Robinson Said Hard At Campaign Work

Fred E. Robinson, Medford candidate for the Republican nomination as Oregon's state treasurer, with only three weeks to go before the May 18th primaries, has stepped up the intensity of his campaign, according to Charles D. Wheeler, campaign manager for Robinson.

Robinson is getting a fine reception both in Portland and at Willamette Valley points where he has been working the past week, Wheeler said, and a number of organizations have swung into the campaign with their support.

Tuesday evening, Robinson was in Salem, and he spent yesterday working in Portland. Today he is again in Salem and Polk county.

Friday he will be in Eugene, returning to Portland to spend the week-end.

The Grange

Phoenix Grange
Lecturer Jake Arnold presented Mrs. Eve Prentice and her accordion troupe at the regular meeting of Phoenix Grange on April 22. Those playing were Vida Childers, Lorraine Morse, Beverly Jones, Janice Stanford, Dorna Mallams, Ethel Culver, Deloris Davis, Cora Bell Raveron, Raymond Swingle, Dick Whitlock, John Lisic and Dale Ward. Featured soloists were Beverly Jones and Cora Bell Raveron, 7-year-old pupil.

Queen candidate Miss Leota Perry sponsored by the Grange for the May festival was welcomed by Master Claude Hutton. A gift was presented to her from the Grange.

Charles Hockersmith was elected fire insurance representative to state Grange.

Ways and Means committee has plans for the final grand party Tuesday night, April 29. All members are invited. Entertainment and refreshments will be provided. This will complete the project started with "Come As You Are Parties."

Serving committee for next regular Grange meeting May 13 will include Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Penland, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Skinner, Mrs. Marian V. Riegel and W. B. Tucker.

Grange ladies are urged to enter the fancy apron contest sponsored by the state Grange Home Economics committee.

Phoenix Grange won $5 reward sponsored by Pomona Grange for first and second degrees conferred at Bellview Grange on April 15.

1952 Crop Outlook Still Favorable

Minneapolis — (U.P.) — The outlook for crop production in 1952 is "favorable" despite the damaging floods which have swept through the Missouri and Mississippi River valleys, the Cargill Crop Bulletin said Thursday.

The floods will "cut heavily" into acreage seeded to corn in the affected areas, the Bulletin said. If these areas are cropped at all, it will be to late crops, it said.

Unseasonably low temperatures caused some damage to the nation's winter wheat crop which was estimated at 947,000,000 bushels. However, favorable growing conditions in the future would enable the crop to overcome a large part of the damage, the Bulletin said.

In both the East and Pacific Northwest, the crop survived the winter in better than average condition, and was making "good progress."

CONTRACT AWARDED
Salem — (U.P.) — Betchel Bros., Elgin, has been awarded a contract for construction of a park camping area at Immigrant Springs state park, the highway department said Thursday. The firm submitted a low bid of $34,754.90.

Machinists' Strike Threatened in North

Seattle — (U.P.) — Some 2,200 members of the International Association of Machinists (IAM) may strike against 45 Puget Sound metal-fabricating plants Monday unless now work contracts are signed, a union official warned Thursday.

I. A. Sandvigen, local 79 business representative, said some 125 independent shops would not be affected if they signed agreements to abide by any contracts signed with the larger factories.

If the strike were called, it probably would idle some 6,000 workers, many of whom belong to unions which already have signed agreements with employers, an industry spokesman said.

Sandvigen said the dispute is over a health and welfare program offered by employers, wording of a proposed automatic wage increase in the contract, and the field pay scale for machinists.

Jacksonville Garbage Collections Change

Jacksonville—Beginning May 1 garbage collection in Jacksonville will be handled by Medford City Sanitary service, Mayor Albert Hackert reported.

He advised all residents to take advantage of the service since the dump ground previously used will be closed to the public.

Hackert stated also that a survey of the city, with the help of the fire department, will be made to see that rubbish and fire hazards are removed.

Hackert and city councilmen said today that the police department has been instructed to issue citations to anyone found permitting dogs to run at large. Dogs must be kept penned or leashed during April, May, June and July. Hackert, in requesting cooperation of dog owners, pointed out that the ordinance regarding dogs was passed after numerous requests by residents.
