Old-Fashioned Picnic Given at TouVelle Park For Presbyterian Youth

The Junior High Sunday School department of First Presbyterian church of Medford held an old-fashioned picnic Sunday, April 20, at TouVelle park.

Parents of the young people brought picnic lunches which were spread at one long table, seating 91.

The picnic launched a new program in the church to promote spiritual growth. Mrs. William Farrell, teacher of the eighth grade, explained the rules of the contest, which she planned. The contest will close with a chicken dinner for the winners, and bean dinner for the losers. Parents are to share with their children, or in lone.

Games were played, with George Flanagan as supervisor and Wilson Slater as assistant. Both are teachers in the department.

After dinner the group was led in singing hymns by John Benson. The accompaniment was by a group of accordion players from Mrs. Eve Prentice's studio. Playing were Janice Stanford, Lorraine Morse, Vida Childers, Dolores Davis and Dale Ward. Beverly Jones sang a solo.

A skit, directed by Dorothy Henderson, sponsor of Westminster fellowship, was presented by Jimmy Martolin, Duane Sides, Ray Williams, Gerry Metternick and Jack Gregory.

Nathan Douthit of the eighth grade class read from the scripture, and also led the group in prayer.

Prospect Auxiliary Gives Party at Club

Prospect — Prospect Community club was the scene of a party given April 19 in honor of Prospect lions members of the women's auxiliary.

"Hard Times" was the theme carried out. Prize for the poorest dressed woman went to Mrs. Lowell Ash, while George Hubbard, depicting a blind beggar, took the prize for men. The prize award was won by Mr. and Mrs. Harold Chriswell.

Cards and dancing furnished entertainment for the group. Supper was served from boxes, decorated in purple and gold.

In charge of entertainment, were Mrs. James Popp, Mrs. Jack Hollenback and Mrs. Ralph Goode. Heading the supper committee was Mrs. Charles Funk, assisted by Mrs. Lawrence Sanderson, Mrs. Robert Leaven-goode, Mrs. Ralph Goode, and Mrs. Louis Biden.
