Medford Student Rules Chairman For Club Session

Miss Noreen Kelly, Medford, will serve as chairman of the rules committee when the Young Democratic club of Oregon holds the annual convention this weekend. The meeting is slated for April 25-27 in Portland.

Miss Kelly, student at Marylhurst college, is second vice-president of the organization and also is national committeewoman for the young democrats. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Kelly, 906 West Fourth, both of whom have been active in the democratic party for many years. Mrs. Kelly is at present chairman of the democratic party for Jackson county. Main convention sessions, including election of officers and a public banquet, are set for Saturday, April 26, in the banquet room of Portland Women's club. Robert Y. Thornton, Tillamook attorney and democratic candidate for attorney general, will be the principal speaker for the banquet.

According to a release from the club, the most-often mentioned candidates for the office of state president are Jack Snodgrass, Grants Pass, now first vice-president, and Charles R. Zulauf, Eugene, now treasurer. State President Walter J. Dennis, Portland, has announced he is not a candidate for re-election.

Annual Music Festival To Open Friday at School

Several hundred high school students will arrive in Medford Friday to participate in the annual southern Oregon music contest-festival to be held all-day Friday and Saturday morning, April 25 and 26, at Medford Senior High school.

Vocal and instrumental groups from 15 schools in the district will perform for either criticism or a numerical rating. Judges are to be Chet Duncan, former supervisor of music for the Portland schools; Karl Ernst, the present supervisor and Les Armstrong, music supervisor at Olympia, Wash.

A single admission will enable the public to attend any or all of the events, it is stated, plus the specially planned program Friday evening. At that time the 80-voice Medford Junior High school boys' chorus and the Medford and Klamath Falls Class A division orchestra will perform. The final division on the evening's program will feature the Class B bands from Central Point, Lakeview and Ashland.

A spring concert will be given Thursday, at 8 p.m. in the Talent high school gymnasium by the combined Talent and Jacksonville bands and choruses under the direction of John M. Eby, music director for both schools. The concert is being held in preparation for the musical festival here Friday.

The combined choruses will include about 80 mixed voices and the bands will include about 45 pieces. The two groups appeared in a similar concert Tuesday night at Jacksonville.

Canton and Auxiliary Hold Monthly Meeting; Initiate Mrs. Campbell

Siskiyou canton and auxiliary, Patriarchs Militant, held the monthly dinner and meeting last Friday evening at IOOF hall, M. V. Kight, captain of the canton and Mrs. Kight, president of the auxiliary, presided at the meetings and Mrs. Kight was assisted by their daughter, Miss Dorothy Kight. Miss Kight has been at the Shrine hospital in Portland, she is enrolled in nurse's training.

During the business meeting Mrs. W. A. Campbell was initiated into the auxiliary, with members of the canton acting as guards.

Mrs. O. S. Walden, chairman for the ham supper which the groups plan on May 3, reported on the event.

Mrs. Blanche Robinson, Mrs. George Brownlee and Mrs. John Black make up the May refreshment committee.

Monday evening members of the two groups visited Jacksonville Rebekah lodge, with members of the delegation wearing lodge uniforms.

In addition to the band and choral concert there will be numbers by a fourth grade flute-phonograph band.

Install Officers Of Lincoln PTA At Last Meeting

Mrs. Dee Newton, past president of Lincoln Parent-Teacher association, conducted installation of new officers at the April meeting of the association held recently in the school gymnasium. Officers installed were Mrs. John Benson, president; Mrs. S. J. Fagone, vice-president; Mrs. Paul Gasparotti, secretary; Mrs. William Lyman, treasurer and Mrs. A. E. Sidener, historian.

Mrs. Benson presented a past president's pin to Mrs. H. V. Martin, retiring president.

The program for the afternoon opened with introduction of student body officers by V. P. Bevis, principal. They are president, Tony Brauner; vice president, Dale Shaw; secretary, Beverly Beach; treasurer, Larry Albright.

The basketball player's trophy for the outstanding player of the year was presented to Dale Shaw.

Miss Laura Hont's fourth grade music pupils presented a musical program accompanied by Mrs. Bernice Viles and led by Mrs. Hazeldean Hohensee.

Attendance prize was won by Miss Hont's fourth grade room. Important dates on the calendar were announced by Mr. Bevis, including health day, May 2, an all school musical at the high school football field, May 9; Lincoln school exhibit, May 16 and the end of school, June 6.

Refreshments were served by a committee of first grade mothers with Mrs. Dean Leuhr, chairman and Mrs. Audrey Nelson, Mrs. Eunice Warren, Mrs. Boyce Kellogg and Mrs. H. T. Holman assisting.
