

Miss Patsy Older Named Princess For Campus Event

Miss Patsy Older, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Older, 38 North Berkeley way, has been elected a princess for the annual May week-end to be held May 1 to 4 at Willamette university. The queen is Miss Betty Jean Mullin, senior from Portland, and the second princess is Miss Carolann Snarr, San Bruno, Calif.

Miss Older, a major in home economics, has been cast as feminine lead in three university drama productions and is an active member of Willamette University Players. She has also been on the yell squad for two semesters and was president of Delta Gamma, social fraternity for women, last year.

In Operetta

Miss Dorothy Marie Anderson, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Henry W. Anderson, 1612 East Jackson street, Medford, was one of the cast of "The Old Maid and the Thief," operetta produced by the University theater, University of Oregon, last week. The production closed Saturday night.

Miss Anderson, a junior in the school of music, played the part of a spinster companion.

Miss Patsy Older, Medford, has been named one of two princesses for the annual May Weekend at Willamette university, May 1 to 4. Miss Older, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Older, 38 North Berkeley way, is a senior at the school.

Golden Wedding Phoenix Couple To Be Observed

Phoenix — Mr. and Mrs. Charles Taylor Pipes of Phoenix will observe their 50th wedding anniversary by holding open house at their Phoenix home Sunday, May 4. Friends are invited to call between the hours of 1:30 and five o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Pipes were married in La Verne, Calif., May 4, 1902. They moved to Sams Valley in 1905 and have lived in Jackson county ever since. The Pipes resided for a few years on the Old Stage road near Central Point and moved to the present home in Phoenix in 1925.

Their foster daughter, Mrs. Lewis Todd, the former Doris Holmes, lives in Tacoma, Wash. Mrs. Todd and her husband, Dr. Todd, and their five children will be here Sunday for the golden wedding anniversary.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Pipes will be 79 years old in September. Mrs. Pipes was born in Bloomfield, Ia., and is the former Julia Ann DeMar. Mr. Pipes was born in Lancaster, Mo.

Sale Marks Meeting Of Sojourners' Club; Two Become Members

Mrs. Frank English and Mrs. Vera Myers acted as auctioneers at a "white elephant" sale held by the Medford Sojourners club during their Thursday meeting at the Medford hotel. Spring flowers and the sale articles were used as decorations about the room.

Mrs. E. F. Cronin was elected president, replacing Mrs. Charles Ninemires, who resigned. Mrs. B. F. Coleman was elected first vice-president. A camellia corsage was presented to Mrs. Cronin.

Mrs. W. H. Sturgeon and Mrs. Mildred Joseph became new members. Special prizes were awarded to Mrs. Faith Graves and Mrs. Joe Materie. Bridge prizes went to Mrs. Ted Quinn, Mrs. T. D. Keig and Mrs. Frank Sawacki.

Pinchle prizes went to Mrs. C. G. Whitney and Mrs. Richard Mayes. Mrs. J. E. Westlund and Mrs. Frank English were canasta winners.

Mrs. Sawacki, Mrs. Robert A. Brown and Mrs. S. G. Parker were hostesses. The next regular meeting will be May 8.

Schedule Meeting For Methodist Class

Woman's Bible class of First Methodist church will meet May 1 at 1:30 p.m. in the church parlor.

Annual Banquet Methodist Women Is Coming Event

Much interest is being shown in the annual Mother-Daughter banquet to be held in the dining hall of the First Methodist church May 5 beginning at 6:30 o'clock, those in charge state.

An interesting feature on the program will be "living pictures" which will present the life of a daughter from babyhood to the young bride. Young women of the church will model for these pictures and the album of pictures will open with the small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jewett posing for the babyhood model. In charge of program arrangements are Mrs. John Carter, Mrs. J. C. Sparks and Mrs. H. D. Beatty.

The decorating committee, headed by Mrs. Richard Fanger, is composed of Mrs. A. C. Pierce, Mrs. George Watson, Mrs. Harry Myers and Mrs. Phil Stemberge.

Tickets for both mothers and daughters are available through chairmen of the several circles. Entertainment for small daughters will be presented in another part of the church after the banquet, it is announced by the general committee.

Episcopal Guild Busy With Plans For Annual Party

Members of St. Mark's Evening guild are busy with plans for the annual spring bridge party, which has been set for Wednesday, May 14. It will be held in the church guild hall.

Reservations for the party are being taken by Mrs. Jack D. Wood, telephone 2-4692, and Mrs. R. P. Corbin, telephone 2-7297.

Mrs. Walter Tomlin and Mrs. R. P. Corbin are co-chairmen for this affair. Other committee chairmen are Mrs. T. C. Barker, publicity; Mrs. Lew Miles, favors; Mrs. D. M. Lambert, decorations; Mrs. Roy Brown, tables; Mrs. Robert Morris, table-setting; Mrs. Fred Lorish, tickets; Mrs. Robert Wilcox, refreshments; Mrs. Robert Dames, serving; and Mrs. Edward L. Bunnell, prizes.

The guild will meet in the parish house at 8 p.m., Monday, April 28. Hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. John G. Crawford and Mrs. Steve Anderson.

The evening will be spent making favors for the party.

Meeting Announced

Sams Valley -- Sams Valley Ladies' club will meet Thursday, May 1, at 2 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Mary Marsh.

Medford Activists Entertain Guests During Convention

A number of social events in the city this week-end are centered around visitors here for the convention of District No. 3, Active International, held at Medford hotel. The convention opened Friday and closed today.

A party was given at the hotel Friday night for early arrivals, and guests registered Saturday morning.

Members of Medford Ladies' Activists entertained at a luncheon at Rogue Valley Country club Saturday noon for women visitors, with cards following luncheon. Mrs. George Schuler was chairman of the luncheon, assisted by Mrs. Herman Coppedge, president of Medford Ladies' Activists, and Mrs. Al Bradford, wife of the lieutenant-governor for District 3.

Saturday night a dinner-dance was held at the hotel, and a breakfast is planned for Sunday morning.

Among the visitors are Mrs. James Shelton, Grants Pass, wife of the district governor, and Mrs. George Rossman whose husband, Judge Rossman, Salem, is a guest speaker for the convention.

Delegate Attends National Convention Of Voters' League

Mrs. Donovan Foster left Saturday by United Airlines for Cincinnati, O., to attend the annual national convention of League of Women Voters. The convention opens Monday, April 28, and the local delegate will join with members from nearly 800 leagues in 47 states, Alaska, Hawaii and the District of Columbia in adopting a national plan of work for the next two years, adopting a budget and electing national officers.

Mrs. John G. Lee, Farmington, Conn., will again head the slate presented by the nominating committee. Other nominees are: First vice-president, Mrs. Robert F. Leonard, Washington, D.C.; second vice-president, Mrs. Waldo E. Stephens, Oklahoma City; secretary, Mrs. Walter Neale, New York, N.Y.; treasurer, Mrs. F. W. Hopkins, Highland Park, N.J.; directors: Mrs. Edward M. Boyne, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Mrs. Orville Foreman, Jacksonville, Ill.; Mrs. Henry L. Killen, Orlando, Fla.; Mrs. Rensslikert, Ann Arbor, Mich.; Mrs. Moses H. Lurie, Belmont, Mass.; and Mrs. Martin A. Row, Dallas, Texas.

Tuesday evening, Miss Anna Lord Strauss, former national president of the league, will address the delegates. Miss Strauss has recently returned from Paris where she was an alternate on the U. S. delegation to the sixth session of the General Assembly of the United Nations.

Dr. John Kenneth Galbraith of Harvard university will address a dinner meeting on Wednesday, April 30. His subject is "Our Economy in Its International Setting." Thursday afternoon a distinguished panel of experts will discuss the question "What Makes People Think."

Thursday evening presidential candidates from the Republican and Democratic parties have been invited to address the League on issues selected as most important by public forums held throughout the country.

Mrs. Foster has been nominated for first vice-president of the Medford league.

FL Club

FL club will meet at the home of Mrs. O. S. Walden, 1014 East Eleventh street, Monday, April 28, for a business session.

Medford Girl Named Queen Of Oregon Job's Daughters

Miss Carolyn Coleman, past queen of Medford Bethel, Job's Daughters, was chosen honorary state queen for Oregon during the 28th annual session of the grand guardian council held last week-end in Roseburg. She will serve for the ensuing year.

Miss Carolyn Coleman

For the first time the Bethel was represented by a drill team in the competitive drills and the team gained further honor for the Medford Bethel by placing second in its classification.

Members of the team were housed at the Shady Oaks motel near Roseburg, and Friday night were surprised with a midnight bonfire and wiener roast given by the proprietors of the motel, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Thornton.

Twenty-eight members of Medford Bethel attended the sessions.

Sorority Chapter Holds Initiation; Install Officers

New members of Alpha Rho chapter of Beta Sigma Phi were initiated at a ceremony held Thursday evening in the Girls Community club.

The new members are Mrs. Corliss Shouts, Mrs. Harold Arthur, and Mrs. Roy Petre.

A candlelight ceremony preceded the initiation and was conducted by the president, Mrs. Edward Bunnell, and Mrs. W. H. Fisher.

The ritual of jewels was presented for Mrs. Richard Mundy, Mrs. Ray Dallaire, Mrs. Russell Budreau and Mrs. Maynard Paup.

The officers for the coming year were also installed. Mrs. Treavell Turpin is president; Mrs. Fisher, vice-president; Mrs. Harvey Bell, extension officer; Mrs. Paup, secretary, and Mrs. Ray Clark, treasurer.

An informal social period followed and refreshments were served. Mrs. Turpin poured. The table was decorated with yellow roses and tapers.

A guest for the evening was Mrs. Dennis Carter, a recent transfer from Corvallis.

Plans now are being made for the Founders' day banquet which will be held in the Ashland Elks club May 2. All chapters of Grants Pass, Medford and Ashland are invited to attend. Reservations should be made with Mrs. Bunnell, telephone 2-6355.

Schedule Meeting For Evening Group

The evening arts group of the American Association of University Women will meet Thursday, May 1 at 8 p.m. in the Fred Burich home, 2302 Hillcrest road.

Sunday, April 27, 1952

MEDFORD (OREGON) MAIL TRIBUNE—THREE

Insurance Specialist To Speak on Thursday For City PTA Group

John Stanley, specialist in the health and accident department of United Pacific Insurance company, Seattle, is scheduled to speak at a meeting of Medford Council of Parents and Teachers upstairs at the YMCA, Thursday, May 1, at 1:15 p.m. His talk is to be followed by a discussion period.

Highlights of the recent state convention held in Pendleton will be informally discussed by some of the members who attended. Members of Washington PTA will be hostesses. New officers will be installed.

Mrs. Lloyd Bransford, president, states that all those who are interested in the welfare of school children are welcome to attend the meetings of the Medford council.

Announce Trothal Of Valley Couple

Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Turnbough, 422 Cedar lane, announce the engagement of their daughter, Myrna, to Richard Turnbough, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Turnbough, Route 1, Medford.

No date for the wedding has been set.

The bride-elect is a junior in Phoenix High school and her fiancé is a graduate of that school. He is now with the Talent Irrigation district.

"YOUR BEAUTY SHOP"

221 NORTH RIVERSIDE

MOTHER'S DAY SPECIAL . . .

FREE Manicure with Each Permanent

Closed Thursdays

PHONE 2-6728

Shower Curtains

HAND PAINTED

WAKEFIELD

DRAPERY

6th and Bartlett

Phone 2-6010

The World's Finest Watches

are at

Brophy's

Quality watches, names you can trust for split second accuracy, dependability and lasting service—you'll find a watch for every need and in every price class—at Brophy's.

- ☆ Omega
- ☆ Hamilton
- ☆ Elgin
- ☆ Le Coultre
- ☆ Girard Perregaux
- ☆ Bulova
- ☆ Movado
- ☆ Mido

For the Watches You'll Give with Pride . . . Let Brophy's Be Your Guide

NEW SUMMER STORE HOURS
8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Brophy's
JEWELERS
MEDFORD, OREGON

Quality Diamonds Honestly Priced for Over a Quarter of a Century

Spring
Will Suit
You

At Jean
Hart's

Silk!
Wool!
Cotton!
Rayon!

As fresh and welcome as the flowers in your garden . . . the bouquet of suits waiting your wearing at Jean Hart's. Beginning at 22.95.

Let's dress Mother up for Mother's Day.

22
S. Grape

LEONS
GREAT ANNUAL

2 for 1
SHOE SALE

Continues All Next Week

In the Spring Time
It's SWING TIME
at the Toy House

Two swings, a bar and a pair of rings—Makes a happy playground of your small back yard. Expert construction by Gym Dandy!

$20⁹⁵

Delivered and Assembled

28 S. BARTLETT