Hearing Scheduled on Case of Stolen Diary

Washington—(U.P.)—Army Secretary Frank Pace Jr., said Monday a hearing will be held to determine whether Maj. Gen. Robert W. Grow, whose personal diary fell into Communist hands, should face a court martial. The 57-year-old Grow served in Moscow from July, 1950, until last Jan. 20 as military attache in the U. S. Embassy. He was recalled as a result of the diary incident. His diary was believed to have been stolen by a "Soviet agent" while Grow was in Frankfurt, Germany, last summer on a visit. Photographed excerpts from the diary were used in the Communist press to "prove" that the United States was advocating preventive war against the Soviet union.

As We Live

By ELIZABETH HURLOCK, PH.D.

RUNNING AWAY WON'T ERASE YOUR TROUBLE

(Q) "Would I be doing wrong by joining the army for four years of foreign service? I have been married and have a four-year-old daughter. I tried to keep my home together but my wife ran off and got a divorce. She married again before the ink was dry on the divorce papers. Since then, she has made life hard for me. Every time I meet someone nice and have a few dates, my ex-wife gets in touch with her and breaks up our friendship. She says she does not want me to put a stepmother over her child, and she doesn't want to see me married again. I love my child and know she needs a mother's care. My child would be well taken care of if I went overseas."

(A) You will not solve your problem by running away from it. And, it will certainly be hard on your child to have both of her parents desert her, even if you arrange for her to have good care during your absence.

There are other men in a position to fight for their country and who do not have the home responsibilities you have. Unless the war situation becomes worse than it is now, your daughter needs you more than your country does. Don't use this as an escape from a situation that has become difficult to handle.

Instead, take the bull by the horns and work out a solution to your problem. Your child needs a mother's care and you need help in bringing her up to be the woman you want her to be. That means remarriage, whether your former wife likes it or not. She should have nothing to say about the matter after leaving you and her child for another man.

Should Leave Community
So long as she makes trouble for you every time you go with another woman, your best policy is to go to another community where she cannot keep tabs on what you are doing and make trouble every time you establish a relationship with another woman. So long as you remain where you are, you will be at her mercy. That is bad when you are dealing with a selfish and unscrupulous person.

There are plenty of good jobs all over the country at the present time. You might be able to arrange for a transfer with the company you now work for and thus have an established job to go to when you move. Or, you might go to another community where you have relatives or friends who can help you to get established. Your child is so young that moving to a new community will not be a hardship for her and it will eliminate the possibility of your former wife's meddling any further in your life and your child's.

Gold Hill

Gold Hill Health Unit will hold its annual pot-luck picnic dinner Tuesday, May 6, at 1 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Arthur Boye on North 99 highway. Officers will be elected for the coming year. This will be the last meeting of the unit until September.

Gold Hill Garden club will meet Friday at 1 p.m. for its annual pot-luck picnic luncheon, at the home of Mrs. Arthur Boye on North 99 highway. Officers will be elected for next year. Installation ceremonies will be held at the June meeting.

The square dancing class sponsored by Amethyst Rebekah lodge will hold its next session Friday, May 2, at 8 p.m. at Odd Fellows lodge hall. The public is invited. Warren Kimball of Eagle Point will give instruction and act as caller. All women attending are asked to bring sandwiches or cookies for refreshments. All teen-agers are especially welcome.

The benefit chicken dinner served Saturday night at the Gold Hill Community Methodist church by the Women's Society of Christian Service was attended by most of the residents of the community and was a financial success, according to Mrs. Nora Wait and Mrs. Wilbur Martin, chairmen for the event. Travelogue motion picture films were shown afterward in the church auditorium upstairs, through courtesy of Conger-Morris of Medford. Proceeds will go to the church treasury.

The gymnasium of the Gold Hill grade school was filled to capacity Friday night for the physical education demonstration given by pupils of the upper grades, under direction of William Hall, physical education instructor. Tumbling acts, folk dances and other features were presented. The concluding "surprise" number was the hit of the show. Five small boys attired in crepe-paper costumes with ruffled skirts and ruffled "panties," performed a can-can dance. Admission, refreshment proceeds will go to the school activities fund.

Ralph Todd, grade school pupil, son of Mr. and Mrs. Angus Todd of Fifth avenue, suffered a broken arm Friday afternoon while he was practicing tumbling acts in the grade school gymnasium, in preparation for the physical education show Friday night. He was taken to Sacred Heart hospital in Medford, where his arm was set. He spent the night in the hospital and was brought home Saturday afternoon. His mother reports that he is getting along nicely.

The Sikhivou District meeting of the Oregon Federation of Garden clubs, to be held Thursday, May 1, at the American Legion hall in Central Point, will be attended by a delegation of members of the Gold Hill Garden club. Planning to go are Mrs. George Smith, club president; Mrs. George Dorman, secretary; Mrs. Paul Holderness, Mrs. Elmer Kraus, Mrs. Lester Thompson and Mrs. James Clement. Mrs. Ernest W. Jermark of Ashland, district chairman, will be in charge of the meeting.

Mrs. Fred Lester returned Saturday from a week's trip to Davis, Calif., to visit her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Shontz. While she was there, Mr. and Mrs. Shontz became the parents of a baby son. Mrs. Lester was accompanied on her trip by her two children, Vicki and Ricky, who attended school at Davis during the week. There have been no further developments during the past week in the matter of the State Highway Commission's request for the city to give up a portion of its Ben Hur Lampman park across the river from Gold Hill, as right of way for the new section of highway to be built there. The offer made by W. G. Stuntz, right of way agent, at a special council meeting April 14, that the state would build an access road to the park in return for being given a small portion of it, still remains open with no action taken by the council. There will be no council meeting until May 5, unless a special meeting should be called.

John Hays of First avenue was taken to the Community hospital in Medford Sunday morning, after being suddenly stricken with a heart attack.

IN the 1952 Mobilgas Economy Run, Studebaker successfully defended its reputation for stand-out gasoline mileage over a tortuous 1415-mile course from Los Angeles, via Mojave Desert, Grand Canyon and Salt Lake City to Sun Valley, Idaho, at speeds averaging more than 40 miles per hour. The Studebakers, piloted by experienced drivers under A. A. Contest Board rules, made operating economy history. Each Studebaker had overdrive, optional at extra cost—and used regular, not premium, gas. See cars just like these Studebakers at your nearby dealer's.
