Mrs. Florence Lance was unanimously elected president of the club for the year 1952-53, with Mesdames Bertha McKinnon and Alberta Rossi first and second vice-presidents.

Mrs. Patricia Beebe will serve the club as treasurer, Mesdames Helen Apple and Inez Friel as recording and corresponding secretaries, respectively. Mrs. Alma McIntyre was elected director, Mrs. Doris Naslund, auditor, and Miss Dana Platz, program coordinator for the new club year.

New members initiated in the traditional ceremony were Betty Flannery and Ann Brewerton. The ceremony was conducted by Miss Frances McNeil, with members of the emblem and membership committees assisting. These committees, headed by Miss Lucille Lenox and Mrs. Alberta Rossi, were in charge of all arrangements for the dinner, which was held at the Ashland Elks' club. Table decorations were arranged by Mrs. Alma McIntyre.

Lesson on Housework Presented Wednesday For Central Point Unit

Central Point—Central Point Home Extension Unit held the April meeting at the home of Mrs. Harry De Vore last Wednesday. The project for the day, "Streamlining Housework," was presented by Miss Eula Wintermote, county agent.

Miss Wintermote showed slides which pointed out ways of saving energy in doing every day chores. Correct posture and balance was stressed as a way to prevent muscular fatigue. A series of short rest periods rather than one long one helps the homemaker through the day with less fatigue, it was brought out.

Mrs. Lester Gilman and Mrs. Wolfe gave a demonstration on home nursing and recruited several members for a series of six lessons, to be given by Mrs. Wolfe, at the city council chambers in the city hall of Medford.

Pennies for friendship were collected by Mrs. J. M. Wiedman, chairman of Associated Country Women of the World.

Mrs. Paul Snook, 4-H leader, presented a style show, with six of her students modeling dresses they had made.

Twenty-eight members and two guests, Mrs. Fay Caster, and Miss Bobbie Cooper, were present.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Gaston Floux, with Mrs. Arthur Straus and Mrs. L. Wertz presenting the lesson "Making Buttons, Belts and Buckles."

Eagle Point Classes Present Style Show, Mother-Daughter Tea

Eagle Point—The home economics class of Eagle Point High school recently presented "The Old Woman in the Shoe," a spring style review in the high school gymnasium.

The stage setting represented the shoe and a spring landscape. The "old woman" was played by Alice Wilson and her "children" were members of the home economics class who modeled the clothing which they have completed this year.

Cottons were most prominent in the display with a number of sun-street dresses with brief jackets. Most of these followed the full skirt and snug bodice of the junior styles this spring.

A number of skirts and blouses for school were modeled. Most of the blouses in this group were white and sleeveless, while the skirts followed the gathered and circular line.

Several date dresses were shown, mostly with white accessories. A group of pedal pusher and jacket ensembles, made of sport denim, were in the show. Two formal gowns, both of blue taffeta, were modeled.

The stage setting was executed by C. P. Henderson and members of the high school student body. Director of the review was Mrs. Don Geren who also described each number as it was presented. Others contributing to the program were Colleen Arthur, pianist, and Dixie Hinks, programs.

A mother-daughter tea was served following the show by members of the sophomore class.

Gold Hill Budgeteers Will Meet Thursday

Gold Hill—The citizens' budget committee of Gold Hill will meet with the Gold Hill city council Thursday at 8 p.m. in the city hall to go over departmental requests for the next fiscal year, according to Ferd W. Jones, recorder.

Members of the committee that will meet with the council, according to Jones, are Ray Davis, Angus Todd, Paul Thompson, Wilbur Martin, Merritt Davis and Ralph Bell. Harry Smith has been appointed alternate.
