Oregon Jayvee Baseballers Blank Medford High 7 to 0

Medford high's baseball team took a double-header from Myrtle Creek yesterday, 7-2 and 13-1 (latter 5 1/2 innings), at Myrtle Creek. In the first game, Richard Wootan pitched six-hit ball for the winners, including one home run by Gillespie of Myrtle Creek. Rightfielder Terry Maddox led the local hitting attack with two singles, a triple and a home run for a total of three runs. The second game found the locals gathering eight runs in a "big" third inning, while Myrtle Creek's only run resulted from a base on balls.

University of Oregon, Eugene Strong-armed Farrell Albright, a freshman from Milwaukee, shut out Medford high here Friday with one hit as the Oregon junior varsity baseball team won its fourth game in five starts. Ted Landers collected the lone Medford safety in the second inning. The Prep club had several other scoring opportunities

Manhattan College Leads In Penn Relays Victories

Philadelphia — (U.P.) — Manhattan college, with a fireball foursome sweeping the sprint events and a surprising quartet racing to a three-yard victory in the mile, captured three top events Saturday as the 58th annual Penn relays rolled to a close on soggy Franklin field. The Manhattan Mercuries of the Sprints, John O'Connell, Joe Schatzle, Larry Remingo and Bob Carly, unbeaten in the final events since they were grouped as a foursome, captured the 440 and the 880 relays in dazzling times of 42 and 1:28.2, gill-edged in the swampy morass churned up by thousands of runners during the two days.

as the results of walks and error plays, but could not hit Albright effectively in the clutch. Derald Wootan, Medford's fine right hander, was touched for seven hits and coupled with shaky support had trouble in three innings. Don Hedgepeth, former Grants Pass star, Paul Byre and Neil Marlette all collected two hits each to lead the Ducklings.

Crater Wins Track Meet

Crater high overpowered the opposition Thursday in a four-team track meet at Ashland. The Comets scored 93 1/2, Phoenix 40 1/2, Eagle Point 10 1/2 and Talent 5 1/2. Jim Halfhill of Crater was high point man, winning the quarter-mile, the 100-yard dash and the broad jump and running in the relay for 16 1/4 points. Jim Holt of Phoenix was first in the 220-yard dash and second in the 100 and broad jump for 11 3/4 points. Jim Crawford of Crater was a double winner taking the high jump and half-mile and Jim Jerry of Phoenix nabbed both hurdle events.

STANFORD WINS
Palo Alto, Calif. — (U.P.) — Stanford's Olympic Decathlon Champion Bob Mathias, still recovering from a thigh injury, took two out of his three events Saturday as the Indian track team rolled over Occidental college, 79 to 52, in Stanford stadium.

Detroit Wins On One-Hitter By Houtteman

New York — (U.P.) — Detroit won its first game of the season and Art Houtteman won his first game since leaving for the Army in 1950 when he pitched a one-hitter Saturday for a 13-0 triumph over the skidding Cleveland Indians.

Checking the Tigers' losing streak at eight games, Houtteman had a no-hitter until Harry (Suitcase) Simpson slashed a single to left with two out in the ninth inning. Bobby Avila, the next batter, popped to Gerry Priddy to end the game. Houtteman, the 24-year-old "hard luck" hurler of the majors, who almost lost his life in an automobile accident in 1949 and suffered the loss of his baby daughter in another accident this spring, benefited from a 13-hit attack that included home runs by Vic Wertz and Catcher Joe Ginsberg. The Tigers drove Bob Lemon to cover with a three-run assault in the fifth, adding four more runs in the sixth and six more in the eighth. Lemon, who pitched a no-hitter against Houtteman in the same Briggs stadium four years ago, suffered his first loss of the campaign against two victories, while Houtteman, who faced only 29 batters, scored his first triumph against two losses.

Beavers Top Husky Nine

Corvallis — (U.P.) — Oregon State college rang up another win over the University of Washington here Saturday by downing the Huskies 10-8 in a Pacific Coast Conference Northern division baseball game. Washington's Bob Bell took the blame for the loss. He was knocked out of the game in a big sixth inning when the Beavers got three hits and Bell walked three batters to give OSC six runs. Washington staged a ninth inning rally to score four runs after two outs and with men on first and second. They got five hits—four singles and a triple—in that stanza. Leading hitters were Washington's Bob Houlihan who got 3 for 4, including a triple, and Third Baseman Bill Stuhrt who got 3 for 5.

WIND UP TRAINING
San Francisco — (U.P.) — Harry (Kid) Matthews and George Kaplan of Brooklyn wound up their training Saturday for their scheduled 18-hole battle at Winterland on Monday night. Matthews is a prohibitive favorite to whip the 21-year-old eastern youngster. A crowd of about 6,000 fans is expected to pay $20,000 to see the battle.

SHADING OPPONENT by narrowest of margins, Irish Billy Graham (left), New York's leading contender for world's welterweight title, ekes out a 10-round victory over Oakland's Art Soto in San Francisco bout rated draw by many fans. (International)

Art Larson Lambasts Opponent, Photographers and Noisy Crowd

Houston, Tex. — (U.P.) — Temperamental Art Larson of San Francisco ousted top-seeded Vic Seixas in a sweaty five-set River Oaks invitational tennis semifinal Saturday, finding time between his expert lob shots to scold news photographers and lecture the noisy gallery. The gutty little left-hander overcame Seixas in two hours and 30 minutes by a score of 5-7, 7-5, 3-6, 8-6, 8-6. The Philadelphia, rated the No. 1 amateur in America, had been the tournament favorite. The win put Larson into the finals against Gardner Mulloy of Coral Gables, Fla., who scored upsets over Herbie Flam and Dick Savitt to get there. The finals match is set for tomorrow afternoon.

Portland Meadows Opens '52 Season Thursday Evening

Portland — (U.P.) — Portland's fashionable Portland Meadows race track opens for its spring meeting Thursday, completely refurbished and boasting what it calls the finest roster of horses and jockeys in its history. The Turf club has been expanded to accommodate several hundred more patrons and the racing surface has been reconditioned.

300,000 Golfers To Meet Hogan

New York—The year's most unusual golf event comes up to the tee on Saturday, May 31, when an estimated 300,000 golfers throughout America will each play an 18-hole round against U. S. Open champion, Ben Hogan. During this unique one-day tournament, to be known nationwide as "National Golf day," Hogan will match woods and irons with every golfer—man, woman or youngster, "duffer" or expert. Each challenger is permitted his present bona fide handicap rating.

Seventh Graders Down All-Stars

The Medford junior high seventh grade track team defeated the grade school all-stars in a meet here last week, 41 to 18. The junior high crew took first in all events but the 330-yard run which was won by Doty of Jackson. King was a double winner in the dashes for the seventh graders.

Sutherland Nine Defeats Crater

Central Point—The Sutherland high school baseball nine defeated Crater high, 6 to 5 in a baseball game played here Saturday. The winning run came in the sixth inning on a Crater error. Beamer drove in two tallies with a home run in the fifth frame for the invaders. Kay Kelley, Crater freshman, gave up seven hits and three walks in receiving for the loss. He struck out one.

LINESCORE:
Sutherland — 002 121 0-4 7 2
Crater — 210 110 0-5 9 2
Batteries: Finnell and Beamer; Kelley and Morris.

Drake Relays Records Fall As Midwest Teams Shine

Des Moines, Ia. — (U.P.) — Midwestern schools won most of the honors in the 43rd annual Drake relays Saturday and wrote three new American collegiate records into the books along with a major share of 11 new Drake marks. In warm, sunny weather before 15,000 fans, Big Ten and Big Seven members won most of the glory in the university division and Texas colleges grabbed most of the college marks. Kansas set two of the new American marks and Illinois the third.

Oregon Beats Idaho Vandal

Moscow, Ida. (U.P.)—Oregon's powerful Ducks clinched the Pacific Coast conference's northern division track and title Saturday by easily downing the University of Idaho Vandals 78 to 53 on wind-swept Neale stadium.

The unbeaten Ducks won eight events, only two more than the Vandals, but dominated most of the program to score their fourth straight win of the season. Three meet records were eclipsed and a third tied despite a stiff wind. Idaho's Bruce Sweeney, high point man with 15 points, set a record in the high hurdles in 14.7 seconds and added wins in the broad jump and low hurdles.

BARRY CELEBRATES
Worcester, Mass. — (U.P.) — Jack Barry, shortstop in the Philadelphia Athletics' famous $100,000 infield celebrated his 65th birthday Saturday by saying that slugger like Ted Williams and Joe DiMaggio were as good as any of the oldtimers.

George Obenauer ABC President

Milwaukee — (U.P.) — George Obenauer of Buffalo, N. Y., took over as president of the American Bowling Congress Saturday. Obenauer was elected by approximately 1,000 ABC delegates to the Congress' annual convention.

The convention also ratified the choice of Seattle, Wash., as the 1954 tournament site, and dollar-wise delegates said they were highly pleased that Seattle had won its bid for the pin marathon.

Next year's matches at Chicago will cost the same amount. Dead line Sunday Classifieds is at noon Saturdays.
