

In the Day's News

By FRANK JENKINS
 Interesting — possibly quite significant — news:
 At his press conference in Washington Thursday, President Truman was asked this question: "If it is proper to seize the steel mills, can you, in your opinion, SEIZE THE NEWSPAPERS AND RADIO STATIONS?"

MR. TRUMAN replied that under similar circumstances the President of the United States has to act for whatever is best for the country.

"That," he said to the reporter who had asked him the question, "is the answer to your inquiry."

His reply raises this further question:
 In such a case, WHO WOULD BE THE JUDGE as to what was best for the country?

Why, the PRESIDENT would be the judge!
 Just as President Peron was the judge in a case when it seemed TO HIM that it was "best" for Argentina to seize the great newspaper La Prensa — which had consistently opposed Peron.

THIS is the point I'd like to make:
 President Truman's answer to the reporter's question reveals his conviction that this has become A GOVERNMENT OF MEN and is no longer a government of laws.

History tells us plainly that when ANY nation reaches that point the liberties of its people are endangered.
 I SUPPOSE you expect me as a publisher to explode with indignation at this suggestion that my newspaper might be taken away from me by the government.

I shall do no such thing. As a newspaper publisher, I am a private business man. All my adult life, I have done business in a free private enterprise system. In a free private enterprise system, ALL business men face and accept the risk of losing their businesses. If they misjudge conditions and go too deeply into debt and are unable to pay their bills, THEIR CREDITORS TAKE OVER and they are out. That is inherent in the system.

In a free private enterprise system, business men accept ALL risks—including the risk that the SYSTEM WILL CHANGE. No one can guarantee that ANY system will endure forever. Britain was long a free enterprise country. So was Germany. So was Argentina.

But in all of them the system changed. In all of them, private business men have seen their properties taken over by the government, for one reason or another. There was nothing they could do about it. It was just one of the risks they accepted when they went into business for themselves.

So —
 If the system changes in America, I'll just have to put up with it and take the consequences. I'll protest, of course, but in the end I'll have to say to myself that it was one of the risks I had to accept when I went into business.

Logger, Attorney Warned by Deputy
 Portland — (UPI) — Sam D. Alexander, Gold Beach logger, and his attorney were warned Monday that they were "pleading themselves into a criminal case."

The warning was made by U. S. Deputy District Attorney Edward Twining during hearing of a motion by Alexander to intervene in the government's suit to void the sale of 800 acres of Indian-owned land near Gold Beach.

Alexander's attorney, Robert L. Weiss, argued his client had an option to buy the valuable timber before the Portland area office of the Indian bureau sold it to Mrs. Ernestine Sinsical of Siletz.

On the same day that Mrs. Sinsical bought the tract for $135,000, she was said to have sold it to Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Taylor of The Dalles for $160,000.

Alexander claimed Mrs. Sinsical's father, Elmer Reed, also of Siletz, agreed to buy the tract and was then to sell it to Alexander for $12,500 profit.

It was this arrangement, Twining warned, which might make Alexander subject to criminal penalties. The Sinsical-Taylor transaction is the basis of the government suit to set aside the sale.

The Grange
 Pomona Grange
 Jackson county Pomona Grange will meet Saturday, April 26, at 10 a. m. in Lake Creek Grange hall. All resolutions should be presented at this meeting.
 Chaplain Kathleen Scovall will have charge of memorial services.
 Members are to take salad or dessert for dinner.

SO MUCH for the newspaper owner.
 But what of the public if the newspapers are taken over by the government?

LET'S put it this way:
 Newspapers, under private ownership, are not perfect. We all make mistakes. Some of us are biased and intolerant.

But —
 We are all in competition with each other. In the small cities, we compete with the newspapers from larger communities that enter our towns. We compete with the radio, with television, with the magazines. And all of these media compete with each other.

We all try to tell all the news and to tell it first so that we will make a good showing in comparison with our competitors. That is inherent in the free private enterprise system.

WHAT if the government takes over the newspapers?
 Well, in that event, you will read in the newspapers ONLY WHAT GOVERNMENT WANTS YOU TO READ. That and no more.

Another thought:
 If government takes over the newspapers, it will have to take over radio and television and the magazines. It will have to go whole hog or none. It has been that way in Russia under communism. It was that way in Germany under Hitler. It was that way in Italy under Mussolini.

IF THE newspapers were taken over by the government, their owners would be out. And injured. They would suffer, of course.

But the public would suffer MORE, for without free newspapers there would be no free news. There would be only the news that government wants the people to know. Without free news, there can be no liberty.

That is the long and the short of it.
