

EVERYTHING FLOODED BUT WATER WORKS—The water works (lower right) at Wathena, Kans., protected by surrounding dike, is the only thing in town that is not flooded. The crest has passed this area near St. Joseph, Mo., and is rushing toward Kansas City, where engineers insist that city of 600,000 persons is in no danger.

Faith Domergue Scans New Film Career After Playing Jane Russell's Successor

London — (U.P.) — When Howard Hughes was looking for a successor for Jane Russell he found Faith Domergue.

"But," said Faith, "I couldn't possibly follow Jane. Not in the same way. The only physical superlative you can apply to me is that I have the longest lashes in Hollywood."

"It's not quite the same thing, is it?"

Would Be Close Race

In an off-the-shoulder dress, the brunette beauty showed why she would lose—but only in a photo-finish — to Miss Russell. But she doesn't care. After nine years under the Hughes banner she is looking forward to a new career—as herself and not the sultry siren Hughes tried to make her.

"They spent a fortune on that screen personality," she said. "And it has served me well in at least giving me a name and a character."

Discovered by Hughes when she was 15 years old, Faith had nine years of schooling including "helping me to eliminate a lip by talking with a toothpick between my teeth."

Lots of Thanks

"So I have really a lot to thank them for," she said. "But now my contract is over and I am going to try to show what I can do as an actress. I'll be sorry if the part calls for it but that's not the only emotion I can project."

Faith is here with husband Hugo Fregonese while he directs the film, "Decameron Nights," based on Boccaccio's earthy tales.

Their two children are joining them for several months of shooting in Spain and Britain.

"Vendetta," her first film for Hughes, took two years to shoot, had four different directors and cost nearly $3,000,000.

Quite An Experience

"It was quite an experience," Faith said.

"Think what it means, filming a long shot when you're 19 and coming back to match the close-up when you're 21."

"There was a small boy in some of my scenes who grew so fast while the picture was being made that, at the end, they had to dig a hole for him to stand in."
